"Disinfectine" THE MODERN MEDICATED SOAP

The Most Wonderful Product of Modern Science

Prevents Contagion

For Toilet, Bath and Shampoo

It is Healing, Softening and Antiseptic

MANY DISEASES are caused by microbes and bacilli which lurk everywhere; in paper money, books, paper, carpets, rugs, clothing, on walls, windows, car seats, in toilet rooms, and even in the air we breathe. The hands sometimes or other, come in contact with all these articles and surroundings. THE SKIN ABSORBS. The hands are liable to carry the germs with articles of food or otherwise, to the mouth, where the germs are absorbed by the lymphatics and blood vessels, and in this way spread the poisonous germs through the whole system.

WHETHER EXPOSED TO CONTAGION OR NOT, people should always use "Disinfectine" Soap. Teach the children in schools and households to wash their hands with "Disinfectine" Soap, especially BEFORE MEALS. It is endorsed by the Medical profession everywhere. A public benefactor and scientific preparation worth ten times its price. There is only one "Disinfectine" Soap; all similar brands are imitations. Popular price, 10c. At druggists and reliable grocers. 10c. the cake by mail. Satisfaction guaranteed.

STANDARD Rotary Shuttle Sewing Machine

A company of surveyors were surveying on top the high peak of the Alleghenies, in this county, one day last week, and came across what proved to be solid ice. Upon inquiring of the natives of that section, they were told that the ice could be found there at the warmest season of the year, and the inhabitants used the ice at all times, and there was no scarcity of it.

At another point in the pines near Swallow Falls, ice has been found in the month of July, and a sham battle among the natives with snow balls on July 4th has been known in former years.—Oakland Journal.

Interesting to Asthma Sufferer.

Daniel Bante, of Otterville, Iowa, writes, "I have had asthma for three or four years and have tried about all the cough and asthma cures in the market and have received treatment from physicians in New York and other cities, but got very little benefit until I tried Foley's Honey and Tar which gave me immediate relief and I will never be without it in my house. I sincerely recommend it to all." E. H. Miller.

A Wise Merchant.

A merchant over at Rolla states that his advertising last year cost him 45 cents for every $100 worth of goods sold. He uses a half page for his business announcements each week and says that as long as the people read newspapers he will advertise. There's a man possessed of a good head. Just as soon as merchants begin to look upon advertising as a branch of their business which requires as much care as any other part of it, then will advertising commence to pay. Honesty, force, originality and persistency in advertising make it a paying venture.—Bottineau (N. D.) Courant.

The Baseball Season.

Now the time is come when the heart of the member of the tribe of Rooters swelleth with gladness:

When the voice of the umpire is heard in the land, and the bleacherite disporteth himself in glee;

For they that play baseball will gird up their loins and gather upon the skinned diamond.

Yes, the pitcher shall stand in his box and twist himself even as a youth that hath surrounded many sad green apples.

And he will hurl the ball even through the centre of the afternoon.

So that it goeth upon a line like unto the outer boundary of a Roman nose, and the batter smiteth fiercely at the resistless air.

And the catcher shall put upon himself strange garments and a mask.

And shall grunt mightily when the ball seeketh a resting place in his vest.

Sound upon the hewgag, and beat upon the tomtom!

Let us tell the boss that our grandmother hath died or that we must attend the vestry meeting;

And let us take the afternoon off and find places upon the seats that bleach.

Where the sun cometh down at 40 miles a minutes and the heat is even as that which the furnace man promiseth when the cold wave is upon us;

(But which doth not arrive at that date, alas.)

(The said Alas! referreth unto the heat and not unto the cold wave.)

Peradventure, if we have the price let us take the fair maiden even into the grandstand and tell her how the game is conducted.

Let us make plain unto her that the pitcher getteth not a cigar for every batter he smiteth with the ball.

And that the man who capereth about and the coaching line meaneth not all that he saith;

And the man who runneth about the bases is not foolish for running about with speed that he may get back unto the place from which he starteth.

Verily, it is up to us to argue unto her that she should not cheer the man on the wrong team.

Because that he looketh cute in his uniform.

And it behooveth us to assure her that we are not crazy when we rise suddenly and suggest that they kill the umpire;

Or tell the fielder to go back and seat himself;

Or say unto the man between second and third:

Run, thou lobster! Run, thou ice wagon! Thinkest thou this is a morgue and that thou art the chief exhibit?

Yea, we must explain unto her that this is but the jocular chat of the game.

So let us rejoice and be glad that the foul tip and the daisy cutter and the hot liner are once more with us;

That the umpire is again to be mobbed

And that the pilfering of bases is to be resumed.

For the magnates need the money.

And we need the excitement.

Therefore, let us shout with a great shouting:

"Play ball!"

—Josh Wink, in Baltimore American.

Ten Years in Bad.

R. A. Gray, J. P. Oakville, Ind., writes:

"For ten years I was confined to my bed with disease of my kidneys. It was so severe that I could not move part of the time. I consulted the very best medical skill available, but could get no relief until Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me. It has been a god-send to me." E. H. Miller.

Scene in the Valley de Mendiz, Portugal.

The Speer Wine Company, Passaic N. J.

have their vineyards stocked of the same grape, the only vineyard of the kind in this country, the vines were imported and planted here over forty years ago. The Speer Port wine and Burgundy are now regarded the finest in the world, their rich, full body and high character is unexcelled.

Invalids, weakly persons, especially females, and the aged are made strong and vigorous by its use, as a medicinal wine it has no equal: as a family wine it has no superior. First class physicians all over the country, here and in Europe, who have tried them recommend them as the best.

A close study by physicians on the effect of different brands of wines on the system convinces them of the superiority of the Speer Passaic wines for their patients.

Sold by Druggists and Grocers.

D. DODGE TOMLINSON'S

Celebrated H. H. H. Medicine is not a mere perfumed lubricating oil, the application of which serves only to amuse and occupy the patient, but is in reality a scientific combination of powerful chemicals and potent drugs, which have the marvelous property of going straight to the seat of the pain, where they act upon the lymphatics in such a manner, that the cause of the pain is absorbed and removed. It does not matter much whether the pain be due to an abnormal swelling, to sprains of the joints or strains of the muscles or tendons, to rheumatism, lumbago, neuralgia, sciatica, to toothache or headache, all of these are quickly relieved by the magic effect of H. H. H. No other medicine or liniment seems to equal it in the rapidity or certainty of its action. Often a single thorough application causes the pain and discomfort to vanish, as if by magic.

The H. H. H. is used only externally. It is put up in a 25 cent size and also larger bottles.

The signature and portrait of the inventor, Dr. D. Dodge Tomlinson, 400 North Third St., Philadelphia, Pa., printed on the wrapper around each bottle. Sold by druggists. A slightly smaller sample vial will be delivered by U. S. Mail on receipt of 25 cents in stamps.
