SCULL RING BOLTERS.

Would-be Chairman Cover Calls a Meeting of the Sore-heads and Kickers.

How the Scull Ring Observes Party Regularity and Defies the Courts.

George A. Barron, Editor of the Republican, has called a meeting of the Republican party of Somerset county.

The Scull ring, headed by its chief, George R. Scull, Esq., last April went to the regular Republican county convention.

Although the case was tried before a judge who is a warm adherent of M. S. Quay, the attempted steal was so brazen and serious in character that even a judge felt in honor and justice bound to decide the case against the Quay-Scull machine.

MEYERSDALE RAILROAD.

The Pennsylvania railroad will lay a double track into Windber, the Era says, the company not being able to handle the output of coal on a single track.

There was a fight at the Miller & Cramer corner, Tuesday night, between William Minna and William Nesbit, that was short and decisive.

Madam Rumor says Windber will soon see another newspaper, of the Quay variety.

There are several strings to Mr. Bryan's bow, but none of them will stand the November strain.
