

A Good Advertising Medium.

The Somerset County Star.

Fine Job Printing a Specialty.

VOLUME VI.

SALISBURY, ELK LICK POSTOFFICE, PA., THURSDAY, AUGUST 9, 1900.

NO. 28, 30

Just Received

another large line of
Calico And Percale Wrappers
direct from New York,
all in the
LATEST STYLES AND PATTERNS AT 75 CENTS, TO $1.50.

A fine line of
Mens', Boys'
And Children's Suits
Of All Kinds.
Men's and Boys' Dress and Working Pants.
Children's Knee Pants at all Prices.
Overalls, Jackets and Duck Coats at the lowest prices.

Elk Lick Supply Co.

Big Reduction
In All Summer Goods!

We will sell all of our Shirt Waists, which were 50 cts., 75 cts. and $1.00, at 38, 49 and 75 cts. All Summer Dress Goods and Underwear will also be

Closed Out
Regardless :: Of :: Cost!

We have just received an immense line of shoes. The Tan Shoe is the proper shoe for wear in warm weather. We have a full line of them in all the latest styles and widths. Prices range from $1.50 to $4.00.

Respectfully,
Barchus & Livengood.

BIGGLE BOOKS

A Farm Library of unequalled value—Practical, Up-to-date, Concise and Comprehensive—Handsome printed and Beautifully Illustrated.

By JACOB BIGGLE

- No. 1—BIGGLE HORSE BOOK
- No. 2—BIGGLE BERRY BOOK
- No. 3—BIGGLE POULTRY BOOK
- No. 4—BIGGLE COW BOOK
- No. 5—BIGGLE SWINE BOOK

The BIGGLE BOOKS are unique, original, useful—you never saw anything like them—practical, scientific. They contain all the information you need to know about the raising of the various farm animals. They are the best of their kind. They are the only ones that are up-to-date and complete. They are the only ones that are written in plain, simple language. They are the only ones that are worth the money.

FARM JOURNAL

Is your paper, made for you and not a misfit. It is 2 years old. It is the best of its kind. It is the only one that is worth the money. It is the only one that is written in plain, simple language. It is the only one that is up-to-date and complete. It is the only one that is worth the money.

Any ONE of the BIGGLE BOOKS, and the FARM JOURNAL 3 YEARS (remainder of 1900, 1901, 1902) will be sent by mail to any address for a DOLLAR PER COPY.

Sample of FARM JOURNAL, and circular describing BIGGLE BOOKS free.

WILHELM ATENSHON, CHAS. F. JENNISON, Address, PAINE JOURNAL, PHILADELPHIA

W. H. KOONTZ, J. G. OGLE
KOONTZ & OGLE,
Attorneys-at-Law,
SOMERSET, PENN.
Office opposite Court House.

FRANCIS J. KOOSER, ERNEST O. KOOSER,
KOOSER & KOOSER,
Attorneys-at-Law,
SOMERSET, PA.
Office opposite Post Office.

J. A. BERKEY
Attorney-at-Law,
SOMERSET, PA.
Office over Post Office.

R. E. MEYERS, DISTRICT ATTORNEY,
Attorney-at-Law,
SOMERSET, PA.
Office opposite Cook & Berth's Store.

A. M. LICHTY,
Physician and Surgeon,
SALISBURY, PENN.
Office one door east of P. S. Hay's store.

O. E. JARRETT,
LEADING WATCHMAKER AND JEWELER,
Salisbury, Pa.
All work neatly and substantially done on short notice.

Established 1853.
P. S. HAY,
—DEALER IN—
Dry Goods
Notions,
Hats and Caps,
Boots and Shoes,
GROCERIES,
QUEENSWARE, TOBACCO,
CIGARS, ETC.
SALISBURY, PA.

COL. McCURE ADVISES QUAY

Tells Old Friend He Is Politically Dead and Should Quit.

ORGUCIFIED BY HIS SUB-BOSSES

Col. McCure Shows How the Bosses Are Making Capital Out of the Beaver Man—His Days of Political Power Are at an End—A Remarkable Exposure of the Methods of the Quay Machine.

One of the most remarkable editorials ever written on the subject of Pennsylvania politics appeared in the Philadelphia Times in a recent issue. It was manifestly from the pen of Col. A. K. McClure, editor in chief of the Times, and the almost lifelong friend of Matthew Stanley Quay. In this article Col. McClure practically bids political farewell to Quay. He points out the cause of his downfall, and reveals his hopes that are true to life. The editorial in full is as follows:

EX-Senator Quay has been fearfully and persistently crucified during the last two years by ill-advised and disappointed friends, and he has committed the great error of his life by permitting his name and his power to be flung into hopeless battle solely because his retirement would have left his leaders stripped of their vocation. With him at the fore they are a power; with him eliminated they are powerless.

Mr. Quay is too intelligent and sagacious in politics not to understand the present political conditions in Pennsylvania. It is known that he would gladly have retired at the close of his last senatorial term if he had consulted his own wishes and personal interests. He was on the point of retirement more than once during the protracted senatorial contest of the last legislature, but his retirement would have created a new leadership in his party, and his friends could not command and that they could not follow with profit, Quay would have had conciliation, but his friends could divide their power without surrendering supremacy, and they have insisted upon continuing Quay to give them the power in politics that they could not win for themselves.

Quay missed a great opportunity on the day that he was acquitted of the criminal charge, that was a malignant political device, and when he tendered the appointment of senator by the governor, by falling to follow his own judgment and wishes and publicly declining the senatorial appointment and declaring his absolute retirement, he has committed the error that would have commanded the respect of political friend and foe, would have given him a new lease of leadership that he could have utilized to strengthen himself and his party, and would have saved him from the humiliating record of his party in the election in his effort to gain admission to the senate.

But again came the appeals of leaders who would be helpless and hopeless without continuing Quay as a crutch. He was not a crutch, but he was a field victim. He was not a crutch, but he was a field victim. He was not a crutch, but he was a field victim. He was not a crutch, but he was a field victim.

A LANDSLIDE IN BRADFORD

The County Nominates an Anti-Quay Senator and Three Representatives.

QUAY REJECTED BY THE PEOPLE.

Great Majority For the Anti-Machine Candidate—Barrels of Cash and Trust Profits Thrown Into the Fight—It Was the Bosses Against the People, and the People Won.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Harrisburg, Aug. 7.—By one of the largest majorities ever given at a primary election the Republicans of Bradford county on Saturday last nominated three anti-Quay representatives and one anti-Quay senator. It was the most emphatic repudiation of the senator and the state machine that they have received since the sweep in Allegheny county four months ago, when the Quayites lost practically everything.

The anti-Quay candidates were Robert S. Edmonson, for the senate; Fred K. Taylor, Joseph P. Hamilton and Frank J. Lomas, Mr. Edmonson was a representative in the last house at Harrisburg. He was one of the anti-Quay men who refused to go into the machine caucuses, and on this he was attacked by the machine in his canvass through the county. The other candidates on the anti-Quay ticket were Republicans of lifelong fidelity to the party.

The victory was practically a landslide. The official figures are not in, but it is safe to say that the anti-Quay men were victorious. The Quayites were defeated by a margin of 1,500. It is one of the most decisive anti-Quay victories of the year, and puts the anti-Quay men well toward the front.

On the remarkable features of the campaign in Bradford was the efforts of the machine to pull the wool over the eyes of the farmers. The machine sent Levi Wells, the former head of the pure food and dairy department at Harrisburg, and who was compelled to resign as a result of the scandals in that department, out into the county to work for the machine. Wells was given the farmers this song and dance the North American, the Philadelphia, sent its reporters and detectives to Pittsburgh, where they purchased 17 barrels of oleo and showed how 700,000 pounds of oleo were being sold in Pittsburgh monthly.

This killed Terry's scheme, and when the returns came in they showed that he was beaten in his own township. The Quay candidate for senator, Geo. H. Lomas, a reputable man with a creditable army record, led the defeat for the Quayites. Bradford county announced a high regard for Gen. Hill as a man and soldier, but as a Quay candidate they would have nothing to do with his aspirations. Louis Piolet, who made a record for himself at Harrisburg, and who was defeated two years ago, was one of the Quay candidates for the house. He was snubbed under and out of the field to work for the machine. The Quay bosses and organs claim that it was the profits of the election. They insult the people of Bradford county by such assertions. It is known that vast sums were spent by the Quay machine. The Quay bosses and organs claim that it was the profits of the election. They insult the people of Bradford county by such assertions. It is known that vast sums were spent by the Quay machine.

SAVE THE REPUBLIC.

"SAVE THE REPUBLIC," shouts Mr. Bryan, and then adds, sotto voce, "I am the Republic."

The Democratic ticket cannot have the support of Tammany without its taint. They go together.

Four years ago the Democratic party favored an income tax. This year it didn't. There are two many Democratic millionaires now.

The boy, Cohn Harvey, will find that the present campaign can get along without a new edition of his great work on how to get rich by multiplication.

In 1896 there were 711,849 tons of un-sold pig iron in the United States. Last year there were 63,429 tons. The wag-carrier wants a continuation of the latter condition.

For a man who spent good money for a cologne uniform, Mr. Bryan's opposition to militarism can only be explained by the poor fit his tailor must have given him.

It might be well for Bryan to arrange with his publishers to get out a limited edition of the "The Second Battle," and begin to prepare matter for explaining how it happened.

The failure of the Democrats to denounce the annexation of Hawaii was doubtless due to the fact that the vote of Hawaii alone enabled them to revive the 16 to 1 corps.

Bryan was too busy to talk about the ratio, but his opponents may be depended upon to remind him of it about twenty-five times a day from now on to the 16 to 1 corps.

Wages have been higher during the last few years than ever they were before in the United States. And this was the period of the largest number of trusts were formed.

"I do not care to hold office unless it enables me to do something to aid the people in the fight against organized wealth,"—W. J. Bryan.

Then why drop the income tax?

Bess of 141 that McKinley will be re-elected President have already been made. A New York Republican, who had $10,000 to wager, at 3 to 1, found no enthusiastic Democratic takers.

When the returns are counted next November the Democrats would do well to put their handsome minority in the cold storage warehouse owned and operated by the Tammany Ice Trust?

The Democratic party is no longer drawing inspiration from the memories of Jefferson and Jackson. These names are not to be appealed to in conducting an anti-expansion campaign.

The shortage in the country's stock of lumber simply means that the lumbermen underestimated the extent of the building operations. Building activity always accompanies prosperity.

EIGHTY-ONE per cent of the delegates to the Democratic convention recognized that it was no longer a live issue. But Boss Bryan wanted it, and Prince David voted for it, so that settled it.

EX-PRESIDENT CLEVELAND is still disgusted with the Democratic party because of its 16 to 1 plank. What he thinks of his former partner, Adlai Stevenson, for running on that plank is not recorded.

A BERLIN dispatch states that the Germans are hoping for the election of Bryan and his platform. They are in a hurry to prevent the Congress, in order to prevent the passage of the American ship subsidy bill at the next session of Congress.

It may be assumed, with a good degree of confidence that this campaign will not be as profitable for Mr. Bryan as was the last. The people will be slow to part with their good money to hear hard luck stories.

SENATOR BAUGH has been pounding away at the Philadelphia platform. Senator Bacon is the gentleman who recently distinguished himself by not being able to tell the difference between toadstools and mushrooms.

From the way Tammany acted at the Kansas City convention, it would seem that it was determined to make Bryan Democracy so ludicrous, and its defeat so severe, that the old party would never again be bothered with the Boy-Congress-Orator of the Platte.

The production of wire nails in 1899 was only 4,719,810 kegs. Last year it was 7,500,522 kegs. The increase of 60 per cent when the mills were open means a large amount of extra business for all industries in which a large amount of wire nails are used.

Those persons who argue that the election of Mr. Bryan would do no harm because the gold standard is an accomplished fact, utilize the same species of logic as those who believe in the exercise of the pardoning power immediately after the conviction.

The imports and exports of Porto Rico for the month of May, 1900, were each about 100 per cent greater than for the corresponding month of the year 1899. This is the power, and distress to which the Democratic platform said the Republicans had doomed the island.

The only interests that will be benefited if the American shipping bill is passed next winter will be American—American labor in the mines, factories, shipyards and on board the ships. The Republicans, naturally, desire to pass the bill. The Democrats, just as naturally, oppose it, and suggest no other remedy than the importation of foreign-built ships that will benefit American labor not one particle.

UNCLE IKE'S IDEA OF HEAVEN.

Yes, that's entertainin', Parson, 'bout the New Jerusalem. And the two life-eternal and the sparkin' diamonds.

But somehow my mind will wander and my wayward thoughts will roam.

And I cannot keep from thinkin' 'bout the mortgage on our home.

And I don't think I'd be happy with the toll of the toll of the toll.

With their voices like many waters singin' on the golden strand.

If I'm able to remember 'bout the world down here below.

I would think about the mortgage and the toll of the toll of the toll.

For they're promised strong and faithful that they'll work both night and day.

And redeem the dear old homestead for their mother's sake.

But I fear they'll not be able; times are hard and grain is low.

And the time will come when the payment and it 'pears like it must go.

Thee again forgive me, Parson, if I tell you what I think.

'Twill be better long to stay here, for his feet are on the brink.

I have seen so much injustice 'mong the mortals on earth.

That I've doubts about the title to them mansions in the skies.

If it's surely right and proper to take usury here on earth.

And when comes the fatal pay day, take the home for half its value.

Why then ain't it right in heaven? And may not good Deacon Jones' mortgaged house be sold?

No, I do not care to argue; what's right here is right in heaven.

And if you've been preachin' gospol, I expect to make my debt.

Much as I have done below here, strugglin' on' from day to day.

Payin' interest and taxes, with but little time to play.

On the golden harp and timbrel, or for lovin' to find the throne.

That is left to our nobles and nobles, and with them no kin I own.

But I hope that you're mistaken 'bout the way to heaven.

And that mortgaged and such like won't be worryin' us in heaven.

For 'twere like I remember readin' in the Book of Acts.

'Twill be better long to stay here, for his feet are on the brink.

I have seen so much injustice 'mong the mortals on earth.

That I've doubts about the title to them mansions in the skies.

If it's surely right and proper to take usury here on earth.

And when comes the fatal pay day, take the home for half its value.

Why then ain't it right in heaven? And may not good Deacon Jones' mortgaged house be sold?

No, I do not care to argue; what's right here is right in heaven.

And if you've been preachin' gospol, I expect to make my debt.

Much as I have done below here, strugglin' on' from day to day.

Payin' interest and taxes, with but little time to play.

On the golden harp and timbrel, or for lovin' to find the throne.

That is left to our nobles and nobles, and with them no kin I own.

But I hope that you're mistaken 'bout the way to heaven.

And that mortgaged and such like won't be worryin' us in heaven.

THE KANSAS CITY CONVENTION ATTEMPTED TO SQUARE A CIRCLE WHEN IT TRIED TO CONSTRUCT A SOUND-MONEY-FREE-SILVER PLATFORM.

The Kansas City convention attempted to square a circle when it tried to construct a sound-money-free-silver platform. The silver-sound-money-free-silver platform will not mix. One is right and the other is wrong; and no amount of word juggling, word pulling, hedging or evasion can deceive the people.

Those who sincerely believe in the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, without awaiting the aid or co-operation of any other nation on earth, should vote for Bryan, for he is pledged to that very thing. All other platforms of the Republic, no matter what their previous political affiliations may have been, should and must unite against the financial heresy, which, if adopted, would plunge the country into a state of business anarchy, such as has never been experienced by any people since the invention of coined money.

The astute editor of the Somerset Herald, Mr. George R. Seull, last week announced that he would support Messrs. Koontz and Kendall, but in the same article wherein he declared his loyalty to the aforesaid gentlemen he used all manner of abuse and invective against them. That is loyalty with a vengeance, and seems to show that people will smile at it and wink the other eye.

If Geo. R. Seull were ever loyal to anybody but Geo. L. Seull, Matt Quay and the devil, there are many people who have never discovered it. Even Judge Simonton comes in for a large share of "Timmie's" abuse, although the Herald clumsily tried to conceal it between the lines. There's nothing to be gained by your wishes, "Timmie," for you are in the side to stay there, and richly do you deserve "Barker's Linniment." M. S. Quay is a man of no account, and a defeat that has struck terror to the hearts of the Quayites. It is a great relief to see the handwriting of their fate upon the wall.

The Somerset Herald did not show up on time this week. You see, "Timmie" isn't doing so well, yet, and he's still very sore over Judge Simonton's decision. Of all sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest are these: "There's no more 'Barker's Linniment' for sore Seull men."

The receipt given to the Democratic National platform's utterance on the shipping bill by the patriotic press of the country has been one of ridicule and disgust. Nothing more partisan and untrue was written in the Democratic platform than what it said in opposition to that bill.

Exports to Porto Rico have more than doubled under American Administration. So they will to the Philippines as soon as the Filipino aspect the free pardon offered them by President McKinley, and settle down to the agricultural and commercial development of the country.

EX-GOVERNOR GEORGE HOADLY, of Ohio, is a stalwart Democrat who repudiates the Kansas City platform. He doubtless proceeds upon the theory that, when one plank of political declaration of principles is admittedly dishonest, it is safe to distrust the remainder of the document.

English newspapers have been keeping a keen watch on the development of American shipping, and they express well-grounded fears that the passage next winter of the ship subsidy bill will bring a large American shipping into sharp competition with British shipping in the American foreign trade.

Bryan invites the support of the traveling men of the country on a platform which promises to burst the trusts and inaugurate another era of free trade. This would result in the traveling men of England, France and Germany selling foreign goods to the merchants who now purchase homemade articles.

The man who votes the Republican ticket this year will vote to keep the $200,000,000 in the United States that is now annually paid to foreign shipowners for doing our foreign carrying. The

THE ANTI-QUAY CANDIDATES FOR THE LEGISLATURE, WHO RECEIVED AN HONEST MAJORITY AT THE RECENT PRIMARIES, AND WHOSE EFFORTS WILL DOUBTLESS RECEIVE THE SAME VOTE AT THE HANDS OF THE DAUPHIN COUNTY COURT AS DID THOSE OF THEIR FACTORIAL FRIENDS IN SOMERSET.—FITZBURGH TIMES.

Uncle Ike's Idea of Heaven.

Yes, that's entertainin', Parson, 'bout the New Jerusalem. And the two life-eternal and the sparkin' diamonds.

But somehow my mind will wander and my wayward thoughts will roam.

And I cannot keep from thinkin' 'bout the mortgage on our home.

And I don't think I'd be happy with the toll of the toll of the toll.

With their voices like many waters singin' on the golden strand.

If I'm able to remember 'bout the world down here below.

I would think about the mortgage and the toll of the toll of the toll.

For they're promised strong and faithful that they'll work both night and day.

And redeem the dear old homestead for their mother's sake.

But I fear they'll not be able; times are hard and grain is low.

And the time will come when the payment and it 'pears like it must go.

Thee again forgive me, Parson, if I tell you what I think.

'Twill be better long to stay here, for his feet are on the brink.

I have seen so much injustice 'mong the mortals on earth.

That I've doubts about the title to them mansions in the skies.

If it's surely right and proper to take usury here on earth.

And when comes the fatal pay day, take the home for half its value.

Why then ain't it right in heaven? And may not good Deacon Jones' mortgaged house be sold?

No, I do not care to argue; what's right here is right in heaven.

And if you've been preachin' gospol, I expect to make my debt.

Much as I have done below here, strugglin' on' from day to day.

Payin' interest and taxes, with but little time to play.

On the golden harp and timbrel, or for lovin' to find the throne.

That is left to our nobles and nobles, and with them no kin I own.

But I hope that you're mistaken 'bout the way to heaven.

And that mortgaged and such like won't be worryin' us in heaven.

For 'twere like I remember readin' in the Book of Acts.

'Twill be better long to stay here, for his feet are on the brink.

I have seen so much injustice 'mong the mortals on earth.

That I've doubts about the title to them mansions in the skies.

If it's surely right and proper to take usury here on earth.

And when comes the fatal pay day, take the home for half its value.

Why then ain't it right in heaven? And may not good Deacon Jones' mortgaged house be sold?

No, I do not care to argue; what's right here is right in heaven.

And if you've been preachin' gospol, I expect to make my debt.

Much as I have done below here, strugglin' on' from day to day.

Payin' interest and taxes, with but little time to play.

On the golden harp and timbrel, or for lovin' to find the throne.

That is left to our nobles and nobles, and with them no kin I own.

But I hope that you're mistaken 'bout the way to heaven.

And that mortgaged and such like won't be worryin' us in heaven.

KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE

Digests what you eat.

It artfully digests the food and aids Nature in strengthening and reconstructing the exhausted digestive organs. It is the latest discovered digestant and tonic. No other preparation can approach it in efficiency. It instantly relieves and permanently cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Heartburn, Flatulence, Sour Stomach, Nausea, Sick Headache, Constipation, Cramps, and all other results of imperfect digestion.

Prepared by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

Sold by Medicine Dealers.

DR. HUMPHREYS' SPECIFICS

Specifies each directly upon the disease, without exciting disorder in other parts of the system. They cure the Sick.

80—Fever, Consumption, Inflammation, 25
81—Worms, Worm Fever, Worm Cough, 25
82—Teething, Colic, Crying, Wakefulness, 25
83—Diarrhea, of children or adults, 25
84—Dysentery, Griping, Bilious Colic, 25
85—Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Vomiting, 25
86—Headache, Sick Headache, 25
87—Neuralgia, Toothache, Faceache, 25
88—Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, 25
89—Dyspepsia, Indigestion, 25
90—Suppressed or Painful Periods, 25
91—Whooping Cough, 25
92—White, or Profuse, Discharge, 25
93—Croup, Laryngitis, Erysipelas, 25
94—Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Eruptions, 25
95—Rheumatism, Rheumatic Pains, 25
96—Malaria, Chills, Fever and Ague, 25
97—Piles, External or Internal, 25
98—Catarrh, Weak or Inflamed Eye, 25
99—Catarrh, Influenza, Cold in the Head, 25
100—Whooping-Cough, 25
101—Asthma, Difficult Breathing, 25
102—Ear Discharge, Earache, 25
103—Scrophulous Swellings and Ulcers, 25
104—General Debility, Weakness, 25
105—Dropsy, Fluid Accumulations, 25
106—Scurvy, Scurvy, 25
107—Kidney Diseases, 25
108—Nervous Debility, 1.00
109—Sore Mouth, or Sore Throat, 25
110—Rhinorrhoea, Weeping Eye, 25
111—Painful Menstruation, 25
112—Diseases of the Heart, Palpitations, 1.00
113—Epilepsy, St. Vitus' Dance, 1.00
114—Sore Throat, Quinsy, Diphtheria, 25
115—Chronic Congestions, Headaches, 25
116—Grip, Hay Fever, 25

Dr. Humphreys' Manly and Womanly Pills, Druggists or Mail Order.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. DeWitt & Co., New York, N.Y.

Price, 50 CTS. TRIAL SIZE, 25 CTS.

Prepared by Druggists, or sent by mail, to H. K. DeWitt & Co., 111 & 113 William St., New York.

THE KANSAS CITY CONVENTION ATTEMPTED TO SQUARE A CIRCLE WHEN IT TRIED TO CONSTRUCT A SOUND-MONEY-FREE-SILVER PLATFORM.

The Kansas City convention attempted to square a circle when it tried to construct a sound-money-free-silver platform. The silver-sound-money-free-silver platform will not mix. One is right and the other is wrong; and no amount of word juggling, word pulling, hedging or evasion can deceive the people.

Those who sincerely believe in the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, without awaiting the aid or co-operation of any other nation on earth, should vote for Bryan, for he is pledged to that very thing. All other platforms of the Republic, no matter what their previous political affiliations may have been, should and must unite against the financial heresy, which, if adopted, would plunge the country into a state of business anarchy, such as has never been experienced by any people since the invention of coined money.

The astute editor of the Somerset Herald, Mr. George R. Seull, last week announced that he would support Messrs. Koontz and Kendall, but in the same article wherein he declared his loyalty to the aforesaid gentlemen he used all manner of abuse and invective against them. That is loyalty with a vengeance, and seems to show that people will smile at it and wink the other eye.

If Geo. R. Seull were ever loyal to anybody but Geo. L. Seull, Matt Quay and the devil, there are many people who have never discovered it. Even Judge Simonton comes in for a large share of "Timmie's" abuse, although the Herald clumsily tried to conceal it between the lines. There's nothing to be gained by your wishes, "Timmie," for you are in the side to stay there, and richly do you deserve "Barker's Linniment." M. S. Quay is a man of no account, and a defeat that has struck terror to the hearts of the Quayites. It is a great relief to see the handwriting of their fate upon the wall.

The Somerset Herald did not show up on time this week. You see, "Timmie" isn't doing so well, yet, and he's still very sore over Judge Simonton's decision. Of all sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest are these: "There's no more 'Barker's Linniment' for sore Seull men."

The receipt given to the Democratic National platform's utterance on the shipping bill by the patriotic press of the country has been one of ridicule and disgust. Nothing more partisan and untrue was written in the Democratic platform than what it said in opposition to that bill.

Exports to Porto Rico have more than doubled under American Administration. So they will to the Philippines as soon as the Filipino aspect the free pardon offered them by President McKinley, and settle down to the agricultural and commercial development of the country.

EX-GOVERNOR GEORGE HOADLY, of Ohio, is a stalwart Democrat who repudiates the Kansas City platform. He doubtless proceeds upon the theory that, when one plank of political declaration of principles is admittedly dishonest, it is safe to distrust the remainder of the document.

English newspapers have been keeping a keen watch on the development of American shipping, and they express well-grounded fears that the passage next winter of the ship subsidy bill will bring a large American shipping into sharp competition with British shipping in the American foreign trade.

Bryan invites the support of the traveling men of the country on a platform which promises to burst the trusts and inaugurate another era of free trade. This would result in the traveling men of England, France and Germany selling foreign goods to the merchants who now purchase homemade articles.

The man who votes the Republican ticket this year will vote to keep the $200,000,000 in the United States that is now annually paid to foreign shipowners for doing our foreign carrying. The

THE ANTI-QUAY CANDIDATES FOR THE LEGISLATURE, WHO RECEIVED AN HONEST MAJORITY AT THE RECENT PRIMARIES, AND WHOSE EFFORTS WILL DOUBTLESS RECEIVE THE SAME VOTE AT THE HANDS OF THE DAUPHIN COUNTY COURT AS DID THOSE OF THEIR FACTORIAL FRIENDS IN SOMERSET.—FITZBURGH TIMES.

Uncle Ike's Idea of Heaven.

Yes, that's entertainin', Parson, 'bout the New Jerusalem. And the two life-eternal and the sparkin' diamonds.

But somehow my mind will wander and my wayward thoughts will roam.

And I cannot keep from thinkin' 'bout the mortgage on our home.

And I don't think I'd be happy with the toll of the toll of the toll.

With their voices like many waters singin' on the golden strand.

If I'm able to remember 'bout the world down here below.

I would think about the mortgage and the toll of the toll of the toll.

For they're promised strong and faithful that they'll work both night and day.

And redeem the dear old homestead for their mother's sake.

But I fear they'll not be able; times are hard and grain is low.

And the time will come when the payment and it 'pears like it must go.

Thee again forgive me, Parson, if I tell you what I think.

'Twill be better long to stay here, for his feet are on the brink.

I have seen so much injustice 'mong the mortals on earth.

That I've doubts about the title to them mansions in the skies.

If it's surely right and proper to take usury here on earth.

And when comes the fatal pay day, take the home for half its value.

Why then ain't it right in heaven? And may not good Deacon Jones' mortgaged house be sold?

No, I do not care to argue; what's right here is right in heaven.

And if you've been preachin' gospol, I expect to make my debt.

Much as I have done below here, strugglin' on' from day to day.

Payin' interest and taxes, with but little time to play.

On the golden harp and timbrel, or for lovin' to find the throne.

That is left to our nobles and nobles, and with them no kin I own.

But I hope that you're mistaken 'bout the way to heaven.

And that mortgaged and such like won't be worryin' us in heaven.

For 'twere like I remember readin' in the Book of Acts.

'Twill be better long to stay here, for his feet are on the brink.

I have seen so much injustice 'mong the mortals on earth.

That I've doubts about the title to them mansions in the skies.

If it's surely right and proper to take usury here on earth.

And when comes the fatal pay day, take the home for half its value.

Why then ain't it right in heaven? And may not good Deacon Jones' mortgaged house be sold?

No, I do not care to argue; what's right here is right in heaven.

And if you've been preachin' gospol, I expect to make my debt.

Much as I have done below here, strugglin' on' from day to day.

Payin' interest and taxes, with but little time to play.

On the golden harp and timbrel, or for lovin' to find the throne.

That is left to our nobles and nobles, and with them no kin I own.

But I hope that you're mistaken 'bout the way to heaven.

And that mortgaged and such like won't be worryin' us in heaven.

THE KANSAS CITY CONVENTION ATTEMPTED TO SQUARE A CIRCLE WHEN IT TRIED TO CONSTRUCT A SOUND-MONEY-FREE-SILVER PLATFORM.

The Kansas City convention attempted to square a circle when it tried to construct a sound-money-free-silver platform. The silver-sound-money-free-silver platform will not mix. One is right and the other is wrong; and no amount of word juggling, word pulling, hedging or evasion can deceive the people.

Those who sincerely believe in the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, without awaiting the aid or co-operation of any other nation on earth, should vote for Bryan, for he is pledged to that very thing. All other platforms of the Republic, no matter what their previous political affiliations may have been, should and must unite against the financial heresy, which, if adopted, would plunge the country into a state of business anarchy, such as has never been experienced by any people since the invention of coined money.

The astute editor of the Somerset Herald, Mr. George R. Seull, last week announced that he would support Messrs. Koontz and Kendall, but in the same article wherein he declared his loyalty to the aforesaid gentlemen he used all manner of abuse and invective against them. That is loyalty with a vengeance, and seems to show that people will smile at it and wink the other eye.

If Geo. R. Seull were ever loyal to anybody but Geo. L. Seull, Matt Quay and the devil, there are many people who have never discovered it. Even Judge Simonton comes in for a large share of "Timmie's" abuse, although the Herald clumsily tried to conceal it between the lines. There's nothing to be gained by your wishes, "Timmie," for you are in the side to stay there, and richly do you deserve "Barker's Linniment." M. S. Quay is a man of no account, and a defeat that has struck terror to the hearts of the Quayites. It is a great relief to see the handwriting of their fate upon the wall.

The Somerset Herald did not show up on time this week. You see, "Timmie" isn't doing so well, yet, and he's still very sore over Judge Simonton's decision. Of all sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest are these: "There's no more 'Barker's Linniment' for sore Seull men."

The receipt given to the Democratic National platform's utterance on the shipping bill by the patriotic press of the country has been one of ridicule and disgust. Nothing more partisan and untrue was written in the Democratic platform than what it said in opposition to that bill.

Exports to Porto Rico have more than doubled under American Administration. So they will to the Philippines as soon as the Filipino aspect the free pardon offered them by President McKinley, and settle down to the agricultural and commercial development of the country.

EX-GOVERNOR GEORGE HOADLY, of Ohio, is a stalwart Democrat who repudiates the Kansas City platform. He doubtless proceeds upon the theory that, when one plank of political declaration of principles is admittedly dishonest, it is safe to distrust the remainder of the document.

English newspapers have been keeping a keen watch on the development of American shipping, and they express well-grounded fears that the passage next winter of the ship subsidy bill will bring a large American shipping into sharp competition with British shipping in the American foreign trade.

Bryan invites the support of the traveling men of the country on a platform which promises to burst the trusts and inaugurate another era of free trade. This would result in the traveling men of England, France and Germany selling foreign goods to the merchants who now purchase homemade articles.

The man who votes the Republican ticket this year will vote to keep the $200,000,000 in the United States that is now annually paid to foreign shipowners for doing our foreign carrying. The

THE ANTI-QUAY CANDIDATES FOR THE LEGISLATURE, WHO RECEIVED AN HONEST MAJORITY AT THE RECENT PRIMARIES, AND WHOSE EFFORTS WILL DOUBTLESS RECEIVE THE SAME VOTE AT THE HANDS OF THE DAUPHIN COUNTY COURT AS DID THOSE OF THEIR FACTORIAL FRIENDS IN SOMERSET.—FITZBURGH TIMES.

Uncle Ike's Idea of Heaven.

Yes, that's entertainin', Parson, 'bout the New Jerusalem. And the two life-eternal and the sparkin' diamonds.

But somehow my mind will wander and my wayward thoughts will roam.

And I cannot keep from thinkin' 'bout the mortgage on our home.

And I don't think I'd be happy with the toll of the toll of the toll.

With their voices like many waters singin' on the golden strand.

If I'm able to remember 'bout the world down here below.

I would think about the mortgage and the toll of the toll of the toll.

For they're promised strong and faithful that they'll work both night and day.

And redeem the dear old homestead for their mother's sake.

But I fear they'll not be able; times are hard and grain is low.

And the time will come when the payment and it 'pears like it must go.

Thee again forgive me, Parson, if I tell you what I think.

'Twill be better long to stay here, for his feet are on the brink.

I have seen so much injustice 'mong the mortals on earth.

That I've doubts about the title to them mansions in the skies.

If it's surely right and proper to take usury here on earth.

And when comes the fatal pay day, take the home for half its value.

Why then ain't it right in heaven? And may not good Deacon Jones' mortgaged house be sold?

No, I do not care to argue; what's right here is right in heaven.

And if you've been preachin' gospol, I expect to make my debt.

Much as I have done below here, strugglin' on' from day to day.

Payin' interest and taxes, with but little time to play.

On the golden harp and timbrel, or for lovin' to find the throne.

That is left to our nobles and nobles, and with them no kin I own.

But I hope that you're mistaken 'bout the way to heaven.

And that mortgaged and such like won't be worryin' us in heaven.</