IT MAY BE!

It may be, Mr. Farmer, that you will need some new Harvesting Machinery, this year. It may be that you want the very best Mower or Reaper on the market. It may be that you don't know where you can make the best purchase in that line.

Look Around And See!

If you will look to your own best interests, you will invest in the Light Running, Correctly Built and Perfectly Working Osborne Machinery. There is none better. I think there is none quite as good. I would like to sell to you, feeling sure that if you buy from me you will think as I do.

Give me a call when you are ready for that new Mower or Reaper that you are thinking of buying. It will be to your advantage to see me before buying.

KEEP THEM IN MIND.

These Men Are Republicans Only When They Want Office.

- Harvey M. Berkley. Jacob S. Koontz. John C. Weller. Samuel M. Saylor. Frank P. Saylor. Robert W. Lohr. U. M. Housel. C. A. Rhoads. Ira G. Lambert. Edward Hoover. Daniel E. Keller. Norman D. Shaffer. Chas. H. Weimer. Elwood Swank.

No quarter and no office for bolters should be the watchwords of all true Republicans, Saturday, June 7th. That is the only safe policy, if our grand old party is to remain in power and the country to keep up its present prosperity.

If you want to vote for a man for congress who is a Republican when it suits, and a Democrat when things do not go his way, then vote for Harvey M. Berkley. But if you want to vote for a man who under all circumstances is a straight Republican, vote for J. A. Berkey.—Meyersdale Republican.

Our old friend "Timmie" Scull this week devotes about one-half of his paper to J. A. Berkey. "Timmie" sees a hand writing the doom of his slated bolters on the wall, and now he is becoming desperate. The Herald's entire tirade against Mr. Berkey could be appropriately labeled with a word containing only four letters. The word "rot" does not quite fit "Timmie's" rubbish, but there's another word with only one letter more that would; but the appropriate word would not look well in print.

Berkey buttons are very popular throughout the county. In the center, where some candidates have their photographs printed, Mr. Berkey has the words "I Never Bolt." We heard a man ask, the other day, why Mr. Berkey hasn't got his face on his buttons as some of the other candidates have. We guess it's because Mr. Berkey never traveled on his face. He has a straight Republican record to travel on, while his opponent, bolter Harvey M. Berkey, has nothing but his face and gall to travel on.

Not a word does the Somerset Herald say this week about the "proposed investigation" of the election of Prof. D. W. Seibert to the County Superintendent of public schools. Since the Meyersdale Republican has offered to produce sworn testimony of school directors who were offered money to vote for O. O. Saylor, the Scull candidate, the Herald has evidently come to the conclusion that it is time to shut up on that score and cast about for some new scheme to fool people with and create campaign sympathy.

THE SOMERSET HERALD shows this week that the Sculls are also displeased with "Bennie" Morgan, candidate for delegate to the State convention. Of course they are, for the reason that Mr. Morgan is a straight Republican, one of the kind that never bolt. Mr. Morgan was the best worker the Sculls ever had in Meyersdale, but he is an honest and conscientious man, as well as a loyal Republican, and when the Sculls turned traitors to their party, last fall, "Bennie" shook them. They couldn't induce Mr. Morgan to bolt, and the more the Herald finds fault with him, the more votes he will get.

EARLY in the campaign there were quite a lot of candidates out circulating their cards that have since dropped out of the race. Of the candidates who have dropped out, some belong to the Scull faction and some to the anti-Scull faction. The editor of the Herald is now declaring that the anti-Scull men who quit the race were forced to quit by J. A. Berkey. What rot! J. A. Berkey never resorts to force methods, but the Sculls always did and do yet. "Timmie" should explain who forced some of the Scull bolters off the track. Try a new dodge, "Timmie," your old cry of "force" no longer deceives people.

It seems to afford the old pair of pants that presides over the Meyersdale Commercial much pleasure that all the Salisbury school directors, and five out of the six Meyersdale directors, voted for Saylor for County Superintendent of schools. "Lucifer" thinks it shows up bad for THE STAR and the Republican. Bah! old man, we care not a straw how they voted, and we never tried to influence their votes in any way. When people see fit to tack onto an old political corpse, that is their right and their privilege. It's enough glory for us to know that Seibert was elected in spite of Saylor's boodle and Scull ring politics, just as we predicted he would be. We don't see "Lucifer" for trying to get a little comfort out of Saylor's defeat by making wry faces at THE STAR and the Republican. "Thibert's" selected, just the same.

Will Cure Consumption.

A. A. Herren, Sineh, Ark., writes, "Foley's Honey and Tar is the best preparation for coughs, colds and lung trouble. I know that it has cured consumption in the first stages." Sold by E. H. Miller.

"JIMMIE COVEOSTER," or whatever his name is, is now sending large portraits of his mealy physiognomy all over the county, announcing that he is a candidate for the nomination of State Senator. Doesn't it jar you when such things are set up for that office? A well bred monkey would be just as fit for the office as "Jimmie" Coveoster is the same "Jimmie" that was fake county chairman, a few years ago. He imagined that he was the real thing until Senator Quay and the State organization reminded him that the Scull gags and their fake county committee could not be recognized. Then, and not till then did little "Jimmie Jaybird" come off the perch and crawl into the hole where he and the rest of the Scull gang remained until last fall, when they came out and traveled all over the county, advising Republicans to vote the Democratic ticket. "Jimmie Coveoster" never had much political strength to begin with, even when the party was yet united. He made three runs before he was elected Recorder, and when he did finally succeed, it was only by the skin of his teeth. "Jimmie" is an arrogant, obstreperous little "cuss" with about a thimbleful of brains, that is, of course, a very small thimbleful. He would make a real nice "dummy" for a clothing store, but for a State Senator—oh, ye gods what a spectacle! Poor little "Jim" of body and so flimsy and slim! The voters will do a plenty to him. Poor, little, squeaky-voiced "Coveoster Jim!"

Reveals a Great Secret.

It is often asked how such startling cures, that puzzle the best physicians, are effected by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Here's the secret. It cuts out the phlegm and germ-infected mucus, and lets the life-giving oxygen enrich and vitalize the blood. It heals the inflamed, cough-worn throat and lungs. Hard colds and stubborn coughs soon yield to Dr. King's New Discovery, the most infallible remedy for all Throat and Lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free at E. H. Miller's drug store.

A CORRECTION.

Charles Williams Not a Bolter. In the bolters' list published in this paper, last week had the name of Charles Williams, of Meyersdale. In justice to Mr. Williams we wish to state that we got his name among the bolters through an oversight, and we cheerfully correct the error. We have good evidence that Mr. Williams last fall supported the entire Republican ticket. We want to be fair toward all men and we can say nothing worse of Mr. Williams than that is at present training with the faction that bolted. That is his right and his privilege, although we believe it is poor political policy to tack onto a gang of bolters.

Holds Up a Congressman.

"At the end of the campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork, nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all organs in my body were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-around medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter." Overworked, run-down men and weak, sickly women gain splendid health and vitality from Electric Bitters. Try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed by E. H. Miller.

LOYAL WINDBER.

A Loyal Republican Town—Its Loyal Republican Candidate.

S. S. CRISSMAN FOR ASSEMBLY.

SOMETHING CONCERNING THE MAN AND HIS PLATFORM—A WARM FRIEND OF THE MINERS.

In less than two weeks the coming Republican primary will be a thing of the past. Candidates are now all on the home stretch, making their final round-up. Just who the winners will be, remains to be seen; but we firmly believe, and all indications seem to point out that the winners will nearly or quite all be found among the list of loyal Republicans whose announcements appear on our 4th page.

Every name in that column is the name of a loyal and steadfast Republican. Every man in that column stood solidly for every man on the Republican ticket, last fall, when every man whose name appears on the bolters' list, on last page, was out trying to rend the party asunder and elect a Democratic Judge. Every candidate whose name appears in the list on 4th page is not only a loyal Republican, but all of them are good and honorable citizens.

We are not here to discriminate between good Republicans and good all-around men, but we are here to remind you that in the entire list of candidates there is but one among them from Windber, the magic city in the north of the county.

Windber is the largest town in the county, although it is only about five years old. With its teeming thousands of busy workmen; its large number of bustling business men; its many heavy tax-payers; and above all, its enormously large and loyal Republican vote, it is indeed strange that the big coal town has not put in the field a larger number of candidates. But Windber is modest, having but one candidate in the field.

Surely Windber is entitled to recognition, and as the big coal town has but one candidate, the first it has ever had to come forward and ask the people of Somerset county for their votes, it is but just to say that the town's one candidate is entitled to nomination.

The name of Windber's candidate is S. S. Crissman, who is after a nomination and election to our State Assembly or Legislature. Mr. Crissman is a Republican of the old school, one of the kind that never bolt. He has been an active party worker ever since he is a voter, always advocating fair play and the best interests of the Republican party. But he has never asked for office until now.

Mr. Crissman is one of the many active and progressive merchants of Windber. He is a good talker and a man of splendid business capacity. If sent to the Legislature he will be an able representative, and there is no doubt that he will do all in his power for the best interests of Somerset county. He is a warm friend of the miners and the toiling masses in general, and if elected he will do all in his power to have a public hospital established in Somerset county, where disabled miners and sick people of every walk in life can be taken and get the benefit of the most skillful nursing and medical and surgical treatment.

Surely Mr. Crissman has a strong claim on the Republican voters of Somerset county, as has also the town in which he resides. Mark our word, he will come out of Windber and Pain township with a majority so large as to completely overwhelm the Scull bolter candidates, Weller and Rowe. We know of a certainty that he stands well with his home people and that the precincts aforesaid will be almost a unit for him, there is very little doubt. In his personality Mr. Crissman is one of these warm-hearted, open-handed men that make friends wherever they go. No matter what one may think of him as a campaigner, all who come in contact with him admit that he is very full of energy and is "a hale fellow well met." There are people right here in this vicinity who have known him in Clearfield county, and they all say he is a royal good fellow and one who is ever true to his friends.

When casting your ballot on Saturday, June 7th, as loyal Republicans meet, there are people right here in this vicinity who have known him in Clearfield county, and they all say he is a royal good fellow and one who is ever true to his friends. TO DECEIVE VOTERS.

The Scull Bolters and Party Traitors Circulate Bogus Tickets.

On Wednesday John Scott, the Somerset pettifogger was in Salisbury on a campaign mission. Of course "Scottie" had his elastic conscience with him, and his mission seemed to be to hand out campaign boodle and circulate bogus tickets to debauch and deceive voters. We have been handed one of his bogus tickets, which consists of a strip of cardboard, printed on both sides. One side is headed "Straight Republican Ticket," and under the deceptive heading follow the names of Harvey M. Berkley, James M. Cover, Fred. Rowe, John C. Weller, Chas. H. Weimer, Ira G. Lambert, Robt. W. Lohr, Daniel E. Keller, Chas. H. Williams, Freeman J. Hoffman, Samuel M. Saylor, Jacob Koontz, C. A. Rhoads, Abraham Trexel, Josiah Good, Dr. C. J. Hemminger, E. L. Swank, U. M. Housel, N. D. Shaffer, F. P. Saylor and Edward Hoover.

The other side of the card is headed, "J. A. Berkey's Ticket," and under that heading is found another list of names. But the whole scheme is a very flimsy game of deception. The list headed "Straight Republican Ticket" is made up almost entirely of Scull bolters, soreheads and party-wreckers, men who last fall voted the entire Democratic county ticket. Freeman J. Hoffman, and Charles Williams are about the only straight Republicans in "Scottie's" list, while the list labeled "J. A. Berkey's Ticket" contains no other names than those of the very best and truest Republicans.

But John R. Scott is noted for sly, sly and deceptive capers. However, Scott's little game will avail the bolters nothing, for true Republicans are on the alert and will give Mr. Scott to understand that they are capable of marking their own ballots. They need no instructions from a professional Somerset trickster. They know the Scull slate and will smash it about properly, in spite of all the attempts made to sail it under the Republican colors.

The Way Fayette County Republicans Look at Harvey M. Berkley's Candidacy.

From the Fayette Republican. The Meyersdale Republican is authority for the following: "Last fall Harvey M. Berkley canvassed Somerset county in the interest of the Democratic party, urging Republicans to bolt the regular Republican nominee and vote for W. H. Kuppel for judge. Now he is canvassing the county asking Republicans to honor him by nominating him for Congress. If he is defeated, as he will be, he will this fall canvass the county in the interest of the Democratic nominee for Congress." "If our Somerset county friends want such a Republican (?) sent to Congress, is it any wonder that Fayette county should object to their choice? Fayette county Republicans are true to the party whose name floats over the masthead of this paper, and have no time for bolters and soreheads from Somerset county or any place. No such person as Editor Bishop speaks of could have his candidacy considered by Fayette county Republicans or Fayette county Democrats. We will present a candidate who has always been true to his party's best interests, and when his claims are presented against a Somerset county bolter, fusionist and party wrecker, our broken case of Laurel Hill would do well to "go way back and sit down."

Appropriate Questions for Harvey Berkley.

If Harvey M. Berkley, who is ordinarily a man of very selfish and unsociable disposition, calls on you and smilingly asks you to vote for him at the coming Republican primary, you should ask him a few questions about as follows: Did you vote the whole Republican ticket, last fall? If you did you vote against and work against the Republican candidate for President Judge, last fall? What excuse have you, if you claim to be a Republican, for not supporting all the Republicans nominated at the last primary, a primary which you participated in yourself? Mr. Berkley, if you should hear a man in your precinct say that he intends to vote at the Republican primary, but would vote against you in the fall if you should be nominated for Congress, would you not try to stop his vote at the primary? Mr. Berkley, if you should be nominated at the primary, would you expect true and loyal Republicans to support you at the general election? If so, then why were you not loyal to the Republican ticket, last year? If your friend Judge Longenecker had defeated Judge Kooser at our last primary, and then Judge Kooser would have taken the field to defeat his successful rival at the general election, would you not have condemned such a course as dishonorable and disloyal to your party? You know, you would, Mr. Berkley, and knowing that you did the very thing yourself that you would condemn in others, what just claim has a party traitor like you on any true and loyal Republican? The same kind of questions should also be put to John C. Weller, Frank P. Saylor, U. M. Housel, Ira G. Lambert, Daniel E. Keller, Charles H. Weimer, Jacob S. Koontz, Samuel M. Saylor, Robert W. Lohr, C. A. Rhoads, Edward Hoover, Norman D. Shaffer and Elwood Swank. All of these men are bolters and voted and worked for the Democratic county ticket, last fall. They have no claim on true and loyal Republicans, and if you ask them the questions suggested, you will see them turn red, squirm and give all sorts of evasive answers.
