July 30 has been designated as the day Mosby's cavalry will meet at Leesburg.

Ex-Postmaster Burroughs, who is ac cused of stealing $2263 of Government funds, surrendered to the Federal authorities at Norfolk. Examinati waived and he was released on $1000

Senator Carter Glass is now in Rich mond, and a statement from that city declares that he will shortly make fo mal announcement of his candidacy for ongress from the Sixth District.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive En gineers held its convention at Norfolk before a large and interested audience Mayor Beaman, Governor Montague and jury. others made addresses in connection Morgantown expects in the near fu ture to gain four big factories, diverted to the place by the influence of Senator Elkins and Hon. G. C. Sturgis. Rea estate is soaring as the result of the unprecedented demand for good buildsites, and the town is on the edge of the biggest boom in its history.

Roanoke, Va.—Intelligence ceived here of the death of Father Pat-Father Burke has been a Catholic priest of the see of Wheeling for more than 36 years, and had been stationed at Abingdon for the past six years.

Never before was Confederate Memorial Day observed in Norfolk as it was The National Convention, adjourned to honor the Confederate candidacy for the nomination for Lieu dead, and military and civil celebrations tenant Governor. The officials are rep were extensive. Ex-Confederate Gen-

The plans and architect have been selected by the commission appointed to superintend the improvement of capitol at Richmond. It was decided to have Nolen & Baskerville of Richmond and Frye & Chesterman of Lynchburg make composite designs, the commission being tied over the plans sub-mitted by these firms. The two firms the Pennypacker boom. are to jointly superintend the work.

Morgantown, W. Va.-The whole right, wife of Prof. F. L. Cortright, of the university. She had been ill but two Professor and Mrs. Cortright came here contest Wharmsby won by a vote of 32 a year ago from Cornell University.

"Rev." H. V. Cunningham, recently sentenced to the West Virginia Peniten tiary for stealing $1525 from Joshua Day masses have fallen into the channel.

The gap was cut by the Federal forces under Gen. B. F. Butler during the civil war, straightening the river and cutting off several miles. The sinking of the ground seems to have been caused by

A special dispatch from Norfolk says: "The Virginia commission appointed and luncheon, by the last Legislature to confer with similar body from the State of Marythe two States and to make recom- tends around the city and all coal and Wesley M. Oler, Douglas H. mendations to their respective Legislatures next session for the establishment from the main line passing through the Ambach, Jordan Stabler, John S. Gibs of Old Whoop, of certain boundaries and laws to cover city. Potomac River, met the ber of dwellings and the Camden Intersub-station, were con suspended all street-car traffic in the town and several other towns in West Virginia and Kentucky. The loss will reach $200,000. The mills were partly insured, but the remainder will be a total er, Governor Thomas, and the Virginians steamer, Relief-visited the Potomac River.

posed of State Senators C. Harding case to the higher courts.

Walker, W. W. Sale, R. P. Wise, George

Virginia News. Ray Evans committee suicide of campus of Marshall College, Huntington, within sight of the home of Miss become his wife. Evans joined the after his rejection, but, hearing which the remaining members of that his regiment was to go to the Philippines, deserted in order to see Miss Williams again before leaving. He went girl's home, shot himself to death.

> The English Telephone Company has been chartered at Alexandria to man-ufacture, buy or use electric magnetic Stilson and Lee Hutchins, W J. Dante and E. W. Creery are the inproprators.

Charleston, W. Va.-Longacre furnishes another to Fayette county's long list of murders. Mrs. Fannie Washing n is accused of murdering her husband, and was taken to Montgomery for preliminary examination. She was held without bond to answer to the grand Pennsylvania News.

Friends yearly meeting held in Phila-delphia registered a loud protest against the proposal of the State Legislature to legalize the social evil.

At Norristown, Rhine Russell Freed sent to Governor Stone his resignation as Register of Wills in order to accept the position of chief coiner at the Mint Following Mr. Freed's letter was one Assemblyman McGlathery Speaker Marshall containing his resignation as a member of the House. Mc Glathery also circulated a petition ask ing the Governor to appoint him Mr.

Mayor Fred. E. Lewis, of Allentown, with some friends, called on Governor Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, a view of securing their aid for Lewis resented to have been eral Garrett delivered the memorial ora- the Governor saying that he was not tak ing any part in the contest, and Elkin saying he was fighting for himself.

A public meeting of citizens of Phila-

At Tamaqua, the Third District Republican Convention for the purpose of electing a delegate to the State convenpopulace was shocked this evening to tion was held. W. H. Matten, of Melearn of the death of Mrs. Flora Cort- Keansburg, who favors Pennypacker, weeks. Her ailment was typhoid fever. Wharmsby, of McAdoo. After a sharp to 30.

> The Pittsburg fund for the survivors of St. Pierre and St. Vincent has been swelled to more than $27,000 and one of the seismic disturbances so prev- other railways participated. The program included a ride over the new road in one of the Reading Company's hand-advisability of making the extension. The somest trains, followed by a reception

State Convention.

The burning of the station has David R.James, of Shenandoah. They extension from Queenstown to Kent Isl-

Seven years ago Myers, annoyed by an article in the "Leader," which stated that he did not decorate his bank during "After the Potomac River." some celebration, it was alleged shouted at Bogert several times in succession, other waters, probably going up the Bay as far as Annapolis." that he did not decorate his bank during some celebration, it was alleged shouted at Bogert several times in succession, "2-cent postage stamp thief." This was on the pubic square and Bogert claimed "The Virginia Commission is com- $50,000 damages. Myers will carry the Ray Evans committed suicide on the The injured were brought to the risburg Hospital in a gravel train and their wounds dressed, after which three Pearl Williams, who had refused to of them left for York to join the circus.

Columbus Davis, colored, of Martin ounty, N. C.

Charles Berkley, of Louisville, Ky. Harry Sheaver, of Springfield, Mo. They are hurt internally. The others

Robert Clark, of Altoona, Pa. Edward Bargin, of 8400 First Avenue

The accident was caused by the breaking of a truck under a car carrying a large canvas wagon, on which the injured men were sleeping. Two cars were wrecked, causing a delay of several hours in the movement of the train. Two sections carrying the performers Two sections carrying the performers and animals were behind the section which was wrecked

Mrs. Nancy Thomas, mother of Jacob E. Thomas, of Baltimore, died in Hagerstown, aged 76 years. Her husband, aged 81 years, is dead.

Frostburg's special election to deter mine the question of issuing $15,000 worth of bonds to improve the city's water supply resulted in the defeat of the project by four votes.

The annual appointments to Annu Arundel county offices were annuanced by the County Commissioners.

Howard County's tax rate for the year has been fixed at 75 cents on the $100, the same as last year. The county is free of debt and has a cash surplus

Mr. Andrew Stanbitz, a prominent farmer of Henryton Howard county died on Sunday of old age. He was That Sugar Controversy. new enduement with power. a widow, two sons and three daughters.

McKelvey ran home, loaded his gun shot himself, dying instantly.

The new Boards of Elections Super visors of Washington and Howard counties perfected their organization, the former electing J. B. Sweeney president, Thomas C. Geory clerk and W. J. Witzenbacher counsel. Howard's Board chose Humphrey D. Wolfe for president, Hon. John G. Rogers as counsel and Bernard H. Wallenhorst as

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Queen Anne's Railroad Charles. Va., were accepted and a com committee consists of Douglas H. Gordon, Wesley M. Oler, John M. Denison, and President William H. Bosley and The Belt Line was undertaken two Vice-President Charles H. Tilgaman.

The following directors were chosen and Gen. John M. Denison, of Balti- Hezekiah Jones was captain of a famous more, and Philip L. Cannon, Dr. Hiram R. Burton, John F. Saulsbury and L. L. the Potomac River, met the Maryland contingent at Old Point, and the two continues and the battle of Great Neck.

In the interior as summer or Azariah Jones commanded at the battle of Great Neck.

In the dark old days of trouble all the Should follow the people?

Dr. Ramsay, with a constant and the battle of Great Neck.

In the dark old days of trouble all the Should follow the people?

Dr. Ramsay, with a constant and the battle of Great Neck.

In the dark old days of trouble all the Should follow the people?

Dr. Ramsay, with a constant and the Should follow the people?

Dr. Ramsay, with a constant and the Should follow the people?

Dr. Ramsay, with a constant and the Should follow the people?

Dr. Ramsa tings; assistant secretary, Hugh L. Pope; treasurer, Robert W. Smith.

The management is pleased with the and, which places Baltimore about one His mother was a Brown of the Massa Wilkes-Barre.—A jury has awarded E. F. Bogert, editor of the Wilkes-Barre "Leader," $8000 against Lawrence Myers, a banker. The charge was slander. "Leader," $8000 against Lawrence Myed along the line of the road, which ers, a banker. The charge was slander. brings much business to the City of When the savages shot arrows through Baltimore.

> John Hamilton Smith and Joseph M. Guy, graduates of the Reformed Theological Seminary at Lancaster, Pa., passed examinations for licenses to preach in the Reformed Church.

is $75,000. No action has as yet been

Governor Smith, in reply to a request Those who are seriously injured are: from the Secretary of State at Washing-Columbus Davis, colored, of Martin ton, has given his official consent for the transportation of French officers and armed marines through this State to the Capital. The men are to come from the French cruiser Gaulois to attend the Rochambeau monument unveiling in Jesus.—P

Messrs. William M. Cannon, D. M. Smith, Dr. H. M. Swing, James H. James C. Bradshaw, of Richmond, Va. Rickards and J. H. Bowers were elected

DISASTER WAS PREDICTED.

New York .- To Prof. Falb of Vienna Maryland News. belongs the credit of predicting the disaster at Martinique. He did not specify what the calamity would be, but he named the date within 24 hours on which v. 44.— ame amost the whole day.

(1) Attractive preaching that drew crowds. (2) An unrecorded discourse that produced maryelous results.

V. 45.— "They were filled with envy." something important would happen. In the Herald of Sunday, February 2 last, appeared the following:

That produced marvelous results.

V. 45.—"They were filled with envy."

(1) Chagrin at the Gospel's success manifested.

(2) Iswish exclusiveness. appeared the following: Rudolf Falb, an eminent European weather prophet, says there will be several critical dates during 1902. These he educative programme set forth. (2) An cember 29.

It will be seen that May 7 is in the list of dates of those of the most importance. The earthquake took place on May 8, therefore, Professor Falb was a born in Germany, but emigrated early in life to this country. Mr. Stanbitz left be mixed up in the Michigan sugar bounties. At the expiration of that time no more money was available. The legislature, however, failed to repeal this bill and the beet people claimed that the law was still in force in spite of the fact that there was no money in the treasury for bounties. The case was appealed to the United States supreme court, but it was thrown out on the ground that the court did not have included in the court did not have in the property of the control of the court did not have included in the present Jesus of Nazareth as the Messiah of Israel, the Light of the Gentiles, and the Light of the Gentiles, and the loving, helpful One ready to save from sin all who will accept him as Savior and King.

Time.—We cannot definitely determine the year when Paul set out upon his first missionary tour. But it is interesting to observe how the history of his journeyings through Pamphylia, Pisidia set out to sell tent-cloth, or perhaps to

PEDIGREE.

Many a man would give a fortune for the lineage he can claim.

the Puritans' tall hats And they soused the wicked witches out of sight in boiling vats; On his noble mother's side

International

Golden Text.—Through this man is with Deut. 1:38.) preached unto you the forgiveness of sins.—Acts 13:38.

The Persons—that is, the little company (V. 13) of which Paul was now the recognized leader,—included possible for in Jesus we are saved from our sins.

The Voice of the Prophets telling of Jesus.—P. (5) 132:11, 12; Isa. 9:6.

Ezek. 34:23; Micah 5:2; Zech. 9:9.
Forgiveness of Sins.—Ps. 103:3; 130:4; Mark 2:7, 10; Luke 6:37; Acts 5:31; 26:18; Eph. 1:7; 4:32; Col. 2:13; 1 John 1:9; 2:12.

Indiang. One's Self—John 1:11, 12:

3:19-21; John 2:28, 29; 3:19-21.

BY REV. F. J. MALLETT, PH.D. V. 43.—"When the congregation was broken up." (1) The end of a memor-broken up." (1) The end of a memorable service. (2) Speakers who had earned repose. (3) Gospel teaching parallel earned repose. (3) The paths tiently continued. 44.—"Came almost the whole city."

manifested. (2) Jewish exclusiveness repudiated. (3) The gospel's catholicity reviled.

Stated in round millions of pounds, the sugar consumption of the United States has grown from 1272 in 1870, to 5314 in 1901. The percapita consumption has increased from 33 pounds a generation ago to 68 pounds now, according to a recent treasury bulletin.

The Havemeyer sugar interests are reported purchasers of 120 acres land The Havemeyer sugar interests are reported purchasers of 120 acres land near Ft. Collins, Col., for location of a beet sugar factory with a capacity of confirms the foregoing supposition that they reached Perga in early summer. tion rose in his place—instead of to the mountains or the high tableland in the interior as summer drew on (Conlivered to Jews which is preserved for anded at the battle ybeare and Howson). What more us. We cannot fail to note its points natural plan than that the missionaries of resemblance to Peter's sermon at departure from the malarial district. A second line of investigation, which shows that Paul reached Antioch in Setting out with the Scriptures just Pisidia in midsummer, is based upon his read (see above), he noted God's sovhis arrival, which is reported quite fully, in the chapter before us. Two, some in the wilderness, during the times of say three, unusual expressions are used by the apostle, and these same exprestablished, and David, "a man after God's sions are found elsewhere in Scripture in certain passages of the Old Testament. Believing that the apostle, like God had raised up the promised Savior, his Lord, when preaching in a synagogue was wont to base his remarks nounced, blinded rulers had crucified, er, Pa., passes to preach

Mr. Smith

That the Browns made up a spicific stock has never been denied.
His father was a sturdy Jones, his father was a Brown.

We are led to surmise that the passage of David." He went on to tell that Deut. I, and that from the Prophets was through this risen Savior forgiveness of sin is offered to all who will believe Walker, W. W. Sale, R. P. Wise, George Y. Hundley, S. Wilkins Matthews and W. D. Caldwell. The members of the Maryland Commission are Messrs, Grayson, Olney, Dryden, Broening, Moses, Applegarth and Dennis."

A committee of 50 school teachers called on the County Commissioners of Washington County and requested that $18,000 additional be expended on the county for this purpose work of the canvas and wagon train of Forepaugh & Sells Bros.' Circus at Applegarth and Dennis."

A committee of 50 school teachers millionaire; He told me of the lines through which his blood trickled down, county schools. The present annual expendence of the thing property of the told me of the lines through which his blood trickled down, county schools. The present annual expendence of the told me of the lines through which his blood trickled down, county schools. The present annual expendence of the told me of the lines through which his blood trickled down, county schools. The present annual expendence of the told me of the lines through which his blood trickled down, county schools. The present annual expendence of the told me of the lines through which his blood trickled down, county schools. The present annual expendence of the told me of the lines through which his blood trickled down, county schools. The present annual expendence of the told me of the lines through which his blood trickled down, county schools. The present annual expendence of the told me of the lines through which his blood trickled down, county schools. The present annual expendence of the told me of the lines through which his blood trickled down, county schools. The present annual expendence of the told me of the lines through which his blood trickled down, county schools. The present annual expendence of the told me of the lines through which his blood trickled down, county schools. The present annual expendence of the told me of the lines through which his blood trickled down, county schools. The present annual expendence of the told me of the told me of th falls late in the month of July. Plumptre, Wm. Taylor, et. al. (Bengal, Sunday School Lesson Acts 13:17 with Isa. 1:2; marginal reading of V. 18 with Deut. 1:31; V. 19

The Persons-that is, the little com-

LEADING THOUGHT.—Through believ-John 1:9; 2:12.

Judging One's Self.—John 1:11, 12; became a most zealous laborer for 12:46-48; 1 Cor. 11:31; 1 became a more bably, under Peter's guidance, the writer of the Gospel according to Mark.

The Places which the apostles passed were rugged, often precipitous, and the mountain torrents were often impassable. So that this journey was in all probability filled with "perils" which Paul thought of when, in after years, he wrote 2 Cor. 11:26.

"Behind Perga rose the snow-clad peaks of the Taurus Mountains, which had to be penetrated through narrow passes, where crazy bridges spanned the rushing torrents, and the castles of rob-bers, who watched for passing travelers eral critical dates during 1902. These he divides into three classes, according to importance.

Those of most importance are January 24. February 22, March 10, April 8, May 7, June 6, July 5, August 3, September 2, October 17. November 15 and December deducative programme set forth. (2) All outburst of righteous indignation. (3) to pounce upon, were hidden in positions so inaccessible that even the Roman arms had not been able to exterminate them. The country to the north of the prophets. (3) The divine purpose of love identified. Those of secondary importance are January 9, February 8, March 24, April 22, August 19 and October 31.

Those of least importance areMay 22, June 21, July 20, November 30 and December 29.

The divine purpose of love identified.

Vs. 48, 49.—"They were glad." (1) A permanent emotion described. (2) A reference to the offers of salvation. (3) Acceptance of the gospel indicated.

V. 50.—"The Jews stirred ub." (1) A permanent emotion described. (2) A tain masses, and tracts of desert, where reference to the offers of salvation. (3) Acceptance of the gospel indicated. V. 50.—"The Jews stirred up." (1) A social fact noted. (2) Female reli-

ANTIOCH IN PISIDIA.—This city gionists make trouble. (3) Religious built by Seleucus Nicator, 312-280 B. C. founder of the kingdom of Syria, and As as as a very state of the free feet." (1) A former command capital. He is said to have been the of Christ's literally obeyed. (2) An act greatest founder of cities that ever lived, and to have built nine Seleucias, named from himself, sixteen Antiochs, named The federal supreme court refuses to be mixed up in the Michigan sugar bounty controversy. In 1897 the state locality of the passage we are to consider in to-day's study, Acts 13:13-52, gives us, as in one glance, a view of the Greek kings the Pisidian Antioch was A public meeting of citizens of Philadelphia to indorse the candidacy of Judge Pennypacker for Governor was held in the assembly room of the Witherspoon Building Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. It is intended to organize a citizens' committee to take charge of the Pennypacker boom.

A widow, two sons and three daughters, bounty controversy. In 1897 the state legislature authorized the payment of I cent a pound on beet sugar. There were provisions designed to secure to the farmer a portion of this bounty. For the first two years the legislature appropriated $10,000 for the payment of the saken by friends, antagonized by bitterest enemies; and we also see his common course of procedure, and hear the line of argument by which he was wont to present Jesus of Nazareth as the first was pinety miles norther to the payment of the state legislature authorized the payment of I cent a pound on beet sugar. There were a portion of this bounty. For the first two years the legislature appropriated $10,000 for the payment of the sake of his head believing that he had killed Brickey, the Pisidian Antioch was a town of importance, but afterwards provisions designed to secure to the farmer a portion of this bounty. For the first two years the legislature authorized the payment of I cent a pound on beet sugar. There were a portion of this bounty. For the first two years the legislature authorized the payment of I cent a pound on beet sugar. There were a portion of this bounty. For the first two years the legislature authorized the payment of I cent a pound on beet sugar. There were a postent to danger, a view of the downse of the missionary life of the great Apostle. In it we see how he was exposed to danger, buffered by disease, for a portion of this bounty. For the first two years the legislature authorized the payment of I cent a pound on beet sugar. There were apostle to the form of the state of the provisions designed to secure to the farm of the pound on beet sugar. There were apostle to danger, buffered by disease, for a round that the court did not have ing to observe how the instory of instriction.

A deal has just been closed by which as esugar trust takes the bonds of the of year he visited the various cities. A deal has just been closed by which the sugar trust takes the bonds of the Sagian was Valley beet sugar company of Michigan, at Owosso. The sugar factory will be erected and the trust will be sugar company factory will be erected and the trust will be sugar company factory will be erected and the trust will be sugar company factory will be erected and the trust will be sugar factory will be erected and the trust will be sugar factory will be erected and the trust will be sugar factory will be erected and the trust will be sugar trust and practical truth enforced by the portion assigned as our factory will be erected and the trust will be sugar trust and practical truth enforced by the portion assigned as our factory will be erected and the trust will be sugar to sugar trust and practical truth enforced by the portion assigned as our factory will be erected and the trust will be sugar to sugar trust and practical truth enforced by the portion assigned as our factory will be erected and the trust will be sugar to sugar trust and practical truth enforced by the portion assigned as our factory will be erected and the trust will be sugar to sugar trust and practical truth enforced by the portion assigned as our factory will be erected and the trust will be sugar to sugar trust and practical truth enforced by the portion assigned as our factory will be erected and the trust will be sugar trust and practical truth enforced by the portion assigned as our factory will be expected and the trust will be sugar trust and practical truth enforced by the portion assigned as our factory will be expected and the trust will be sugar trust and practical truth enforced by the portion assigned as our factory will be expected and the trust will be sugar trust and tru been swelled to more than $27,000 and is still growing. Included in contribution was George Westinghouse. Who sent his check for $5000.

The will of Mrs. Elizabeth Veazey Craycroft, who died recently at Philadelphia, was filed for probate in Cecil county. Her sons—Benjamin Bladen and Elebhar or a pardon.

Mayor Vance C. McCormick of Hards and would go on which all growing is sued an appeal to citizens for a pardon.

Misself for probate in Cecil county. Her sons—Benjamin Bladen and Thomas Veazey Craycroft are made the beneficiaries, while the latter is the when opportunity for address was given, one would arise, begin by recounting some precious truths on which all personal deliver not, I judge him not; . he hath one that judgeth him: the word when closing his Temple ministry—"If any man hear my words and believe not, I judge him not; . he hath one that judgeth him: the word when closing his Temple ministry—"If any man hear my words and believe not, I judge him not; . he hath one that judgeth him: the word when closing his Temple ministry—"If any man hear my words and believe not, I judge him not; . he hath one that judgeth him: the word when closing his Temple ministry—"If any man hear my words and believe not, I judge him not; . he hath one that judgeth him: the word when closing his reported that C. W. Post, of Battle Creek, Mich., is promoting at organization which will engage in the number of sull-him the the came the subscription with $100.

Mayor Vance C. McCormick of Harrish was offed for probate in Cecil county. Her sons—Benjamin Bladen and Thomas Veazey Craycroft are made the beneficiaries, while the latter is named as executor. Mrs. Craycroft was a native of Cecil county, being a daughter of the late Gov. Thomas Ward Veazey will be erected and the trust will lake half the stock.

Lesson Text, is that which Jesus had proclaimed when closing his Temple ministry—"If any man hear my words and believe not, I judge him: the word when closing his Temple ministry—"If any man hear my words and believe not, I j The missionaries presumably set out from the synagogue, they sought some

> Because of the heat, and the malarial mounting the platform and sitting and conditions of the seacoast cities, their began a masterly address. It is well populations, as far as possible, hurried for us to look carefully at this, as it Pentacost, and Stephen's defence. Like Dr. Ramsay, with a considerable following, holds that Paul's sickness, alluded to in Gal. 4:13, 14, also hastened their urrection, continued life and saving ermon delivered the Sabbath succeeding ereign choice and loving care for his