AUNT RACHEL'S

Malarial Fever Bitters,

Of Peruvian Bark and Herbs.

ACHE NO MORE.

If malaria is prevalent in your vicinity, the meanest and most debilitating of all diseases,

BE SURE AND USE

Aunt Rachel's Malarial Bitters, a little in each glass of water you drink. Directions on the bottle.

It Purifies the Blood, Strengthens the Stomach and Tones the System. Creates appetite.

These Bitters are a scientific combination of Chinchona (China Regia), Wormwood and the Ague Tree, macerated in a tonic wine made from Elderberries and percolated through Jamaica Ginger and Snake Root.

It is from a recipe of one of the oldest and most successful nurses in the State of New Jersey.

It will counteract any deleterious poison or fever influence the water may hold that you drink or the air you breathe.

Be sure you get Aunt Rachel's Malarial Bitters when you first begin to feel symptoms of this fever. It is a sure thing. Druggists sell it.

D. DODGE TOMLINSON'S

Celebrated H. H. H. Medicine is not a mere perfumed lubricating oil, the application of which serves only to amuse and occupy the patient, but is in reality a scientific combination of powerful chemicals and potent drugs, which have the marvelous property of going straight to the seat of the pain, where they act upon the lymphatics in such a manner, that the cause of the pain is absorbed and removed. It does not matter much whether the pain be due to an abnormal swelling, to sprains of the joints or strains of the muscles or tendons, to rheumatism, lumbago, neuralgia, sciatica, to toothache or headache, all of these are quickly relieved by the magic effect of H. H. H. No other medicine or liniment seems to equal it in the rapidity or certainty of its action. Often a single thorough application causes the pain and discomfort to vanish, as if by magic.

The H. H. H. is used only externally. It is put up in a 25 cent size and also larger bottles.

The signature and portrait of the inventor, Dr. D. Dodge Tomlinson, 400 North Third St., Philadelphia, Pa. is printed on the wrapper around each bottle. Sold by druggists. A slightly smaller sample vial will be delivered by U. S. Mail on receipt of 25 cents in stamps.

"Contrary to Expectations."

"Contrary to expectations, Mr. Kooser has not resigned from the Somerset school board since he took the oath as Jndge," said the Herald, last week.

The editor of the Herald might enumerate a great many things that Judge Kooser, as a private citizen, did that were "contrary to his expectations," yet, incidentally, in harmony with the wishes of a majority of the people.

When Mr. Kooser announced as a candidate for congress against the editor's brother-in-law and defeated him by about 1,500 votes, it is reasonable to assume that Mr. Kooser acted "contrary to the Herald's expectations."

Again, when he defeated Josiah D. Hicks, of Blair county, who was Mr. Scull's candidate for congress in this county, Mr. Kooser's conduct was somewhat "contrary to the Herald's expectations."

After Judge Longenecker had done so many good turns for the editor of the Herald during the ten years he was on the bench in this county, it was natural that the Herald editor should be anxious to see him returned. But "contrary to the Herald's expectations" Mr. Kooser offered as a candidate, and the voters of the Republican party endorsed him by a majority of more than 1,000 over Mr. Longenecker.

Last fall Mr. Scull was foolish enough to believe that by uniting the vote of his followers with the Democratic vote he could defeat the Republican nominee, but "contrary to the Herald's expectations," a majority of the voters thought otherwise.—Somerset Standard.

Topographic Maps of Pennsylvania.

Five topographic map sheets of parts of Pennsylvania, the result of a co-operative survey made by the State of Pennsylvania and the United States Geological Survey, have recently been issued by the Federal organization. These maps are drawn on a scale of about one inch to the mile and each sheet covers a rectangular section representing approximately 13x17 miles. They exhibit in great detail all features of roads, boundaries, towns, and drainage, and the topography of the country is specified by contours or lines of equal elevation. The Germantown sheet is a reissue and shows the country surrounding the city of that name in the suburbs of Philadelphia, and thence several miles to the north. Kittanning, a new sheet, coves a portion of the western part of Armstrong county and eastward to the Allegheny River. Connellsville, Latrobe, and Indiana, also new sheets, show a connecting strip of country northeastward from Connellsville to a few miles beyond the town of Indiana, embracing parts of Westmoreland and Indiana counties. They cover the larger part of the region from which comes the celebrated Pittsburg coking coal. The maps are available at the usual rate of five cents each, on application to the Director of the United States Geological Survey, Washington, D. C.

At 8 p. m., while Pa and Ma
Helped entertain, with Sis,
Both John and May in distant seats
Were far apart, like this.
At 9 p. m., as Pa withdrew
And sought his room upstairs,
The lovers found some photographs
And nearer brought their chairs.
At 10 p. m. Mamma decamped—
And then, ye gods! What bliss!
Those lovers sat till nearly one

A couple of Oakland's sports were on a fishing excursion a few days since, and in passing a farm-house they yelled to the farmer's daughter: "Hey there! have you any milk?" The reply was gently wafted back to their ears, "Yes, but we keep it for our own calves." The boys calculated that they had business away, and they went.

There is no product of earth which is outside the pale of publicity. If one have flour, or salt, or sugar, or sand, or corn, or any other commodity, he can so present it to the public as to increase its sale, and therefore make profitable the advertising of it. Advertising is, after all, but a form of invitation to call and inspect given goods. It is a telling of the public that given articles are to be found in a given place and that they may be had at fair and honest prices.—Printers' Ink.

Holds Up a Congressman.

"At the end of the campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork, nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all organs in my body were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-around medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter." Over worked, run-down men and weak, sickly women gain splendid health and vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by E. H. Miller.

"It's surprising," remarked a trained nurse, "how few homes get enough fresh air. Small wonder that so many persons are dull and ailing. If they would open their windows daily to sunlight and fresh air, mind, body and morals would be improved." Pretty much the same trouble ails people's souls, too. They are shut up to themselves too much. They do not admit the invigorating influences of new books, new friends, new interests and new thoughts into their lives. Figuratively speaking, they need fresh air and sunshine.

Females and Weakly Persons.

At this season use Speer's Port Grape Wine, also extensively used in hospitals. Physicians recommend it as a strengthening and blood-purifying tonic, and the best wine to be obtained for weakly persons.
