The hands sometimes get come in contact with all these articles and surroundings. A Word From the Clergy.
A recent issue of the Young Lutheran says:
"We have never known persons, except paupers, who expect undertakers to bury their dead free of charge, but we have known well-to-do people who engaged the services of ministers, not their pastors, and upon whom they had no claims, for funerals, and not even an expression of thanks was given by the friends of the deceased to the minister who devoted valuable time and furnished a conveyance in order to conduct funeral services. The thoughtlessness of those who offer no compensation to the minister who buries their dead is inexorable. They who ask such services from other than their pastors should at least pay an amount sufficient to cover the expense incurred in providing conveyance to the funeral and compensate the officiating minister for the time taken from his regular work."

The above from the Young Lutheran is all very appropriate and in order; but the said journal might also have added that there are many well paid preachers who act as paupers by expecting everything they buy at about half price. Not content with good salaries and liberal donations of food and clothing from their parishioners, merchants and many others on the outside are expected to sell their wares to them at a liberal reduction, and even poor country printers are often expected to send the local paper to ministers, free of charge. The STAR has always believed in "rendering unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's," and unto the preachers the things which we owe to them. But when it comes to making a donation or a reduction from an honest price, we believe in making it to those who are most in need of it, and those most in need of public charity are seldom found in the ministry. Many donations are made to preachers that should go to some of their members who are really in distress, and most congregations have a few of that class. A congregation that will not pay its preacher a salary that will enable him to pay for what his family eats and wears, is not worthy of a preacher; and a preacher who receives a good salary, and then expects about everything he uses for nothing or at a reduced price, as though he were a pauper, is a disgrace to his profession and a vagabond besides.

Leads Them All.
"One Minute Cough Cure beats all other medicines I ever tried for coughs, colds, croup and throat and lung troubles," says D. Scott Curran, of Logan, Pa. One Minute Cough Cure is the only absolutely safe cough remedy which acts immediately. Mothers everywhere testify to the good it has done their little ones. Croup is so sudden in its attacks that the doctor often arrives too late. It yields at once to One Minute Cough Cure. Pleasant to take. Children like it. Sure cure for grip, bronchitis, coughs. E. H. Miller.

Everybody's Free Horse.
Wilkesbarre Record.
It is to be hoped that the people of this city appreciate, though it is feared they do not, the free services rendered by the newspapers not only to institutions of charity and beneficence, to nearly all associations and orders of whatever kind. I say free service. Glance over the columns of this paper almost any morning and center your gaze on the brevity column of the last page.

Last Monday morning, for instance, I happened to notice it particularly. Out of the something over the 200 lines of reading matter in brief form in this column, more than one-half was made up, not of mere news items, but of formal notices of meetings of various associations. "The S. club will meet" at a certain house and at a certain hour. "All members of Blank Lodge, K. K. of M. Q." for instance, are requested to meet" etc. "to consider matters of importance." Of this and of such was half of this column of briefs made up.

And so it has gone for these years until it has degenerated into a habit—a habit of the people to ask free notices and to be surprised if they do not get them, and a habit of the paper to accept them. In hardly any other city would the newspapers deal out such a vast amount of free courtesies. Let us suppose that not one-half, but one quarter, or, say, 50 lines, of such notices were inserted in this paper each day. In a week that would make 300 free lines, and in 52 weeks, by a simple process of arithmetic, we should have rolled up something over 15,000 lines of free notices which, if paid for at 10 cents a line, as most of them ought to be, would have netted the office no less a sum than $1,500.

Ten Years in Bed.
R. A. Gray, I. P., Oakville, Ind., writes: "For ten years I was confined to my bed with disease of my kidneys. It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. I consulted the very best medical skill available, but could get no relief until Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me. It has been a Godsend to me." E. H. Miller.

We are still waiting for the Somerset Herald and the Meyersdale Commercial to signify whether they want those affidavits as to the attempted bribery in the late election of a county superintendent. We are of the opinion that the question was too warm a one for them. Facts, not bluffs, are what count.—Meyersdale Republican.

Group of Girls Carrying Weight Baskets Full of Grapes to the Winery to be Crushed and Made into Wine.

The Speer Wine Company, Passaic N. J.

have their vineyards stocked of the same grape, the only vineyard of the kind in this country, the vines were imported and planted here over forty years ago. The Speer Port wine and Burgundy are now regarded the finest in the world, their rich, full body and high character is unexcelled. Invalids, weakly persons, especially females, and the aged are made strong and vigorous by its use, as a medicinal wine it has no equal; as a family wine it has no superior. First class physicians all over the country, here and in Europe, who have tried them recommend them as the best.

A close study by physicians on the effect of different brands of wines on the system convinces them of the superiority of the Speer Passaic wines for their patients.

D. DODGE TOMLINSON'S
Celebrated H. H. H. Medicine is not a mere perfumed lubricating oil, the application of which serves only to amuse and occupy the patient, but is in reality a scientific combination of powerful chemicals and potent drugs, which have the marvelous property of going straight to the seat of the pain, where they act upon the lymphatics in such a manner, that the cause of the pain is absorbed and removed. It does not enter an abnormal swelling, to sprains of the joints or strains of the muscles or tendons, to rheumatism, lumbago, neuralgia, sciatica, to toothache or headache, all of these are quickly relieved by the magic effect of H. H. H. To equal it in the rapidity or certainty of its action. Often a single thorough application causes the pain and discomfort to vanish, as if by magic.

The H. H. H. is used only externally. It is put up in a 25 cent size and also larger bottles.

The signature and portrait of the inventor, Dr. D. Dodge Tomlinson, 400 North Third St., Philadelphia, Pa. is printed on the wrapper around each bottle. Sold by druggists. A slightly smaller sample vial will be delivered by U. S. Mail on receipt of 25 cents in stamps.
