R.I.P.A.N.S.
SOME PEOPLE eat because they think they ought to, not because they want to. They do it mechanically. They have no appetite, but yet they feel they must eat to sustain life. Food does very little good under such conditions.
Sometimes a loss of appetite is the beginning of a physical break up. It is then, some simple, practical remedy like Ripans Tabules is needed.
These Tabules stimulate the flow of gastric juice in the stomach, create a zest for food, whip up the liver and clear out the intestinal tract. They strengthen and invigorate the body and make it clean within. They cost but little, 10 for 5 cents, and are genuinely good.
At all drug stores.

WANTED:—A case of bad health that R-I-P-A-N-S will not benefit. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief. Note the word R-I-P-A-N-S on the package and accept no substitute. R-I-P-A-N-S, 10 for 5 cents, may be had at any drug store. Ten samples and one thousand testimonials will be mailed to any address for 5 cents, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce St., New York.

as Buffington sallied forth, not house junting, but home hunting.

It was not a so readily disposed of business as he supposed. This house was next to a livery stable; that one contained a young lady that was practicing for an opera singer; the third smelled as if the drainage was defective; the fourth was too splendid; the fifth too shabby.

"I don't know but what I shall be compelled to sleep at the station house," gloomily remarked Mr. Barnabas Buffington, "for, come what may, nothing shall induce me to go back to that noisy hotel, where the waiters don't come until you have rung the bell 40 times, and the soup is served half cold.

He was walking pensively along a quiet and shady little street, with both hands thrust deep down in his pockets and the front of his hat tilted down, over his nose, when, chancing to look up, he perceived a gray cat dozing in the bay window of a modest-looking house and on the doorway thereof was placed an unpretentious notice:

"Board and Lodgings at Moderate Prices."

"I like the look of that place," said is directed.

Do not be ashamed of being big-hearted and ambitious to improve yourself in body and mind. Remember that one of the best ways of self-improvement is being of service to others who need help.

Straw Hats.

Our first straw hats, worn about the beginning of the century, were of the palmleaf variety, the material being imported from the West Indies and braided in this country. Following them in a few years came the mountain Leghorn type, made from imported Italian straw, and then, in the twenties, the Maracayboes and Panamas. In 1840, or thereabouts, straw braids were imported from Italy and shaped into hats, and factories sprang up in all parts of this country. Straw braids are now imported from Japan, China and Italy. Over $35,000,000 of capital is invested in hatmaking in the United States.—New York Press.

In 1892 there were 220,487 acres of Prussian farming land sold by auction, while the amount in 1898 was 80,794 acres.

lettuce; pour over a mayonnaise and serve on lettuce nests.

Krehutyne, or Bohemian Doughnuts—Two eggs, three tablespoonfuls of water. Mix with flour into a stiff dough, adding a saltsponful of salt. Roll out as thin as a soda cracker. Cut into fancy shapes, fry in hot lard. Another way of making this is to sweeten with a tablesponful of sugar. Serve cold.

Biscuit—One pint of sour cream; dissolve a scant teaspoonful of soda in a tablespoonful of hot water; stir it into the cream, beating until it foams over the cup; add a saltspoonful of salt and flour enough to make a soft dough; pat over with the hands to the thickness of an inch; cut with small cutter and bake.

Chicken Salad—Two large fowls boiled; two large heads of celery. Cut the meat and celery into small pieces. For dressing—The chicken gravy and one-half pint of vinegar, a small piece of butter, one tablespoonful of mustard, a small tablespoonful of cayenne, one tablespoonful of salt; stir in the yoke of eight eggs just before taking from the stove; when cold stir in one cup or more of thick cream. Mix together with a fork.

On October 1 a rural free delivery route will be established from Espeyville station, Crawford county, with two carriers, who will cover 38 square miles and serve 976 people.

A girl named Allen has been committed to jail for attempted arson at Morganza, Pa. It is claimed she was the leader of five girls who tried to burn the girls' dormitory. They said they wanted to be sent to the penitentiary.

The State Magistrates' Association met at Reading Tuesday with over 75 delegates in attendance. Various legislative matters were considered, including the subject of whipping-posts for wife beaters.

Cheap Reading a Novelty in London.

The sixpenny novel has come to stay, much to the consternation of the publishers, who fear that this cheap literature will work a revolution in the book trade. Almost every day sixpenny editions of popular novels are being launched on the market. The success of the sixpenny ventures is attested by the enormous circulations that have been secured. The six-shilling novel circulates from 1,500 to 30,000, with a few phenomenal instances when the sale has leaped to 60,000 and 90,000. But the edition for this reduced price generally begins at 30,000 and goes up to 150,000.

FIRE IN SALISBURY.

Adam Fogle's Residence Burned to the Ground.

At about 11 a. m., yesterday, the cry of "fire" was heard, and it was soon discovered that the roof of Adam Fogle's residence was all ablaze. A large crowd soon assembled with buckets and began to battle against the flames, and it soon became apparent that it would require hard work to keep the fire from spreading to other buildings. Wells in the immediate vicinity were soon pumped dry, and several teamsters were put to work hauling water in barrels from other quarters of the town.

The Fogle house was soon abandoned, owing to the rapid headway of the flames, and all efforts were directed to save other buildings. Henry DeHaven's and Stewart Smith's residences had a very narrow escape, but vigorous work saved them, although they are somewhat damaged.

For a time the outlook was frighful, and at one time the residence of M. F. Smith, and a tenement house nearby were both on fire, but the flames were extinguished before they had time to spread.

The Fogle residence was occupied by the families of both Adam and Harvey Fogle. Most of their goods were gotten out, but they are badly damaged, and there was no insurance on the furniture.

The total loss to Adam Fogle will probably foot up to $2,000, while the insurance on the house will not cover more than about one-fourth of it.

Much sympathy is felt for the two families burned out, but it should not end in sympathy. They need help and should have it.

This is another argument in favor of water works. The town is not safe without a water plant, and our borough should take immediate steps to erect one. Had this fire occurred on a windy day, dry as it has been for some time, and water as scarce as it is now, practically the whole town would have been wiped out. Water is cheaper than fire. Now, for water works.

Republican Club.

All the Republicans of Salisbury and vicinity, young and old, are hereby requested to meet in Hay's opera house, Monday evening, October 1st, at 7.30 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a McKinley and Roosevelt club.

If you are a loyal Republican and desire a continuance of this era of prosperity, come forth and show your colors. Come forth and join the club, thus helping to put life and action into the campaign. We are a numerous tribe, but good Republicans must not sleep. There is always danger in over confidence.

Turn out, Republicans, one and all, and let work be the watchword from now until the polls close on Nov. 6th. Put your shoulder to the wheel and help to make the Democrats feel like 30 cents.

S. L. LIVENGOOD, Committeeman.

Mr. Charles Stark, of Nebraska, and Mr. Henry Rankin, of Farmington, were guests at Mr. Wm. Stark's, Sunday.

We will hardly hear from Mr. Paul, this week, through the Standard, as he and his step-mother are visiting her friends at New Lexington.

A Pretty Church Wedding.

Under the above caption there appeared in last week's Claysville Recorder an interesting article concerning the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Miller, mention of which event was made in last week's STAR. We regret that our space is too limited to reproduce in full the Recorder's account of this happy event, but we will give you the concluding remarks of that paper in the following paragraph, and we also join in welcoming Mr. and Mrs. Miller to our town, hoping they may long reside here and enjoy prosperity and happiness.

They will leave the first of the week for Elk Lick, where Mr. Miller has recently embarked in the drug business in partnership with Edgar Shaler, a former Claysville boy, under the firm name of the Elk Lick Pharmacy. Mr. Miller was graduated in the class of 1900 from the pharmaceutical department of the Western University of Pennsylvania, Pittsburg, of which institution his partner is also a graduate, and a successful business career is their prospect. Mrs. Miller has long been a favorite here and has a host of friends. She is a graduate of the Homeopathic Hospital training school for nurses, Pittsburg. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have a cozily furnished home awaiting them at Elk Lick. They have the best wishes of the community.

Mr. W. J. Chapman, of Baltimore, who operates what is known as the Hocking mine in this region, was here this week looking after his interests. Mr. Chapman recently returned from a trip to Europe, and he reports that the trip benefitted his health very much, which was very poor about a year ago. He is looking exceedingly well, and we trust he may continue to enjoy good health.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Mr. Ed. Reitz went to Berlin, last week, on business.

Mr. F. O. Livengood, of Somerset, was a Salisbury visitor, last Sunday.

Reitz's applebutter factory is doing an immense business, this season. Apples are coming in from away beyond Meyersdale.

The most dainty and effective pills made are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They are unequalled for all liver and bowel troubles. Never gripe. Miller & Shaler.

Mr. Lawrence Fallon, we are sorry to say, is very ill with typhoid fever. We join his numerous friends in hoping for his speedy recovery.

You can spell it cough, coff, caugh, kauff, kaff, Caugh, or kough, but the only harmless remedy that quickly cures it is One Minute Cough Cure. Miller & Shaler.

Mrs. Eva Williams returned home last Saturday from Somerset, after a week's visit with her brother, Mr. J. C. Lowry, and his family.

Mr. John L. Beachy informs us that the census of Elk Lick township is not complete. In some way Mr. Beachy, his wife and mother were all missed by the enumerator.

Al Swartzwelder met with a painful accident in the mines, Wednesday morning. A piece of coal fell on one of his hands, mashing several of his fingers and breaking one of them.

B. & O. Agent Frank Daugherty, of Sand Patch, was in our city on Monday. He rode his bicycle up on the railroad, having an attachment to it that enables him to ride his machine on the rails.

Married, at the home of John Brick, in Allegheny township, Sept. 20th, 1900, by Rev. J. H. Knepper, Elder Abraham J. Miller, of Boone, Pa., and Miss Lizzie Keefer of Allegheny township.

Mr. John Shunk while lifting a large lump of coal in the mines, one day last week, fell and injured his back to such an extent that he had to take a lay-off for several days. Better luck to you in the future, John.

Marshall Livengood has so far recovered from the operation performed on him for appendicitis that he is again able to be out for short intervals. Considerable time will elapse, however, before he will again be able to work.

Read every word of the Elk Lick Supply Company's big new "ad" in this issue, then go and see their fine new stock of goods. They have a stock that is worth going miles to see, and you will find them the nicest kind of people to deal with.

The joint ministerial meeting that was to convene at Rockwood on Sept. 24 was called off for very good reasons, says the secretary, Rev. C. F. Gephart, who authorizes THE STAR to announce that the meeting will be held on Dec. 3d, at Rockwood.

Messrs. John Schramm and Charles Plitt went to Big Capon, east of Cumberland, Md., on Monday, where they will enjoy a week's sport at bass and eel fishing. John having promised the editor a mess of fish on his return, we hope he and his partner will meet with great success at angling.

The emergency bags sent by a church society to Kansas soldiers in the Philippines contained among the necessities a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the well known cure for piles, injuries and skin diseases. The ladies took care to obtain the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve knowing that all the counterfeits are worthless. Miller & Shaler.

Congressman Thropp will contest the nomination of Alvin Evans for Congress. The case will be decided in the Dauphin County Court. Many people think Evans was not lawfully nominated, as there is little doubt that the wrong set of Conferees from Somerset county were admitted to the conference. But let us wait and see what the court says about it.

Large sun spots, astronomers say, caused the extreme heat this summer, and doctors declare nearly all the prostrations were induced by disorders of the stomach. Good health follows good digestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. If you have indigestion or dyspepsia it will quickly relieve or permanently cure you. Miller & Shaler.

This community was greatly shocked, last Saturday evening by a report that Mr. Harry Hartline was killed in a railroad wreck near Pittsburg. We are glad to say, however, that a message sent later announced that he was in a wreck, but not seriously hurt. Harry is a freight conductor on the P. V. & C. railroad, and we are glad to know that the accident was not serious.

Poisonous toadstools resembling mushrooms have caused frequent deaths this year. Be sure to use only the genuine. Observe the same care when you ask for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. There are poisonous counterfeits. DeWitt's is the only original Witch Hazel Salve. It is a safe and certain cure for piles and all skin diseases. Miller & Shaler.

It's an old saying that when the cat's away the mice will play, and this was in a measure verified on Monday evening, when Policeman Krausse was in Somerset. Samuel Horchler and Virgil DeLozier, who had trouble with each other before, locked horns again and did battle royal with each other. At one stage of the game Horchler wanted to quit, but DeLozier would not let him, and that's where he made a mistake, for he just kept on long enough to get licked by "Windy Sam." Both of the combatants should be arrested and fined. On Tuesday evening another row was started up by Al Swartzwelder and some other parties whose names we have not learned, but Policeman Chas. R. Snyder was near and promptly stopped the mill.
