See two girls in another column gathering grapes for Speer's wine. Read all about them. Speer's wines are unequalled by any in the world.

Especially for Delicate Ladies and the Aged.

For medicinal use, physicians say Speer's Port Wine surpasses the imported. Delicate ladies and aged people find it the best wine to be procured.

SOMETHING NEW

Send no Money With Your Reply. Here is something new, an original contest. Read very carefully. You are to win $1000 in Cash, a Parlor Organ, a Bicycle, a Gold watch or a Silk Dress. Who can arrange these nine groups of valuable letters into the names of nine states, "Oyckwren," "Hutia," "Wesawawaw," "hooch," "Hneit," "dicho," "heatin," "mnyng." For example "Oyckwren" can be transposed into New York and so on. You also know that you may be the lucky winner? Contest closes Oct. 30. The object of getting away these prizes is simply an advertisement of Ward's Root Beer.

Send no money with your reply, but be sure to send us the name and address of your nearest druggist and tell us whether he keeps Ward's Root Beer or not.

This is simply one of our plans of advertising and bringing our goods to these costly prizes will be the means of having Ward's Root Beer talked about in many a home. Send your answers to day if possible. Everyone has an equal opportunity. Honest and fair treatment to one in another. Our reply will be allowed to enter contest. Contestants who enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope will receive an immediate reply. All that is required is successful in your assistance in forwarding Ward's Root Beer to the druggist nearest and best. Address early as possible, Ward Drug Co., Dept. "C," 30-32 E. 14th St., New York. 5-30.

The Blanks We Keep.

The STAR has just added a large stock of Deeds, Mortgages, Judgment Bonds, Property Leases, Constable Sale Blanks, Summons Blanks, Commitments, Subpoenas, Criminal Warrants, Judgment Notes, Receipts and many other blank forms that are useful and save lots of writing. A full line of these goods will always be kept on hand at this office.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Dr. T. F. Livengood, of Elizabeth, N. J., is here spending his annual vacation with his aged mother and friends. The doctor is looking exceedingly well, and he is full of amusing stories as ever. He is enjoying his vacation very much, and it is needless to say that our people are enjoying his society.

Just as we go to press we learn that Mr. Daniel Barbus, one of our oldest and most prominent citizens is dead. Mr. Barbus was stricken with paralysis a few days ago, since which time his death has been hourly expected. We will have a more extended write-up of his death, next week.

The STAR was this week printed under great difficulties, as our man Salfull was sick several days, and Printer John Johnston was out of town part of the week. On Monday the editor was the only man of the force that was on duty. Owing to the circumstances we had to let most important matter "go by the board."

It is believed that Mr. Palmer, who recently purchased the Meyersdale electric light plant, made the purchase for Mr. Wolf, of Braddock, Pa., who is known as the "Hungarian King." Rumor has it that this is the first step toward the much talked of electric road to connect Meyersdale and Salsbury. We hope it.

Millions will be spent in politics this year. We can't keep the campaign going without money any more than we can keep the body warm without food. Dyspepsia used to starve them out of money. Now they starve them out of the good food they want. It radically cures stomach troubles. Sold by medicine dealers.

C. A. Witt's new business block is now under course of erection, under the skillful management of Frank F. Petry, the genial, red-headed hustler of Grant Hill. It is needless to say that the work is being well and rapidly done. Albert Lowry is helping on the job and is handling the "choices" with his old-time dexterity.

Read the new advertisements in this issue of the Elk Lick Pharmacy and the Elk Lick Supply Company. They contain some valuable information for everybody. Also read among the paid locals the announcements of H. H. Teitz, B. F. Livengood and the West Salsbury Mutual Insurance Association. They are important.

Last Saturday evening there was some more disturbance at Tedrow Brothers' merry-go-round. We don't know who are more implicated in the rumpus, but two arrests followed, and will not later than a week or so be compelled to pay a few dollars into the borough exchequer. Verily, the way of the transgressor is hard.

John H. Tedrow Robbed. Last Friday evening while all members of the family were away from home, a burglar broke into John H. Tedrow's house and stole about $50.00 in cash. Suspicion points strongly toward certain persons, but as yet no arrests have been made.

Mr. Tedrow is an honest, hard working man who earns his money by hard labor, and we hope that the thief or thieves will be found out and punished to the full extent of the law. It is well to be continually on the lookout for such things, as burglars in this town, for there are a good many bad characters continually loitering about looking for plunder.

Bank Pays 3 per Cent. Interest. The First National Bank of Frostburg, Maryland, which is a designated Depository of the United States Government, pays three (3) per cent. interest money left with them for deposit.

Mr. Howard H. Keim, of Ladoga, Ind., is visiting at his old home in this city. Mr. Keim is looking well and reports his business in the West as all that could be desired. He is a prominent stock farmer and devotes special attention to thoroughbred sheep. We are all glad to welcome him to our town. He is a royal good fellow.

Chinese are dangerous enemies, for they are very crafty. Their wily and counterfeiters of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are dangerous. They look like DeWitt's, but instead of being the genuine which hazy they all contain ingredients liable to irritate the skin, and cause blood poisoning. For piles, hemorrhoids and skin diseases use the original and genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by medicine dealers.

Mr. Robt. Easton, who has been paralyzed for about 20 years and unable to walk, was last week taken to Johnston, where she will be cared for by one of her many devoted nieces. Mrs. Easton has probably seen more years of intense suffering than any other person that ever resided here. Her many friends here all hope that the change will do her good.

Mr. J. T. Jeffery has purchased Mort. Wagner's stock of groceries and is now running two thoroughly up-to-date stores. As soon as the Witt business block is completed he will move into it and consolidate both stores, which will place him in the front ranks of the merchandising business. Jeffery is a hustler, and his many friends wish him increased and continued success.

Niverton is becoming notorious for his fights and drunken brawls. An Italian of that village recently shot at William S. Ross, when skinned across the state line into Maryland. It is getting to be a common thing that Niverton for the denizens of that village, principally Italians and Slavs, to slash each other with knives and shoot at one another. Mayor Floyd Morrison ought to swear in a large force of special police.

The wolf in the fable put on sheep's clothing because if he traveled on his own legs he would be killed. So it is with Niverton. Counterfeiters of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve couldn't sell their wares unless they put them in boxes and wrappers like DeWitt's. Look out for them. Take only DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It cures piles and all skin diseases. Sold by medicine dealers.

Be sure to read the big new "ad" of the Elk Lick Pharmacy. Miller & Shuler have decided to close out the fine stock of racket goods they purchased from M. J. Glatfely, and at the prices they offer the stock, their shelves will doubtless soon be cleared to make room for the big drug stock they have on the way. These gentlemen come here with the best of references, and they propose to give Salsbury a drug store second to none in the county. Now is a good time to get acquainted in the goods at the same time.

Biggle Horse Book contains more "horse sense" than many volumes ten times its size. It tells all about breeds, about feeding and watering, about stable and road management, of whims and vices, of harness, of diseases and remedies, of breeding, of colic education of shooting and indeed it covers the whole subject in a concise, practical and interesting manner. It contains 128 pages, is profusely and beautifully illustrated, and handsomely bound in cloth. Every man or woman who drives a horse should have a copy. The price is 50 cents, by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia.

The Meyersdale Republican, a neat 7-column quarto newspaper, was ushered into existence last week. The proprietor of the new paper is Mr. S. A. Kendall, and the editor is Mr. G. E. Bishop, of Iowa. Judging from the appearance of the first issue, the Republican is bound to succeed, as there are many more advertisements in it than any other Meyersdale paper ever carried. There has long been a good opening in Meyersdale for an up-to-date newspaper, something the town has not had for a number of years, and judging from what Meyersdale business men have told us but a short time ago, there is great joy down there over the advent of the new paper. Long may it live and prosper.

The insightfully old wooden awning in front of the old M. H. Wagner grocery stand, on Grant street, has been torn down. This old death trap was an eyesore to the town for years, and it should have been torn down long ago. Last Saturday night a horse was latched to the rickety old thing, and the animal pulled one of the posts. This frightened another horse that was hitched near by, causing him to break loose. Had it not been for T. R. Salfull, who promptly caught one of the painter-stricken horses by the bridle, we would likely have an ugly accident to chronicle this week, for a woman and three children were in one of the vehicles of the mix-up, and had assistance not been rendered just when it was, the chances are that all of them would have been killed or badly injured. On Sunday morning the old awning was pulled down to avert further danger.

It would seem impossible, in view of the many scores of "Birds of the Philadelphia Sunday Press" to excel in the free distribution of art souvenirs, yet that will be the fact. The subject to be given free to every reader of next Sunday's "Press" is a beautiful "Bird Paradise" and will surpass anything ever given away. It portrays a variety of birds faithfully and delicately reproduced in their natural colors, presenting an uncommon beauty, which will make for the picture a permanent place in our homes. Having been the work of the great French painter, M. Giacomelli, whose paintings of birds, insects and small animals are famous the world over, and nearly every private gallery, as well as every public one, contains one or more specimens of this great artist's work. To make sure of getting this great souvenir you should order next Sunday's "Press" from your newsdealer at once.
