United Evangelical Convention.
The Ministerial, Sunday School and K. L. of C. E. Convention, of Somerset District, Pittsburg Conference of the United Evangelical Church, was held at Salisbury, Pa., May 29-30, 1902. The following program was carried out:

MINISTERIAL DEPARTMENT.
A Study of Scripture Teachings Concerning the Holy Spirit—Rev. J. J. Carmany, of Minisilla, O.
The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, Its Nature, Design and Importance—Rev. W. A. Bauman, Alum Bank, Pa.
Our Catechism, Its Place and Importance—N. F. Boyer, Berlin, Pa.
Civic Righteousness and National Life—Rev. M. E. Burger, Salix, Pa.

Is City Evangelization Becoming More Difficult? If so, why?—Rev. F. W. Barlett, Glassport, Pa.
Christian Perfection as Taught by Our Church—Rev. S. M. Cousins, Hyndman, Pa.

Dangers that Threaten Our Christian Sabbath—Rev. C. E. McCauley, Champion, Pa.
Modern Assaults Against the Bible and How to Meet Them—Rev. W. W. Elrick, Ligonier.

The Biblical Idea of Ministerial and Church Financial Support—Rev. W. A. Reisinger, Salisbury, Pa.
The Benefit and Importance of District Camp Meetings—Rev. H. M. Cook, The Second Coming of Christ—Rev. F. W. Ware, Pittsburg, Pa.

The Fallacies and Pernicious Influence of Russellism—Rev. J. Q. A. Curry, South Fork, Pa.

SUNDAY SCHOOL AND K. L. C. E. DEPARTMENT.
Attendants and Mission of the Sunday School—Rev. A. L. Burkett, Berkeley Springs, W. Va.

How to Increase the Efficiency of the Sunday School—M. Van B. Devaux, Mt. Pleasant, Pa.
How to Increase and Maintain the Spirituality of the K. L. C. E.—Rev. A. J. Bird, Greensburg, Pa.

Children's Hour at 2 p. m., Thursday, May 22, conducted by Rev. A. J. Bird.
Much interest was manifested throughout the convention by the large attendance at all the sessions.

The papers showed careful preparation and fairly bristled with points for discussion, which were taken and discussed with, at times, considerable animation and tact.

These conventions are annual meetings in the various districts of the conference for the discussion of such questions as the above.

The good people of Salisbury opened their homes and entertained the visiting ministers royally, for which a most generous vote of thanks was rendered.

The 3d Tuesday of May, 1903, was made the time, and Salix, Cambria Co., Pa., the place of the next convention.

Like a Drowning Man.
"Five years ago a disease the doctors called dyspepsia took such hold of me that I could scarcely go," writes Geo. S. Marsh, well known attorney of Nacoma, Tex. "I took quantities of Peppin and other medicines, but nothing helped me. As a drowning man grabs at a straw, I grabbed at Kodol. I felt an improvement at once, and after a few bottles am sound and well." Kodol is the only preparation which exactly reproduces the natural digestive juices and consequently is the only one which digests any good food and cures any form of stomach trouble. E. H. Miller.

Addison News.
Howard Wright was at Erie, last week, representing Hiawatha Lodge, No. 444, at the Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F. He reports a good time.

Last week Adam Kemp, who when a boy was a resident of Somerset, died at Toluca, Ill. He was a nephew of John Wright, late of Salisbury, and was married to a daughter of Jeremiah Wright, of Addison. A wife and four children survive him.

Next on program will be Decoration day, and everybody is fixing up their lots in the cemetery for the occasion. J. A. Berkey, Esq., will be in Addison on that day to make an address in behalf of the old veterans. As Mr. Berkey is a candidate for Congress, it will be a good time to come and meet the many honest Republicans who will assemble here. But old Addison will be all right for J. A. Berkey, anyway.

A good barber is badly needed here, and a good man in that line would do well here. For particulars write to E. Largent, Addison, Pa.

We congratulate the editor of THE STAR for the improvements he is making on his paper.

What Thin Folks Need is a greater power of digesting and assimilating food. For them Dr. King's New Life-Pill's work wonders. They tone and regulate the digestive organs, gently expel all poisons from the system, enrich the blood, improve appetite, make healthy flesh. Only 25c. at E. H. Miller's drug store.

The Rev. C. F. WELLS, of Villa Ridge, Ill., says: "Your trial bottle of Asthmalene received in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and Asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had over-spoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full-size bottle.

Polk, Pa., June 20th, 1901.

Lilly, Pa., April 7th, 1902.

Dr. Taft Bros., New York.
Gentlemen:—
I received your Asthmalene in good shape and in due time. I must say that it is an elegant medicine and has done all you claim for it. I was not able to walk up hill on account of my breath. After taking your medicine one day I went to chopping timber and have been working right along every day that is fit to work; this is a very bad climate and this has been the worst kind of a spring, hardly two days alike. I am sending an order enclosed in this to be sent at once.
Yours gratefully,
William A. Bradley.

The wholesale drug houses in the United States and Canada unhesitatingly say, "ASTHMALENE is and has been our standard remedy for the cure of Asthma for more than thirty years; we can offer nothing just as good."
Ask your druggist for it. Price, large bottle, $1.50. Delay in using Asthmalene means untold suffering.
For FREE trial bottle, write at once to B. S. MCKEAN, Sole Agent, 75 East 130th St., New York City.
