GOVERNOR STONE TURNED DOWN

Supreme Court Says He Had No Right to Veto Constitutional Amendments.

GOVERNOR TRIES TO EXPLAIN

Lebanon Court Says the Machine Caucus Pledge Is Unlawful.

DECISION AGAINST THE QUAYITE.

Governor Stone's Cut of $1,000,000 From the School Fund to Be Voted in Court-Montgomery County Directors Will Demand the Full Amount-Still More Trouble For the Machine.

Harrisburg, June 5.-Last week was perhaps the most disastrous that the Quayites and their leaders have experienced, not excepting the one which saw the defeat of Mr. Quay's hopes in his rejection by the United States senate.

The first of his troubles came on Tuesday when the supreme court declared from the bench that Governor William A. Stone exceeded his constitutional right when he vetoed the two amendments to the constitution approved by the last legislature providing for ballot reform in the shape of personal registration and the introduction of voting machines.

The case under consideration by the court was to compel Secretary of State Treasurer Beaman, a machine follower, who refused to consider courtously the proposition of Governor Stone, to pay the full amount of $1,000,000 in the shape of warrants on the treasury. Secretary Beaman had tested months ago but for ex-State Treasurer Beaman, a machine follower, who refused to consider courtously the proposition of Governor Stone, to pay the full amount of $1,000,000 in the shape of warrants on the treasury.

Mr. Scull Still in a Hole. Last week George R. Scull, Census Supervisor of this district, made a very laborious attempt through the old family organ, the Somerset Herald, to set himself right before the people he represented in the matter of appointing census enumerators.

Against the "Frosty Sons of Thunder." Somerset county these long years has been noted for its "frosty" sons of thunder. Its home-made sugar is good, its "frosty" sons of thunder are no less so.

BAILOT REFORM ISSUE. The voters of Pennsylvania now have the question of ballot reform through this action of the supreme court, directly before them as an issue in the November elections.

THE GOVERNOR'S VETO. The legislature elected in November will have to again pass these amendments, after which the people will ratify their action at the ensuing state election, and then the amendments become part of the constitution.

THE QUAYITE. In Lebanon county another Quay machine scheme was knocked in the head. Everywhere over the state the machine cause is being crushed.

CALIFORNIA LETTER.

Long Dry Spell Broken by May Showers.

Alfalfa vs. Oranges-Big Boom in Oil at Los Angeles-Millions Being Invested-Marine Oil Wells.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., May 27, 1900. If the Pennsylvania Dutch adage, "Ein nosser Moy macht fiel hot", applies to California as well to the Keystone State, then there ought to be a good crop of hay in these parts this year.

Another Test. Still another boy, aimed at the unconstituted Governor Stone, has been prepared in Montgomery county, where Lawyer C. Tyson Kratz, attorney for several school boards, proposes to bring suit to test the governor's right to cut $1,000,000 from the school fund.
