A Weak Stomach

Indigestion is often caused by over-eating. An eminent authority says the harm done thus exceeds that from the excessive use of alcohol. Eat all the good food you want but don't overload the stomach. A weak stomach may refuse to digest what you eat.
Then you need a good digestant like Kodol, which digests your food without the stomach's aid. This rest and the wholesome tonics Kodol contains soon restore health. Dieting unnecessary.
Kodol quickly relieves the feeling of fullness and bloating from which some people suffer after meals.
Absolutely cures indigestion.

How It Works.
An item credited to "exchange" is going the rounds, as follows:
—There never was a paper in any locality that gave all the news. It is often that some persons come and go that the editor does not see. It happens that a family is missed several times. They get the impression that the paper does not care to mention them or has a spite against them. It is a mistake. The paper has no ill feeling, nor spite, nor enmity against anybody. Most people take the local paper. Don't be afraid to give the editor news of interest. Perhaps you think the paper shows partiality; but try and see if we don't treat you well if given a chance.

Not well written, but the writer meant well—even toward people who otherwise "do not believe in" advertising.

Only a few weeks ago a citizen who once told the Journal that "advertising is no good," complained that a trip he had just made to a point in New York was not mentioned, while that of "a young lady to Cumberland was exploited in six full lines."

The moral seems to be—advertising is worthless when it costs something, and worth something when it costs nothing.—Frostburg Journal.

New Postage Stamps.

A new set of designs for the United States postage stamps of the series of 1902 is being prepared at the bureau of engraving and printing in Washington. A new stamp will be added with a value of 13 cents to facilitate the foreign register letter business. In the new series the stamps will have an arch over the picture, with the words, "United States of America" and will supplant "United States postage." The word postage will appear at the bottom before the denomination value of the respective stamps.

A picture of Grant will be printed upon the 4-cent stamps instead of that of Lincoln, which will be given the 5-cent stamp, upon which the likeness of Grant now appears. Martha Washington will appear upon the 8-cent stamps instead of Sherman, while the new 18-cent stamp will bear a likeness of Benjamin Harrison. The $1 black stamp will have the head of Farragut instead of Commodore Perry, as at present.
The remaining denominations will remain unchanged. The special delivery stamp will carry representation of a messenger mounted upon a bicycle, and will be printed in red, instead of a messenger running. The new McKinley postal cards are now on sale.

Lingering Summer Colds.

Don't let a cold run at this season.
Summer colds are the hardest kind to cure and if neglected may linger along for months. A long siege like this will pull down the strongest constitution.

the attack at once. Safe, sure, acts at once. Cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. The children like it. E. H. Miller.

Why He Couldn't be a Juror.

Lippincott's for July.
A New Hampshire Judge has in his possession the following letter, sent to him by an old farmer who had been drawn as a juror for a certain term of court:

"Dear Judge: I got your letter tellin me to come to manchester an do dooty on the jury, and I rite you these fue lines to let you know that you'll have to git some one else, for it ain't so that I kin leave home now. I got to do some butcher-in' an' sort over a lot of apples just about time jury will be settin' in your Court. Si Jackman of this town says that he would as soon as not go for he ain't nothin else to do jess now, so you better send fer him. I hate the worst way not to oblige you, but I ain't so I kin at present. Anyhow I ain't much on the law, never havin' been a jooryman 'ceptin' when old Bud stiles got killed by the cars some years ago when I was one that set on the bobby with the koroner. So you better send for Si Jackman, for he has got some kin in manchester he wants to visit ennyhow, an he'd be willin to fer his car fare there an' back. Anceer back if you want Si."

THE GROWLER.

Say, grumpy, ever stop 't think,
When things is lookin' blue, That 'tain't th' whole big world that's changed,
But only puny you?
Sometimes you get a foolish tip From out in Pipedreamland, That all the world's been conjured up,
Been ocean-washed, breeze-fanned, For centuries and centuries, New skies of gray and blue—That all was got up specially To annoy you.
But 'twasn't—no such foolish thing; Creation's mighty plan Don't tigger much on anything As small as just one man.

An' specially th' world don't fret To know just how you feel Or try 't cheer or chirk ye up When run down at th' heel.
Here's somethin' 'at ye've got 't learn—I've alwy found it true;
If anything needs fixin', 'tain't Th' great big world; it's you!

Born to Conquer.

Some men seem born to conquest.
Wherever they are, they dominate and command the situation. These natural victors have great self-confidence; they know that they are able to overcome obstacles, that achievement is their birthright. They go through life, taking it for granted that they shall control their surroundings; they are convinced that there is but one power in the universe, and that they are a part of that power. They act as if they had their trolley pole upon the great trolley wire of infinite power, and that they are equal to any task, no matter how great. They have grasped the truth that there is no limit to the universal strength, and that their power of achievement is bounded only by the limit of their confidence.

Such people are optimistic; they never doubt or hesitate; they have no anxiety about the morrow; they do not worry, and are not overanxious; they feel that they can do the things they undertake, and do them well.
They are the people who accomplish the great things of the world; the giants, who turn neither to the right nor the left; who do not go over ob-

Take Care of the Stomach.

The man or woman whose digestion is perfect and whose stomach performs its every function is never sick. Kodol cleanses, purifies and sweetens the stomach and cures positively and permanently all stomach troubles, indigestion and dyspepsia. It is the wonderful reconstructive tonic that is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by conveying to their bodies all of the nourishment in the food they eat. Rev. J. H. Halladay, of Halladay, Miss., writes: "Kodol has cured me. I consider it the best remedy I ever used for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. I was given up by physicians. Kodol saved my life. Take it after meals. E.

Hanna's Heavenly Hash.

The corned beef hash which was the feature of breakfast given at Senator Hanna's home in Washington to President Roosevelt and other dignitaries was greatly relished by the guests, and has become famous. The recipe for preparing it is as follows: Equal parts of boiled prime corned beef and potatoes are cut into tiny cubes. A small onion is minced to add flavor, and the bottoms of the dishes are rubbed with a head of garlic. Another garlic head is wrapped in a piece of fat and thorwn into the center of the mass. The whole is then mixed thoroughly and nicely browned in a big skillet or frying pan.
During the operation disks of Bermuda onions cut so that each round shows every ring of the onion are thrown into a deep dish of pure lard and browned delicately. When these disks are crisp they are used to garnish the edge of the platter, and the hash is served garnished with parsley or herbs and a squeeze of a lemon.

There is lobster in Newburg, which some people think is great;
And terrapin's a dainty for the cultured eater's plate;
There are many pleasant dishes for the man who has the cash, But there's nothing that quite equals Hanna's famous corn beef hash.

We have heard of old Lucullus, who was famous in his day For the spreads he gave the Romans—they were wonderful, they say!
But the daintiest dish never gave his grateful guests to share, For he didn't have the Hannah hash upon his bill of fare.

The prince with pampered palate loves his bottle and his bird; By the frog that's placed before him the gay Frenchman's heart is stirred; The German likes his wienerwurst, but all these things are trash When compared with that concoction known as Hanna's heavenly hash.

Oh, the hash served at those breakfasts would have pleased the gods, they say, Who on lofty old Olympus used to while the time away;
The heavenly hash, the Hannah hash, the hash beyond compare—Who knows? Perhaps 'twill yet be on the White House bill of fare.
