A Pleasant Social Gathering.

A Pleasant Social Gathering.
On Wednesday evening of last week a crowd of young people were very hospitably entertained at the home of Mr. Mort Wagner. A very enjoyable evening was spent in dancing, games, etc. Music was furnished by the Salisbury orchestra, under the able leadership of S. L. Livengood. A Tallyhoparty was not one of the least enjoyable features. Refreshments were served at 12 o'clock, and after two hours of pleasant recreation the crowd, with

Recalling the historic incident clustering about South Carolina's Executive Mansion, Mrs. Thaddens Horton writes, in the October Ladies' Home Johrnal, of the shocking tragedy that occurred there toward the close of the war. This was the death of the daughter of Governor Pickens immediately after her marriage to Lieutenant Le Rochelle. "On the afternoon preceding the evening of the marriage the Northern Army
