A Monster Rattler. Perhaps the largest rattlesnake ever killed in this county, and, in fact, the largest one ever known in this section, was killed on Meadow Mountain, near the lumber camp of Kimmell Bros., last Friday, by J. H. Wilt and B. H. Bittinger, employees of Kimmell Bros. The snake measured 10 feet 8 1/2 inches and had 36 rattles and a button, indicating that it was about 40 years old. The hide and rattles are on exhibition at the camp, and the truth of the story is vouched for by two reputable gentlemen whose veracity cannot be questioned.—Oakland Journal.

A Real Friend. "I suffered from dyspepsia and indigestion for fifteen years," says W. T. Sturdevant, of Merry Oaks, N. C. "After I had tried many doctors and medicines to no avail one of my friends persuaded me to try Kodol. It gave me immediate relief. I can eat almost anything I want now and my digestion is good. I cheerfully recommend Kodol." Don't try to cure stomach trouble by dieting. That only further weakens the system. You need wholesome, strengthening food. Kodol enables you to assimilate what you eat by digesting it without the stomach's aid. E. H. Miller.

The editor of one of our exchanges is also somewhat of a farmer and in a recent editorial has this to say: "The newspaper is an editor's farm. The reading space he sells to subscribers at so much per year. The advertising is cash rent space to merchants who cultivate it to their own liking. If he were to grant a 'potato patch' free to every one who is in need of one he would soon have no land left for himself, and the charitable institutions whose members are seldom found on a subscription list, would, sooner or later, be compelled to appreciate the fact that an editor's 'God bless you' does not pass current as a circulating medium on Saturday evening when the hands of the office must be paid. Let us assure 'charitably' inclined citizens that it is bad taste to be continually asking for 'potato patches' from a newspaper which they do not patronize themselves and which they have to borrow or steal to find out whether their request has been complied with. The conclusion we wish to arrive at and the impression we wish to make is that a newspaper is a real, live business investment—a stiff proposition—which could not keep its head above water for twenty-four hours on faith and love, nor for a minute satisfy its hands on pay day with the glorious promise of a happy hereafter."

Trial bottle sent ABSOLUTELY FREE. Write your name and address plainly. There is nothing like ASTHMALENE. IT CURES when all else fails.

The Rev. C. F. WELLS, of Villa Ridge, Ill., says: "Your trial bottle of Asthmalene received in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and Asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had over-spoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full-size bottle.

The Only Genuine Bears This "SWALLOW."

Polk, Pa., June 20th, 1901.

Dr. Taft Bros., New York. Gentlemen—Your medicine has helped me very much, it has cured me of the Asthma. I am very thankful that I saw your advertisement. I tried every kind of Asthma medicine I could think of and could get no relief until I tried Dr. Taft's Asthmalene and it helped me directly. Yours truly, Mrs. Mary Adams.

Dr. Taft Bros., New York. Enclosed find money for a large bottle of Asthmalene. Please send immediately to, N. H. Barnes, No. 9 Church St.

Lilly, Pa., April 7th, 1902.

Dr. Taft Bros., New York. Gentlemen—I received your Asthmalene in good shape and in due time. I must say that it is an elegant medicine and has done all you claim for it. I was not able to walk up hill on account of my breath. After taking your medicine one day I went to chopping timber and have been working right along every day that I fit to work; this is a very bad climate and this has been the worst kind of a spring, hardly two days alike. I am sending an order enclosed in this to be sent at once. Yours gratefully, William A. Bradley.

Ask your druggist for it. Delay in using Asthmalene means untold suffering. For FREE trial bottle, write at once to B. S. McKEAN, Sole Agent, 75 East 136th St., New York City.
