

ANOTHER VICTORY WON BY CHINESE

YANG TSUN CAPTURED.

The Place Was the Objective Point of the First Advance - August 15, 50,000 Men Will Press Forward.

This dispatch from Minister Conger, dated at Tai-Nan-Yuen, Tuesday, was received late Tuesday night by the state department at Washington: "Still besieged. Situation more precarious. Chinese government insisting upon our leaving Peking, which would be certain death. Rifle firing upon us daily by imperial troops. Have abundant courage, but little ammunition. Some 10,000 men. Two progressive yamen ministers headed. All connected with the legation of the United States well at the present moment.

In the capture of Yangtun, the losses of the allies, according to a dispatch from Chifu, dated Wednesday, purporting to give an account of the government, were 300, the majority of these being killed. The position, held by 1,500 Chinese well entrenched to east of the river. After four hours' heavy fighting the Chinese were driven from their defensive works.

A dispatch received in London from the war office in Japan announces that General Terachi, who has been reported by the international army world press to have been killed, is still undoubtedly in the light of the recent reconnaissance in force, the main movement of the army of 20,000 to follow on the 15th.

The flooded country beyond Peking adds immeasurably to the difficulty of the progress of the allies toward Peking. The average comment is that the Chinese are now generally giving peace terms. The London morning papers express satisfaction at the latest developments in China. The average comment is that the Chinese are now generally giving peace terms.

The United States Government Sunday refused to enter into negotiations toward a peace settlement. The demand made by President McKinley respecting the Peking Ministers has been completely refused. The result of an imperial edict appointing Li-Hung-Chang as minister plenipotentiary to negotiate peace.

The situation at Peking is regarded as clearing, and another message from the minister plenipotentiary is expected to hold out until the relief expedition arrives.

NEW KING TAKES THE OATH.

Victor Emmanuel Pledges Himself to Labor for the Welfare of Italy.

King Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament. He made an address, in which he said his first thought of love and gratitude was for the people. He said Italy would be an imperial instrument for maintaining peace, and must have internal development of all men to develop its intellectual, moral and economic energies. "I must," he said, "be without fear and quietly, with knowledge of my rights, and with confidence shall never be lacking in courage in my liberal institutions and will never permit any investment of my money should be taken to defend vigorously our glorious institutions of our country and the precious heritage of our ancestors. Reared in love of religion and of duty, I take God as witness of my promise that from this day forth I shall work with all my heart for the greatness and prosperity of my country."

ENGLAND KICKS ON LOAN.

British Army Because Americans Took Up Most of the War.

The most of such a large portion of the war loan to America is not being received in many quarters. The Daily Chronicle, in its financial article, says: "The people are so angry that they have not time to consider to what limitation we have been brought in having to appear to the world as money markets for assistance." The Express says: "There is a chance, if the loan is not to be a premium, that the Americans may promptly sell their bonds and so defeat the object our bankers have in view. There is a well-founded belief that the demand for investment in the high class by insurance companies and other institutions in the United States is so great that the loan will be retained for the sake of their yield."

Fifty Seamen Drowned.

During maneuvers of the French fleet off Cape St. Vincent Saturday night a collision occurred between the first-class battleship Brennus, flying the flag of Vice Admiral Fournier, and the torpedo boat fleet, and the torpedo boat destroyer France.

The France sank immediately. The accident was due to the fact that the France turned to the right when ordered to the left. Details thus far received are very meagre. Only a small portion of the crew, consisting of four officers and 28 men, were saved. It is said that no fewer than 50 were lost and great anxiety is felt here. The France, which was of 313 tons displacement, was a recent addition to the French navy.

$5,000,000 to Help Brazil.

A copy of the Manila Freedom, received by the transport Sherman, contains the following: The city remnant of the Filipino junta in Hongkong is inhibited under the nomination of William Jennings Bryan at the head of the Democratic ticket and has offered to subscribe $5,000,000 to the Democratic campaign fund to aid in securing his election. The Manila Freedom says that the news was arrived, and there was no hesitation in voting the money at the first meeting.

Mine Gas Explosion.

Electricity which was turned into the mouth of the old Jefferson coal shaft, near Stenubenville, O., caused an explosion of fire and fumes that blew members from the mouth of the shaft and destroyed the derick. Workmen were killed and injured. The explosion shook the lower end of the shaft as if by earthquake.

Accepts Von Waldersee.

Great Britain, the United States and Japan have now approved the appointment of Field Marshal Count von Waldersee as commander-in-chief of the allied forces in China; the United States and Japan unreservedly and Great Britain conditionally, on all other points agreeing to the appointment. This condition has practically been fulfilled.

LATEST NEWS NOTES.

A $50000 fire at Hanover, Pa., destroyed 16 buildings.

The navy department decided to reject all the recent bids for armor plate. Sunday a wind storm damaged big New Kensington, Pa., factories $100,000.

An Erie county, Pa., farmer was murdered and probably robbed in his wagon.

Jealousy over a woman caused the latest Klondike camp murder in Fayette county, Pa.

Explosion of a car of virrid at the York (Pa.) chemical works fatally burned two men.

Secret agents of the Italian government are to keep watch on Italian anarchists in Pittsburgh, Pa.

The prohibitionist State Executive Committee of North Dakota has placed in the field a full ticket.

Tyone, Pa., borough council has granted the franchise to the Tyrone Electric Railway Company.

A strange disease somewhat resembling cholera, prevalent in parts of Westmoreland county, Pa.

The Lancaster (Pa.) hotel company has been absorbed by the trust, which will own it for $200,000.

The city council of Raymema, O., has granted a trolley franchise to the Portage Electric Railway Company.

Samuel Beck, an old man near Cincinnati, killed himself because the car which he was riding on was crowded with passengers.

An unknown man undertook to assassinate Lora Gardner at Pleasant Unity, W. Va., by firing through a bedroom window.

A charter was granted at Harrisburg, Pa., for a new bridge over the Susquehanna river, Westmoreland county, Pa., capital $10,000.

Marine hospital service advices from Manila just received report that the number of plague cases there is diminishing.

England is said to have categorically refused to treat for peace with China until communication with its minister is restored.

Silas Shoemaker was killed and Frank Marshall and James Garner were badly injured in a mine explosion near Allentown, Pa.

By a break in the line of the Buckeye Pipe Line Company near Findlay, O., many thousands of gallons of oil were lost.

The United States transport McPherson with nine officers and 240 men arrived at the Fifth infantry on board has arrived at New York.

The thirty-fifth annual session of the Panhandle Baptist Association will be held from August 10-12 at the Hotel Hamilton, Erie, Pa.

The Riverside Coal and Coke Company, of Nicholson township, Fayette county, Pa., capital $50,000, was incorporated by the state.

One child was burned to death and two others fatally injured in the explosion of a boiler at Hughesville, Lycoming county, Pa.

Gen. MacArthur is negotiating for the construction of a canal at Manila which is believed to be the Philippines.

Mrs. Olive Reinold, who is endeavoring to secure her husband's asylum at Sharon, Pa., is failing rapidly and her death is expected soon.

Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament.

King Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament.

King Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament.

King Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament.

King Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament.

King Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament.

King Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament.

King Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament.

King Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament.

King Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament.

King Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament.

King Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament.

King Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament.

King Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament.

King Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament.

King Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament.

King Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament.

King Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament.

King Victor Emmanuel III took the oath on Saturday in the presence of both houses of Parliament.

THE COLUMBIAN TRAGEDY FATHOMED.

MURDER AND ROBBERY.

Charles R. H. Farrell Arrested Sunday and Confesses That He Killed His Friend. Money Recovered.

The passenger train on the Pennsylvania line, that arrived at Columbus, O., from the west at midnight, was robbed at some point between there and Cincinnati Friday night, and Messenger Charles Lane, and his friend, the messenger, were found cold in a deathly embrace, with a deathly look on their faces. The robbery was not discovered until the train pulled into the station and the messenger was found cold in a deathly embrace with his revolver, several chambers of which had been emptied, lying by his side.

The contents of the safe had been blown open. The door having been blown open, the dead man's keys were taken out, what valuables he may have had, and keys were used to open the strong box, the body and the revolver were laid on the floor. The car was deserted at one of two points, either at Columbus or at the viaduct at the entrance to the Columbus Union station.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

Charles R. H. Farrell, a former employe of the Adams Express Company, was arrested Sunday afternoon in Columbus and has confessed to the killing of Messenger Charles Lane and the robbery of the safe of the Adams Express Company.

FABULOUS PROFITS.

Wall Street Stands Amazed at the Millions of Dividends Poured Out by the Standard Oil Company.

Wall street is simply aghast at the fabulous profits of the Standard Oil Company. The dividend of a dividend of $1 a share on the $70,000,000 outstanding stocks of the king of corporations, which means 38 per cent in dividends so far this year, has set the financial world on its feet. On March 15 last the company declared a dividend of $2 a share or about $2,000,000,000 which was probably the largest interest disbursement ever made by a corporation in this country. This dividend was followed on June 13 by the payment of $1 a share, and now comes an additional $8 per share. Thus $38,000,000 of about that amount, is required for the payment of the three dividends.

In the past 18 years, exclusive of the current year, the Standard Oil Company has paid out in dividends $1,000,000,000. A comparative table is interesting. It shows: From 1882 to 1891, $47,250,000; 1891 to 1895, $18,000,000; 1895 to 1899, $30,000,000; 1899 to 1900, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller, president of the company, is popularly credited with the share of one-third of the million dollar dividend. On that basis his check for his share of the present dividend would be approximately $22,000,000, or 1899, dividends at 33 per cent, $33,000,000; estimated this year 48 per cent, or $38,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller,