What the Organs of the Scull Ring Said of Koontz and Kendall When Speaking from the Heart.

SOMERSET HERALD, NOV. 3, 1893.

GENERAL W. H. KOONTZ.

Republican Nominee for Assembly, Lawyer and Orator.

Among the members of the Somerset County Bar who have established a state-wide reputation, it would not be too much to say that one of our best-known citizens, a leader at the bar, a prominent figure in politics, a natural-born orator, who by his force of character and strength of intellect, at an early age became one of the prominent figures of our town and county.

BUNGLED POLITICS.

One of These Two Ringsters is a Gay Deceiver.

Mr. Harvey M. Berkley, the Scull Ring candidate for the Congressional nomination, is running in the interest of John M. Reynolds, of Bedford county, the renegade Democrat who recently came into the Republican party for office.

General Koontz is the son of a farmer, was born in Somerset in 1830, was educated in the public schools, studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1851. From the very start he was successful as a lawyer; was elected District Attorney in 1823 on the Whig ticket; made an unsuccessful race for the State Senate in 1857; was elected Prothonotary in 1880, and was sent to Congress in 1881 and was re-elected in 1888, after which he resumed the active practice of his profession, in which he has met with continued and excellent success.

General Koontz is a man of wide experience, clear-headed, painstaking and always alive to the interests of his clients, while socially he is one of the pleasant class of gentlemen whose good fellowship, fondness of anecdotes and comradeship make him a marked man at any gathering. He is open-hearted and pleasant to meet, and improves the stranger by his dignified, yet unassuming manners.

General Koontz is one of the Somerset Republican nominees for the general assembly, at the present time, and his election by a large majority is assured. It is somewhat unusual for a lawyer of his eminence to appear in the lower house at Harrisburg, but there is ample room there for him to exercise his legal knowledge and forensic ability, and his constituents may confidently look forward to his taking an active part in the deliberations of that body.

While General Koontz is well and widely known as an able attorney and eloquent speaker, he is also well-known as a political spindler, and his voice has been raised in many campaigns in Pennsylvania. His name is also on numerous occasions in the States of West Virginia, Maryland and Ohio.

MEYERSDALE COMMERCIAL, OCT. 27, 1898.

GENERAL W. H. KOONTZ.

It seems like "carrion crows to New Castle" to give a scurry of this popular Republican of Somerset county, but a brief outline of his busy career may help to explain the great interest in the younger generation, as well as pleasure to those of the preceding one. He was a delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago that nominated Abraham Lincoln, and one of the first delegates to support the great martyr President. Returning home he was nominated as Prothonotary, and elected.

In 1861 he was elected to the 36th Congress from the 18th district, then composed of Somerset, Bedford, Fulton, Franklin and Adams, and he was re-elected, 1868, to the 40th Congress. He took a very active part in the proceedings and acquired a national reputation. He was slow in favoring the impeachment of President Johnson, but in a speech made March 2, 1868, he argued that the violation of the tenure of office act was sufficient ground for summoning Mr. Johnson to the bar of the Senate.

RUNNING ON HIS FATHER'S RECORD.

Bazoo's Fulsome Praise for its Candidate.

WANTS TO REWARD HIM FOR SERVICE TO THE RING.

Peep at the Record of One who Outraged Republicans.

The Bazoo is running Harvey Berkley for Congress on his father's record, which is probably wise in view of Harvey's. The Bazoo launches Harvey into the field with a fulsome article under the title that he called an election.

Kooser Talks of His Candidacy.

The Republican voters are again called upon to decide a contest for Congressional nomination. After the endorsement I have previously had, I hoped to be elected the privilege of the selection of conferees this year without opposition, but a contest has been forced upon me. I, of course, will make no concession to either side.

General Koontz's Candidacy for the Legislature was hailed with the most extravagant joy by his friends.
