The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad and the Civil War, 1861-1865.

It was the first and most desirable point of vantage coveted by both the Federal and Confederate armies. In May, 1861, the four Federal advance columns concentrated at Parkersburg, W. Va., Wheeling, W. Va., Harper's Ferry, W. Va., and at Washington. To retain the advantage the Federal government established block houses along the railroad from the Monocacy to the Ohio river, besides forts at Winchester, Harper's Ferry, Cumberland, Piedmont and New Creek (Keyser). The B. & O. was the base of operations for the Federal army for nearly four years and from which the government could not take advance line earlier than November, 1864. The B. & O. was the means of communication between the West and the Army of the Potomac, and was consequently in a continual state of siege. Harper's Ferry, the key to the Shenandoah Valley, first named through the fanatical attempt of John Brown in defying the laws and customs of his country, was captured and recaptured eight times in three years. The Government Arsenal and armories which were located there, were destroyed by the government to prevent their capture. ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-NINE BATTLES OF GREATER OR LESS IMPORTANCE WERE FOUGHT ON OR ADJACENT TO THE BALTIMORE & OHIO RAILROAD, NOT TAKING INTO CONSIDERATION THE INNUMERABLE SKIRMISHES.
All through trains from St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Chicago, Columbus, Cleveland, Wheeling and Pittsburgh to the East, RUN VIA WASHINGTON. 5-8

TRAGEDY AT SOMERSET.
Accidentally Shot His Companion, then Committed Suicide.

A sad tragedy occurred at Somerset, last Sunday evening, when a 12-year-old son of James McKelvey accidentally shot Donald Bricker, a playmate, with a Flobert rifle. Young McKelvey was showing his gun to his companion, when it was accidentally discharged, the ball entering young Bricker's mouth. When the wounded lad fell, young McKelvey saw the blood running out of his mouth, and supposing that his companion was dead, he ran into the house, reloaded the gun and purposely shot himself through the brain, expiring almost instantly. The other lad was only slightly wounded, and will recover.

The hanging of Milt Sheets is supposed to be responsible for young McKelvey's suicide. It is alleged that some time after Sheets was hanged, the McKelvey boy and some other lads were talking about the affair, when, it is alleged, the boy made the statement that if he was ever so unfortunate as to kill anyone, he would promptly kill himself to avoid being hanged.

It is supposed when he accidentally shot his companion he feared the fate of a murderer, and to avoid disgrace and further sorrow, took his own life. The affair is one greatly to be regretted.

Traveling Is Dangerous.
Constant motion jars the kidneys which are kept in place in the body by delicate attachments. This is the reason that travelers, trainmen, street car men, teamsters and all who drive very much suffer from kidney disease in some form.

Foley's Kidney Cure cleans all forms of kidney and bladder disease. Geo. H. Hausan, locomotive engineer, Lima, O., writes, "Constant vibration of the engine caused me a great deal of trouble with my kidneys, and I got no relief until I used Foley's Kidney Cure." Sold by E. H. Miller.

I was a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and Asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had over-spoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full-size bottle."

Lilly, Pa., April 7th, 1902.

Dr. Taft Bros., New York.

Gentlemen:—I received your Asthmalene in good shape and in due time. I must say that it is an elegant medicine and has done all you claim for it. I was not able to walk up hill on account of my breath. After taking your medicine one day I went to chopping timber and have been working right along every day that is fit to work; this is a very bad climate and this has been the worst kind of a spring, hardly two days alike. I am sending an order enclosed in this to be sent at once.
Yours gratefully,
William A. Bradley.

The wholesale drug houses in the United States and Canada unhesitatingly say, "ASTHMALENE is and has been our standard remedy for the cure of Asthma for more than thirty years; we can offer nothing just as good."

Ask your druggist for it. Price, large bottle, $1.50. Delay in using Asthmalene means untold suffering.
