Is by the way of purifying the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla does this. It does more. It makes the blood rich by increasing and vitalizing the red globules and giving it power to transmit to the organs, nerves and muscles the nutriment contained in digested food.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

At a recent sale of seal fur skins in London extraordinary prices were realized. Don't give them less or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called Hood's? It is delicious and nourishing, and takes the place of coffee. The more health you give the children the more they will prosper. Hood's is like the choice grasses of coffee, but costs about 1/4 as much. All grocers sell it. 15c and 25c.

TROOPS LANDING.

Decided and Aggressive Action Taken in Concert Against the Boxers—Situation at Peking Critical—Missionsaries Killed.

Telegrams from Shanghai, dated Thursday, say: The dowager empress has ordered Gen. Nishitani to lead 3,000 men, to protect the railroad at Peking. A severe fight has occurred with the Boxers, whose ranks include many soldiers from other commands. When the battle ended 200 dead were left on the field.

One hundred and eighty British marines, with a machine gun, are about to force a passage from Tsing to Peking. Altogether, about 600 British have landed from the fleet, a greater number than have been landed from the combined vessels of the other powers.

This evidence of Great Britain's intention to take a position of strength is giving great satisfaction.

The engagement at Tung Hu, between the British and Catholic Christians Tuesday the latter captured the Chinese.

The authorities are displaying guilty suppression in dealing with the Boxers, and the powers are taking matters into their own hands.

While playing "robber" at West Liberty, O., Harry Miller, aged 12, shot Miss Taylor, aged 7, killing her.

The Boxers are still raiding and pillaging over a wide area. They have wrecked and burned the stations at Peking, and have killed many missionaries.

Attempts to repair the railway between Tsin and Peking have been frustrated by the Boxers, who have been strong, both the line against the engineers, gangs attacking the trains.

A special dispatch from Peking under date of Saturday says:

The American missionaries and women are being gathered at the American Methodist mission, surrounded by 100 native guards.

Another dispatch from Tsin Tsin, dated Saturday, says:

Eight troops of arms left for Peking by two troop trains this morning. Ten thousand Chinese are being gathered at Peking to back up the government or, if ministers upon the government are necessary to suppress the "Boxers" themselves.

The American mission buildings at Tung-Chau, 12 miles from Peking, which were abandoned by the missionaries, have been looted and burned.

The Christians, well-known men, who have been massacred near Tung-Chau. Many of them were buried.

The intimidation of Christians continues in Peking itself. Most of the missionaries are closed, and the missionaries are being collected under the protection of the Legation guard.

MANY REBELS SLAIN BY SOLDIERS.

AGUINALDO'S PLAN.

Papers Found Contain Rebel Chief's Instructions to His Bolomen for the Murdering of all Americans.

As a result of last week's scouting more than 200 Filipinos were killed and 100 captured, while 140 rifles, with ammunition and stores, were secured.

The American loss was nine killed, including a captain and a lieutenant, two captains and 21 privates wounded.

The great store of insurgent documents discovered by General Funston, together with some interesting papers which Captain Smith found in the possession of General Pantalone Garcia, were interesting side lights upon the Filipino government.

Most important of the lot is Aguinaldo's plan for the uprising in Manila, which was drawn by him at Malolos, in his own handwriting in the Tagalog language and bears the date of January 9, 1899.

The insurgents were to repair to house-tops whence they were to hurl down upon the enemy heavy mortar, and any iron implements they might have heated red-hot. They were also to be ready to enter the town, which was to be thrown upon passing soldiers, or squirted at them from bamboo syringes. The women and children were to be taken to the mountains.

They were instructed not to stop to pick up the guns of soldiers they killed, but to carry them to the mountains.

Particular injunctions were given for protecting the banks, even the Spanish bank.

Telegrams from Manila, dated Wednesday, say: Major Johnson, with two companies of the Twenty-ninth infantry and 25 men of the eighteenth infantry, were sent to the mountain to a neighboring island of Tablas, where they disembarked simultaneously in the morning.

Forty Filipino soldiers and a considerable quantity of ammunition had been captured by the Americans in the mountains back of the city. The Filipinos were also taken.

American scouts have destroyed the camp of Mascardo. The natives and 500 rifles will surrender if given assurances that they will not be imprisoned. Yesterday, while scouting in the vicinity of Santa Tomas, Province of Negros, two Americans were wounded.

Attacked by Two Eagles.

Strange Experience of a Man Who Met With a Mountain Mishap.

James Whitcomb, of Black Log Valley, Huntingdon county, Pa., met with a queer experience on Saturday.

He was going down a steep part of the Black Log mountain, when he caught a glimpse of a grape vine and swung out over the tree top.

He lost his hold on the vine and landed on the top of another tree further down the mountain.

The tree where he struck was an eagle's nest, and the old bird attacked him fiercely with talons and beak.

He succeeded in getting out and landed on the ground. The eagle followed him to keep him out until he had scrambled to the ground.

At this juncture the eagle was shot by a hunter. The bird was killed and the eagle was shot.

Outbreak in Borneo.

A special from Victoria, B. C., says: News was brought from the east by the steamer Empress of Japan that a serious uprising against the British had again broken out in North Borneo.

Manila, where the British had a base, was the cause of the outbreak. The general dissatisfaction against the British government was the cause of the outbreak.

Let into an Ambush.

Capt. Frank E. Orenshaw, with 40 men of the Twenty-eighth infantry, was sent to the mountain to a neighboring island of Tablas, where they disembarked simultaneously in the morning.

Forty Filipino soldiers and a considerable quantity of ammunition had been captured by the Americans in the mountains back of the city. The Filipinos were also taken.

A summary of the work of Congress, compared with the four preceding Congresses, gives the following data: Number of days in session 137; bills introduced 1,212; bills passed 1,212; public acts, 922; private acts, 922.

This far exceeds the work of the first session of the four preceding Congresses and in much shorter time. The shortest of these preceding first sessions was 75 days, as against 137 days in this session.

BARRIE IN POLITICS.

An Indian Child's Prayer.

Miss Mary P. Lord, a teacher among the Sioux Indians, tells us this beautiful little story: "An Indian baby was dying. It lay in its father's arms, while nearby stood another little daughter, a few years older, who was a Christian. 'Papa,' said the little daughter, 'little sister is going to heaven to-night. Let me pray.' As she said this she knelt at her father's knee, and this was the sweet little prayer which fell from her lips: 'Father God, little sister is coming to see you to-night. Please open the door softly, and let her in. Amen.'"
