THE MINERS' REMEDY

Auctioneer Calvin Fuller Suddenly Joins the Baptists.

Our genial friend Calvin Fuller, of West Salisbury, who is commonly called Rev. Fuller, now has somewhat a different right to his title, as he is reported to have joined the Baptists, last Saturday, by being immersed in Fog Pond. Calvin was cutting ice, working away all alone, when all of a sudden he stepped on a piece of ice that he had cut loose, and down to the bottom he went. Of course it was an accident, but it was an immersion, just the same, and ever since the occurrence our long friend can look more sanctimonious than ever.

Situation at Harrisburg.

Our legislators met in Harrisburg on Tuesday and organized the House and Senate, the Quakers winning in both instances. The contest was very close for Speaker of the House, Marshall, the Quaker candidate, defeating our own General W. H. Koonz by one vote and one vote for the Senate. The Quakers are certainly fine.

Accidentally Shot.

One day last week while Mr. S. Johns and two young sons of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Newman were out hunting, one of the Newmans boys shot at a rabbit on the run, so the shot striking a rock, and glancing away one of shot struck Clarence Newman in the flesh beneath one of his eyes. Ever since the accident the lad is suffering intense pain, and at no time since, if we are correctly informed, has he been able to see out of the injured eye. Sight may return, but the eye will be blind, and it is feared that the eye is entirely destroyed. In probing for the shot the doctor has been unable to locate it. This is indeed a sad affair, and much sympathy is felt for the family.

Consumption Threatened.

C. Unger, 212 Maple St., Champaign, Ill., writes: "I was troubled with a cough for a year and I thought I had the consumption. I tried a great many remedies and nothing helped. I used one bottle of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR, and I have been cured. I have not coughed since." Miller & Shaler.

Morris Farmer Meets with a Dismal Accident.

Last Saturday morning a most distressing accident occurred at the Morris mines, the victim being Morris Farmer, a young man aged about 19 or 20 years. The young man was driving a job in the mines, and on the morning aforesaid he reported at the works to begin work. Before he entered the mines, however, he met with a horrible accident that may cost him his life, although hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Carriage with Four Occupants Goes Over Huntsrick Precipice.

On Tuesday night while four young men were returning from Meyersdale in a carriage owned by Mr. Joseph Joy, the horses took fright while coming up Huntsrick hill, slid to one side of the road and rolled down the precipice, taking the carriage and its occupants with them.

County-Sent News.

SOMERSET, Pa., Dec. 31, 1900. Good morning, Mr. Star! Here we are after six months without leave of absence from you. In all the wanderings your correspondent kept an eye on THE STAR, and didn't get lost, and is now back at his old stand, after making a profound New Year's bow, until our people will not require suits to go to the post-office.

Tried Five Doctors.

Mrs. Frances I. Sales of Missouri Valley, Ia., writes: "I had severe kidney trouble for years, had tried five doctors, without benefit, but I was cured by FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE." Miller & Shaler.

They Stole Opossum, Skunk, Muskrat and Raccoon Skins.

One day last week Mr. John H. Tedrow, who is a dealer in furs, and who is also a good citizen of our town, bought thirty Opossum, Skunk, Muskrat and Raccoon skins from Henry Hutzell and Bert Blough, who said the skins were their own property and were obtained at Mr. Hutzell's home in Garrett county, Md. Later on Mr. Tedrow found out that the skins were stolen from Richard Glatfelter, a farmer residing in this part of town. He accordingly surrendered the skins to the owner, who in turn had warrants issued for the arrest of Hutzell and Blough.
