LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

On the first indication of kidney trouble, stop it by taking Foley's Kidney Cure. E. H. Miller.

Mrs. M. C. Kann, of Garrett, is the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Stevanus and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lowry.

No good health unless the kidneys are sound. Foley's Kidney Cure makes the kidneys right. E. H. Miller. Edward and Annie Haselbarth went to Hooversville, Monday morning, to attend a Sunday school convention. They will visit friends at Somerset on their return.

Chronic bronchial troubles and summer coughs can be quickly relieved and cured by Foley's Honey and Tar. E. H. Miller.

Mrs. Rey. Geo. Letchworth, of Berkley Springs, W. Va, arrived in town last week for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Fogle and the family of her brother, W. S. Easton.

During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking or being overheated. Attend the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure. E. H. Miller.

The Democratic primary held lass Saturday was a very quiet affair. Only 30 votes were polled in this borough. The only candidates for county office were one for Commissioner and one for Auditor. No Legislative or Congressional candidates were on the ticket. P. M. Wahl and John Schramm were elected delegates to the county convention from this borough.

"Give our Decoration Day services a big blow in your paper this week," remarked one of Salisbury's lodge men, the other day. Well, really, we know little about the Decoration Day blow-out, and we hardly think the promoters want any publicity given to the affair. They tried to keep it a secret from the home paper before it occurred, and now that it is all over, to give it a big send-off would cause people to forget the gallant (?) Captain McKinley and his "ooniform."

Married. Sunday evening, June 1st, 1902, Mr. Roscoe Welfley and Miss Alice Newman. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. S. May, at the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Mort. Welfley, and the bride a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Asa B. Newman. They are a popular couple here in Salisbury, and their many triends all extend their best wishes and congratulations. Mr. Welfley has long been a valued and trusty clerk in the employ of Barchus & Livengood, our clothing merchants.

Spring Fever.

Spring Fever.

Spring fever is another name for biliousness. It is more serious that most people think. A torpid liver and inactive bowels mean a poisoned system. If neglected, serious illness may follow such symptoms. Dewlit's Little Early Risers remove all danger by stimulating the liver, opening the bowels and cleansing the system of impurities. Safe pills. Nevergripe. "I have taken Dewlit's Little Early Risers for torpid liver every spring for years," writes R. M. Everly, Moundsville, W. Va., "They do me more good than anything I have ever tried." E. H. Miller.

JOHN C. WELLER.

Somerset county was very hard up for Legislative timber, was twice elected to the Assembly. He spent four years in Harrisburg, but if he ever did any-thing there besides drawing his salary, playing with his watch chain and grin-ning like a wooden fox eating yellow ning like a wooden fox eating yellow jackets, we would like for some one to tell us what it was. His official record was so poor that his township has had it in for him ever since. He has been bobbing up about once a year for township office, and once a year for township office, and once a year the good, sensible Republicans of old Milford have been sitting down on him so hard as to squeeze him all out of shape. But John used to run pretty well in parts of the county where he was not known, and as there are now a great many new-comers in the county, he thinks he sees a chance to get back to the public crih once more.

But we hardly think he can make it, for the reason that people think he had about office enough for a man who has gone squarely back on his party. Even if John is a poor stick, as well as a very crooked one, the Republicans have been good to him. But how has he shown his appreciation? Last fall when the party needed his services, "Johnny," took his little political gun and filled his pockets with "field glasses," then went forth to fight for the Democratic ticket. Now he comes sneaking back and asks the same Republicans he so foully betrayed to send him once more to the Legislature. Let him take himself to gehenna, where he belongs. As we heard a man remark, the other day. this man Weller is a h—l of a feller.

Virulent Cancer Cured.

A ten-inning game was played, which resulted in a victory for Niverton by a score of 11 with the same of the same was played, which resulted in a victory for Niverton by a score of 11 with the same of Startling proof of a wonderful advance in medicine is given by druggist curable cancer. They believed his case hopeless till he used Electric Bitters and applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which treatment completely cured him. Mrs. E. N. Law will give a lecture in the United Evangelical church, Friday evening, June 13th, at 8 p. m. She is a good speaker, and her singing, accompanied by the autoharp, adds much interest to the meeting. An address will be given to the children at 4 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The Democratic primary to the same time this salve exerts its matchless healing power, blood diseases, skin eruptions, ulcers and sores vanish. Bitters, 50c., Salve, 25c. at E. H. Miller's drug store.

Ed. Hoover Should Try a New Dodge.

Ed. Hoover, who last fall traveled all over the county and urged Republicans to vote the Democratic ticket, is now denying his acts to certain people, because he wants to be elected Chairman of the Republican County Committee. His denial, however, won't go, for here is a sworn statement made by D. M. Fike, one of Somerset county's best citizens, and it completely puts a damper on Mr. Hoover's denials. State of Pennsylvania, County of Somer-set, 88:

D. M. Fike, being qualified according to law, says that he is well acquainted with Ed. Hoover.

That on Friday, May 30th, 1902, the said Ed. Hoover in conversation with him on the streets of Meyersdale, said: "That he did vote against Francis J. Kooser, Republican candidate for President Judge at the last general election, and that he would do the same thing again against the same man."

Signed, D. M. Fike.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 2nd of June, 1902.

It is a ridiculous proposition to be

W. B. Cook, J. P.
It is a ridiculous proposition to be asked to support Ed. Hoover for the office he seeks. When Hoover was the Republican nominee for Sheriff, Judge Kooser and all his friends gave their hearty support to Edward; but last fall, when Mr. Hoover's Republican services were needed, he gave his vote, his time and his influence to the Democrats. Do the Republicans of Somerset county want a Democratic ally to act as Chairman of the Republican organization? We think not.

Saved From an Awful Fate.

"Everybody said I had consumption," writes Mrs. A. M. Shields, of Chambers-burg, Pa., "I was so low after six months of severe sickness, caused by Hay Fever and Ashma, that few thought I could get well, but I learned of the marvelous merit of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, used it and was completely cured." For months of severe sickness, caused by Hay Fever and Asthma, that few Mackey, late of Salisbury, but now of stamlin, Kan., that gentleman refers to a roasting one of our county papers recently gave the editor of this paper, and in speaking of it, Rev. Mackey says:
"Mrs. Mackey said at once when she rend the ambiguous thrust, 'Well, Mr. Livengood, as far as I have seen, as always stood for honesty and good morals; to distressed people has been kind, and to the mistakes of weak people, charitable indeed.' And this is the record you have in our house."

ONE of the candidates for the Assembly is one John C. Weller, who prides himself upon being the Scull faction leader in Milford township. He distinguished himself last fall by leading his followers in a bolt against the Republican ticket, and he now thinks that his service to the Democratic ticket entitles him to a Republican nomination for the Legislature; but John is at least entitled to another think. The Republicans of Milford also have a think in this matter, and it will be interesting to notice what they think. Mr. Weller's running mate on the Bolters' slate is Frederick Rowe. We do not know what Mr. Rowe was doing about election time last year, but his engerness for a place on the Bolters' slate indicates his sympathies.—Somerset Standard.

Timmie's Herald says that Harvey M. Berkley has been a faithful worker in the party. Indeed he has—of the Scull party, no difference whether the orders of Timmie were to call off a primary, organize a bolt or make a helpeless race. If Timmie believed there was a chance for his man to go to Congress his choice would be himself or a nearer relative to himself than Mr.

NO BOLTER FOR THEM.

He Wants to Get Back to the Public | What They Think of Bolter Harvey M. Berkley in Fayette County.

Republicans must not forget that of our congressional district. In choosing a congressional candidate, we must therefore reckon with the other counties of the district. The Fayette Republican, published at Connellsville, is one of the leading Republican journals in the district, and it has already given notice that no bolter of Harvey M. Berkley's stripe, even if nominated, could get the support of the Republicans of Fayette county. In speaking of Harvey M. Berkley, the Fayette Republican of May 24th, says:

"If our Somerset county friends want such a Republican (?) sent to Congress, is it any wonder that Fayette county should object to their choice? Fayette county Republicans are true to the party and have no time for bolters and sorcheads from Somerset county. No such person could have his candidacy considered either by Fayette county Republicans or Fayette county Democrats." ing a congressional candidate, we must Republicans of Fayette could be the district nominee, he could not get the support of the Republican organization in Fayette county, where party-wreckers are held in bad repute. Fayette Republicans say they will support J. A. Berkey for Congress if he is nominated, but Harvey M. Berkley, never!

Colter Berkley Scored by One of His Former Pastors.

Lolter Berkley Scored by One of His Former Pastors.

In a recent letter from a former pastor of the Brethren congregation of Meyersdale, the good pastor says:
"So H. M. Berkley wants to go to Congress? And he wants the Dunkard and Brethren votes? These bodies ought to remember that the said Berkley ignored the Dunkard call to the ministry and the Brethren's later call to the deaconate, for fear of injuring his political chances."

Here, fellow citizens, you have the sublime spectacle of a man who professes Christianity, but who apparently professes thristianity, but who apparently professes it for revenue only. He has retused to put on the gospel harness and work for the Lord, but he wants the Dunkards and the Brethren to elect him to a worldly office. What did Jesus say when here on earth? Didn't He say something like this: "He that is ashamed of Me, the same will I be ashamed of his Saviour, then why did he refuse the Dunkard call to the ministry? He said it would injure his political chances, and he refused, thus showing that he esteemed politics higher than his church, his Saviour and the Christian religion. Thus would he sell his clurch and his Saviour for a political office.

And this is not all. He foresook the ins clurch, his saviour and the Christian religion. Thus would he sell his church and his Saviour for a political office.

And this is not all. He foresook the church he was born and reared in. He fled and got himself out after he was wanted to preach the gospel. He flopped over to the Progressive or Brethren church. He bolted, as it were, just as he bolted from the Republican party, last fall. Then what? Why, the renegade and bolter was received with open arms and he was elected to the deaconnate. But did he accept the call? No, not he. He again declined on the ground that it would injure his political chances. He bolted again, and he has since shown that he would rather serve "Timmie" Scull and the devil than to serve the Lord.

Last year Mr. Scull trotted him out for delegate to the Republican State Convention. Did he decline then? Oh, no; he accepted the call, but the Republicans knocked him out by over 600 majority for his opponent. Then what did be do? Why, then he bolted the Republican party, just as he did his church. He canvassed the county, urging true Republicans to bolt their nominations, just as he bolted the will of his church on two occasions.

And now what is he doing? Why, he is out again for office and asks the support of the same loyal Republicans that he last fall urged to betray their party. Will he get it? Yes, we think he will get it where the chicken got the ax. Behold the traitor, Harvey M. Berkley, the man who betrayed his party and ignored his church! Give him the crushing defeat he deserves. He has been weighed in the balance and found wanting.

The Windber Era says: "No fool, no clown, can run this town." Cer-

The Windber Era, the Copperhead sheet, is very sore because J. A. Berkey has a strong lead over Bolter Harvey M. Berkley in that town. The Era whiningly remarks: "It is said that a movement is under way to change the name of Windber to Berkeyville."

When Harvey M. Berkley was a candidate for delegate to the State convention, last year, he was defeated by over six hundred votes; smarting under his defeat he worked and voted against a portion of the Republican ticket. True Republicans will remember him at the primary election for his treachery to the party by administering another defeat.—Somerset Standard.

HAD it not been for the valiant and energetic work done last fall by J. A. Berkey, for the whole Republican ticket, the Democrats and the Scull bolters would have defeated Judge Kooser. Every Republican who voted for Judge Kooser, and ever Republican who is Judge Kooser's friend, owes his vote and his influence to J. A. Berkey for Congress. Don't forget that. If ever a man deserved office at the hands of the Republican party for valuable services rendered, that man is J. A. Berkey, and the time is now.

Charles Weimer, who gave his vote and his influence to the Democrats at the last general election, now has the cheek to expect Republicans to elect him Sheriff. Charles looks rather sneaking when people ask him why he voted with the Democrats, and he feels so guilty that he can't electioneer with very good grace. He didn't have much to say when he was here, except when he was in Hay's saloon slopping down whisky, and then he didn't do anything but just blow about being able to shoe more horses in a day than any other man in Somerset county. But perhaps it was only the whisky that was doing the blowing. There is little doubt that he can drink more whisky than any other blacksmith in Somerset county, but when it comes to shoeing horses, there are others.

According to the Windber Era, the Copperhead sheet, one Daniel Kough, proprietor of the Halfway house of Windber, had hired John E. Gasteiger to obtain a license for him. It further appears that J. A. Berkey was hired for associate counsel, and that after Mr. Kough got his license he refused to "cough" up the fee that had been agreed upon. And now Mr. Akin, the editor of the Era, appears to be achin' to make people believe that Mr. Kough was imposed upon because his attorneys wanted him to "cough" up what he owed them. But the people who read last week's Era just came to the conclusion that Mr. Kough, proprietor of the Halfway house, is only a halfway man and is simply making a halfway gool of himself, while the editor of the Era is going the other half.

The Democratic Meyersdale Commercial is sponsor for Bolter Harvey. M. Berkley. In speaking of him, "Lucifer" says: "All know that he is an astute lawyer and balanced intellectually," Well, it is a good thing that he is balanced intellectually, but as a lawyer, who ever knew him to try a case before a jury? A lawyer? Ye gods! ye gods! A lawyer? Somebody please hold our hat while we laugh. Why, its enough to make one roll on the ground when Harvey M. Berkley's name is mentioned as a lawyer. Old John M. Smith could take the poor side of any case and win against Harvey M. Berkley in any court and before any jury, and that, too, with liquor in him or out of him. Did you ever hear Harvey M. Berkley make a "spooch," If you did, we know you felt charitable toward him and wished that for his own good he would go away back and be seated. Harvey isn't much on making a "spooch," but he is very clever at traveling over the county and urging his friends to vote the Democratic ticket, as he did last fall.

Ir has leaked out through the township Scull ring boss, who lives east of town, that one Stephen R.McKinley has been turned down at Scull headquarters in Somerset. Stephen has been posing as the Scull leader in Salisbury borough during the past few years, because no better man wanted the empty honor. Stephen did all he could for the gang, but that was too little to fill the bill at headquarters. It gave Stephen an awful black eye with the Sculls when he was licked for school director on a fusion ticket, year before last. To redeem himself, he came out as a fusion candidate again at the last borough election, when he got his bumps worse than ever. That was the blow that almost killed "Father Timmie," and it has since been decreed at headquarters that inasmuch as Stephen does not appear to cut much ice, he must be turned down. Virgil was over here last week, held a conference with Irving J. Engle and duly installed him as boss of Salisbury borough. But the Republicans will bow down to neither the new boss nor the old one. Scull ring bosses have outlived their usefulness in Salisbury. The people know how to vote without a boss set over them by the defunct Scull ring of Somerset. Your 50-cent paper isn't them by the defunct Scull ring of Som-erset.

The Windber Era, the Copperhead sheet, is very sore because J. A. Berkey M. Berkley in that town. The Era whiningly remarks: "It is said that a movement is under way to change the name of Windber to Berkeyville."

J. A. Berkey, of Somerset, who seeks the nomination for Congress, deserves recognition by the Republican party. He has always been loyal to party interests and should have the honor of its endorsement. Being a man of ability and experience, we believe he would represent his constituents with integrity and honor.—Windber Journal.

The Copperhead sheet, the Windber Era, last week endorsed Charles Weimer for Sheriff and Daniel Keller for Recorder. In the same paragraph it states its reason for endorsing them—both as weighty reason, isn't it? But after all, is to only natural for Copperhead Democrats to endorse Republican bolters and party-wreckers.

"Liars should have good memories," says the Windber Era. Certainly they should, but the editor of the Era sense to have a very poor one. It is only a few months since he took charge of the Era, and then he announced that his paper would be non-partisan. Already it its the most virulent partisan organ in the county. Did the Era man lie in his salutatory, was he only joking, or is his memory as weak as his paper? It may be a little of all three. Poor old Lucifer Ananias Smith la-
