THE MODERN MEDICATED Soap

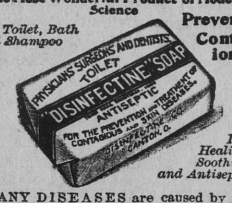
The Most Wonderful Product of Modern Science

Prevents Contagion

For Toilet, Bath and Shampoo



It is Healing, Soothing and Antiseptic

MANY DISEASES are caused by microbes and bacilli which lurk everywhere; in paper money, books, paper, carpets, rugs, clothing; on walls, windows, car seats, in toilet rooms, and even in the air we breathe. The hands sometime or other, come in contact with all these articles and surroundings. THE SKIN ABSORBS. The hands are liable to carry the germs with articles of food or otherwise, to the mouth, where the germs are absorbed by the lymphatics and blood vessels, and in this way spread the poisonous germs through the whole system.

WHETHER EXPOSED TO CONTAGION OR NOT, people should always use "Disinfectine" Soap. Teach the children in schools and households to wash their hands with "Disinfectine" Soap, especially BEFORE MEALS. It is endorsed by the Medical profession everywhere. A public benefactor and scientific preparation worth ten times its price. There is only one "Disinfectine" Soap; all similar brands are imitations. Popular price, 10c. At Druggists and reliable Grocers. 15c. the cake by mail. Satisfaction guaranteed.

AUNT RACHEL'S

Malarial Fever Bitters,

Of Peruvian Bark and Herbs.

ACHE NO MORE.

If malaria is prevalent in your vicinity, the meanest and most debilitating of all diseases,

BE SURE AND USE

Aunt Rachel's Malarial Bitters,

a little in each glass of water you drink. Directions on the bottle.

It Purifies the Blood, Strengthens the Stomach and Tones the System. Creates appetite.

These Bitters are a scientific combination of Chinchona (China Regia), Wormwood and the Ague Tree, macerated in a tonic wine made from Elderberries and percolated through Jamaica Ginger and Snake Root.

It is from a recipe of one of the oldest and most successful nurses in the State of New Jersey.

It will counteract any deleterious poison or fever influence the water may hold that you drink or the air you breathe.

Be sure you get Aunt Rachel's Malarial Bitters when you first begin to feel symptoms of this fever. It is a sure thing. Druggists sell it.

D. DODGE TOMLINSON'S

Celebrated H. H. H. Medicine is not a mere perfumed lubricating oil, the application of which serves only to amuse and occupy the patient, but is in reality a scientific combination of powerful chemicals and potent drugs, which have the marvelous property of going straight to the seat of the pain, where they act upon the lymphatics in such a manner, that the cause of the pain is absorbed and removed. It does not matter much whether the pain be due to an abnormal swelling, to sprains of the joints or strains of the muscles or tendons, to rheumatism, lumbago, neuralgia, sciatica, to toothache or headache, all of these are quickly relieved by the magic effect of H. H. H. No other medicine or liniment seems to equal it in the rapidity or certainty of its action. Often a single thorough application causes the pain and discomfort to vanish, as if by magic.

The H. H. H. is used only externally. It is put up in a 25 cent size and also larger bottles.

The signature and portrait of the inventor, Dr. D. Dodge Tomlinson, 400 North Third St., Philadelphia, Pa. is printed on the wrapper around each bottle. Sold by druggists. A slightly smaller sample vial will be delivered by U. S. Mail on receipt of 25 cents in stamps.

Fortune in Advertising.

Sixteen years ago R. H. Williams started in the grocery business in Kansas City with a cash capital of $225, all he possessed in the world. A few weeks ago he sold out and retired with a fortune estimated at from $200,000 to $300,000.

Recently Mr. Williams talked entertainingly on the subject of his success and the results his advertising achieved.

"I remember very well," said Mr. Williams, "that the first day's sales amounted to just $8. For the first six months I did some credit business, and then I realized that those customers would soon have my stock and I would have the accounts. I conceived the idea of selling for cash and advertising. I went to the Kansas City Star to inquire the cost of advertising and was surprised to find that it would cost me one day's receipts to pay for a small advertisement for one day. However, I was so positive that advertising was the only way to success that I made the necessary arrangements. It took all the money I could spare from my business, but it was only a short time until my business began to grow. I soon afterward moved to 802 Independence avenue, just across the street from my former store. I was there about three years, and because larger quarters were needed I moved to the southwest corner of Independence avenue and Holmes street. It was only a short time until I secured two additional rooms just across the street on Independence avenue, and there I remained until 1893, when the move was made to the Nelson building.

"Here I opened my store on Sept. 23, 1893. Of course I had advertised the opening liberally in The Star. I will never forget that day. There was such a crowd of customers that the clerks could not wait on one in ten. From that day on business has been on a large scale. I have employed from fifty to seventy-five clerks at all times varying with the seasons of the year. Goods are shipped to all parts of the United States. I have customers on the Pacific coast, the Atlantic and from British Columbia to the Gulf of Mexico. For the out of town trade my ad goes to The Weekly Star. From the beginning of the little store on Independence avenue until today my business has grown each year from 10 to 500 per cent."—Profitable Advertising.

Is Holding a Good Job.

Under date of April 30th, Mr. J. Ed. Reitz communicates the following to The Star:

"Send your ever welcome paper to my address at No. 4032 Willow St., Pittsburg, Pa. I have given up motoring on street cars, not that I had to, but I got tired of it. I have a very nice letter from the company. I am now running an electric crane for the Diamond Steel Company. So far I like the work first rate.

Hoping this will find you and the rest of your family all well, I will come to a close."

Your Little Friend,
JOHN E. REITZ.
