Dr. Folk, in a work on "Criminal France," says: "Alcoholism is one of the most patent causes of race degeneration. Crime, which is the most powerful factor of alcoholism, never leaves the family or individual their primitive integrity."

In the seventeen largest towns of Scotland during the first three years of the Forbes MacKenzie act, closing the salons on the Sabbath, there was a decrease in the cases of crime, combined with drunkenness, to the extent of 29,305.
