Three from the Somerset Standard.

Work on the erection of the big steel tippie at Boswell for the Merchants Coal Co., has been temporarily suspended, owing to a strike on the part of the mechanics who are doing the work.

Pure Food Inspector James Foust, of Altoona, was at Somerset on Wednesday of last week. He did not bring any suits against Somerset county dealers, this trip. At the last term of court, in which he had five or six cases, the verdicts were in favor of the merchants.

Probably the oldest woolen mill in this county is the well known Kantner factory south of Somerset. At present it is conducted by S. H. Kantner & Co., and they are doing an extensive business in manufacturing yarns and carpet. The factory first came into the possession of the Kantner family about 1844, when it was operated by Mr. John F. Kantner, father of the late venerable John H. Kantner of this borough, who later operated it with his sons for many years. We have been informed that the mill was in operation for thirty years prior to 1844.

Don't Start Wrong.

Don't start the summer with a lingering cough or cold. We all know what a "summer cold" is. It's the hardest kind to cure. Often it "hangs on" through the entire season. Take it in hand right now. A few doses of One Minute Cough Cure will set you right. Sure cure for coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. Absolutely safe. Acts at once. Children like it. "One Minute Cough Cure is the best cough medicine I ever used," says J. H. Bowles, Groveton, N. H. "I never found anything else that acted so safely and quickly." E. H. Miller.

An Intelligent Parrot.

A ticket seller in a theater once owned a parrot that was quick in learning to repeat phrases he heard. The ticket man went to the country for his summer holiday and took the parrot. One day the bird got out of the cage and disappeared. The owner searched about for him and finally toward evening found him, despoiled of half his feathers, sitting far out on the limb of a tree, while a dozen crows were pecking at him whenever they could get a chance. All this time the parrot, with his back humped up, was edging away from the crows and constantly exclaiming, in imitation of his master, "One at a time, gentlemen; one at a time."—Chicago Daily News.

Like a Drowning Man.

"Five years ago a disease the doctors called dyspepsia took such hold of me that I could scarcely go," writes Geo. S. Marsh, well known attorney of Nacoma, Tex. "I took quantities of peppin and other medicines, but nothing helped me. As a drowning man grabs at a straw, I grabbed at Kodol. I felt an improvement at once, and after a few bottles an sound and well." Kodol is the only preparation which exactly reproduces the natural digestive juices and consequently is the only one which digests any good food and cures any form of stomach trouble. E. H. Miller.

Giving Vent to His Spleen.

The Somerset Herald gave vent to the spleen of its editor again last week, against Judge Francis J. Kooser, whom he has been waging a losing fight against for a number of years. He undertakes to criticize the Judge for presiding at the triennial convention of the school directors, even after it was the expressed will of a large majority of the directors that he should do so.

Although there is no good reason why a judge should not preside at a meeting of school directors, Judge Kooser submitted to the use of his name only after he was assured that no other candidate would be placed in nomination against him. It was the desire of a large number of the directors to conduct the business of the convention as rapidly as possible, and for that reason he was selected on account of his familiarity with the duties of a presiding officer. The nomination of Mr. Will was probably as great a surprise to the Judge as Mr. Will's defeat was to the persons who set him up as a candidate in opposition to Judge Kooser.—Somerset Standard.

Dangerous if Neglected.

Burns, cuts and other wounds often fail to heal properly if neglected, and become troublesome sores. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve prevents such consequences. Even where delay has aggravated the injury, DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve effects a cure. "I had a running sore on my leg, thirty years," says H. C. Hartly, Yanketown, Ind. "After using many remedies, I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes healed the sore." Cures all skin diseases. Piles yield to it at once. Beware of counterfeits. E. H. Miller. 9-5

I was a slave, chained with purid sore throat and Asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had over-spoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full-size bottle."

Lilly, Pa., April 7th, 1902.

Dr. Taft Bros., New York.

Gentlemen:—I received your Asthmalene in good shape and in due time. I must say that it is an elegant medicine and has done all you claim for it. I was not able to walk up hill on account of my breath. After taking your medicine one day I went to chopping timber and have been working right along every day that is fit to work; this is a very bad climate and this has been the worst kind of a spring, hardly two days alike. I am sending an order enclosed in this to be sent at once.
 Yours gratefully,
 William A. Bradley.

The wholesale drug houses in the United States and Canada unhesitatingly say, "ASTHMALENE is and has been our standard remedy for the cure of Asthma for more than thirty years; we can offer nothing just as good."
 Ask your druggist for it. Price, large bottle, $1.50. Delay in using Asthmalene means untold suffering.
