LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

The Lutheran people of our town are building a large addition to their Sunday school room.

Avoid serious results of kidney or bladder disorder by taking Foley's Kidney Cure. E. H. Miller. 9-25

Support the county weeklies, and in order to keep the editors under obligation to you instead of under obligation to the bankers, pay your subscription in advance.—Bryan's Commoner.

The old man looks back and thinks of the past. The young man looks up and thinks of the future. The rubberneck looks everywhere and thinks of nothing.—Raftsmen's Journal.

"I had a running sore on my leg for seven years," writes Mrs. Jas. Forest, of Chippewa Falls, Wis., "and spent hundreds of dollars in trying to get it healed. Two boxes of Banner Salve entirely cured it." No other salve so healing. E. H. Miller. 9-25

The Marriage of Mr. Clarence Loechel and Miss Olive Gnagey took place at the residence of Mr. and S. C. Loechel, yesterday evening, as per previous announcement. Time is too short for a proper write-up of it in this issue of THE STAR, but we will do it justice next week.

You mustn't think it strange of "Scottie" Easton if you see him sporting around town with his hair parted in the middle and trying to put on airs. He's the proud "dad" of a new boy that arrived at his house last week, and "Scottie" intends to educate him either for a preacher or a doctor.

WANTED 5 YOUNG MEN from Somerset County at once to prepare for Positions in the Government Service—Railway Mail Clerks, Letter Carriers, Custom House and Departmental Clerks, etc. Apply to Inter-state Corres. Inst., Cedar Rapids, Ia. 10-1

An old lady who had several unmarried daughters fed them largely on a fish diet, because, as she ingeniously observed, "fish is rich in phosphorus, and phosphorus is useful in making matches." Somebody should start a fish market in Salisbury at once, just to give the old maids a chance.

Burgess E. L. Milliron, of Rockwood, was renewing acquaintances with his many friends in Salisbury, last Saturday evening. The people here are always glad to see Ezra, for he carries sunshine with him wherever he goes. All agree on this except a certain very affectionate Rockwood parson.

Whenever you hear a man finding fault with his local paper, you will be safe in betting ten to one that he hasn't an "ad" in it, five to one that he never gives it a job of printing to do, three to one that he doesn't take the paper, two to one that if he is a subscriber he is a delinquent, even up to that he never does anything to assist the editor, and forty to one that he is most eager to see the paper when it comes out.—Ex.

As a rule a man will feel well satisfied if he can hobble around on crutches two or three weeks after spraining his ankle, and it is usually two or three months before he has fully recovered. This is an unnecessary loss of time, for in many cases in which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has been promptly and freely applied, a complete cure has been effected in less than one week's time, and in some cases within three days. For sale by E. H. Miller. 9-25

See the new advertisements in this issue, and when you want to buy anything, don't forget that the liberal and progressive people who advertise always give the greatest values for your money. Non-advertising firms are usually on the hog and fit only to do business out in the back woods about 40 miles from nowhere. A fossil is a good thing in its place, but its place is not in business. There are a few exceptions to all rules, but the few in this rule is a very small few.

Thursday afternoon a colored tramp applied to the kitchen door of E. D. Miller's residence for a "hand-out." Mrs. Miller closed the door, and the fellow took a coat belonging to her son, David B., which was hanging on a porch chair, and disappeared. In the coat pocket was David's return pass to Philadelphia. The coon and the coat were missing at last accounts.—Rockwood Gazette.

Some time ago a man named Damm and another named Wagner had a fight in Cumberland and the Cumberland newspapers wrote it up as "the Damm-Wagner scrap." We have lots of Wagners here in Salisbury, but no Damm, and consequently never have any Damm-Wagner scraps; but the other day we heard a man say that he never saw a real good fight in Salisbury, but lots of dirty, —n scraps.

Mr. Chas. H. Fisher, the well known stationer of Somerset, has our thanks for a copy of Schrock & Staniford's new pocket map of Somerset county. This new map of Somerset county contains all the railroads, county roads, towns, villages, postoffices, streams, mountain ranges, etc., in the county, and is a very valuable work of reference to possess. It will be sent to any address for 50 cents in postage stamps, by Mr. Fisher.

C. Desquiron, a native Cuban, passed through Rockwood on his way to the naval academy at Annapolis, Md., after a visit of three months with his friend, Charles J. Harrison, Jr., of Somerset. Mr. Desquiron is a resident of Santiago. Young Mr. Harrison, who is a son of Captain Harrison, the well known capitalist, was a student at the academy last year, but does not anticipate going back there for a time at least.—Rockwood Gazette.

Mr. D. H. Daugherty, well known throughout Mercer and Sumner counties, W. Va., most likely owes his life to the kindness of a neighbor. He was almost hopelessly afflicted with diarrhoea; was attended by two physicians who gave him little, if any, relief, when a neighbor learning of his serious condition, brought him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured him in less than twenty-four hours. For sale by E. H. Miller. 9-25

Mr. William Statler, of Buckstown, Pa., arrived here last night for a few days' business pertaining to his real estate. Mr. Statler owns a half section about four miles northeast of this place and various other tracts in this state and in Kansas. He is 78 years of age and has made the trip alone, and still attends to his business affairs quite fluently. He speaks highly of the development and flourishing condition of old Somerset county, and is more than well pleased with the progress Nebraska has made since his last visit here, which was twenty years ago.—Carleton (Neb.) Leader.

The jury in the case of Commonwealth versus Philip Rhoads charged with the killing of Robert Maurer returned a verdict of "guilty of voluntary manslaughter and that the Court be as lenient as possible in passing sentence." The verdict was announced last Thursday shortly before noon, after the jury had been out twenty-five hours. Counsel for Rhoads asked that the jury be polled, after which a motion was filed asking for an arrest of judgment and that a new trial be granted. This motion will be disposed of at the next session of Argument court.—Somerset Democrat.

The Queen City Courier tells of a man in West Virginia who is the father of 23 children. The father, A. H. Dolly, was married three times. Wife No. 2 was the mother of 13 children, and following are their names: Vernie, Ralph, Friday Monday, Sunday, Roxie, Sylvie, Flossie, Tuesday, Wednesday, Gertie, Thursday, and the youngest, which has not yet been named, will likely be called Saturday. That's nothing, however, as Reuben Folk, who died in West Salisbury a few years ago, was only twice married and was the father of 25 children. And he didn't give a single one of them a fool name, such as "Daddy" Dolly and his "Polly" did in their folly.

It is rumored that quite a lot of men will be discharged at some of the mines in this vicinity in the near future. If this is correct, we hope none of the many good, steady and honest class of miners will be put off. However, there are some miners in this vicinity that the community would be well rid of. We refer to those who are neither true to their own fellow craftsmen nor to anyone else. We could name some fellows in this vicinity who are ingrates to their friends and benefactors and a drawback to their fellow workmen. Some of them whom THE STAR has more than once aided and befriended have recently shown their dirty principle by trying to beat us out of money they owe on newspaper subscription.

Beware of the Knife.

No profession has advanced more rapidly than surgery, but it should not be used except where absolutely necessary. In cases of piles for example, it is seldom needed. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures quickly and permanently. Unequaled for cuts, burns, bruises, wounds, skin diseases. Accept no counterfeits. "I was so troubled with bleeding piles that I lost much blood and strength," says J. C. Phillips, Paris, Ill. "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in a short time." Soothes and heals. E. H. Miller.

The Baltimore & Ohio is now having delivered and is using a new and modern style of coach made by the Harlaw-Hollingsworth Company. Fifty of these coaches have been ordered and 25 are now being delivered. They are said to be among the handsomest day coaches constructed, with attractive interior trimmings. The wood work is of light oak, with the ceiling of the car and side panels painted a light green. The mode of ventilation is a departure in that the air is admitted from the sides, but by way of the roof, through the registers placed about four to six feet apart in the roof, which prevents the dust and cinders from entering the car, as heretofore. Each car is splendidly equipped with modern conveniences.—Connellsville Courier.

The streets were thronged Monday and Tuesday with people from all parts of the county called to Somerset to attend court, a majority of them as witnesses, says the Somerset Herald. The atmosphere of the court room was so hot Monday that only those who were obliged to remain in the court room did so, the rest loitering under the awnings of business houses or under the trees in the court yard. Many of those called to court on legal business have been unable to secure accommodations at hotels, but the overflow is being accommodated at boarding houses. There is a marked contrast between the crowd present this week and the crowd attending court in years past, when all conversation was carried on in English and Pennsylvania Dutch. Nowadays one can hear almost every civilized language on the streets during court week, a majority of those appearing in criminal court being foreigners.

Our genial old friend John Walker, the gentleman who owns the fine little farm just east of the old Salisbury cemetery, brought an apple to Lichter's store, several days ago, that weighs 15 ounces. We do not know of what variety it is, but it is a most beautiful red apple and was plucked from a graft that Mr. Walker had put on a wild crabapple tree several years ago. Since writing the foregoing item, Mr. Walker called on the editor with two more apples of the same kind, one of which also weighs 15 ounces and measures 14 inches in circumference the largest way. If we remember rightly, he said he took about a bushel of apples from the same tree and that there is very little difference in the size of any of them. Mr. Walker ought to take his prize apples to the Meyersdale fair. He may have those left with us at any time he calls for them, if he wants to take them to the fair. The apples are of the Red Beatinghammer variety.

Captain Wm. M. Schrock, of Somerset, was a welcome caller at THE STAR office last week. Captain Schrock has our thanks for a complimentary copy of a new map of Somerset county which was recently compiled and published by himself and Chas. W. Staniford, of New York. The new map is a beauty and is the only map of Somerset county published for years. It shows all the new townships, towns and post-offices in the county, also the streams, railroads and county roads within our borders. It is a most valuable and attractive work of ready reference, and it is just what many of our people have long been wanting. While here Mr. Schrock appointed the editor of THE STAR agent for the new map in this vicinity, and the town will be canvassed within a few days for orders for the same. The price of the map is $2.00, if mounted ready for hanging, or $1.00 if unmounted. Persons wanting a copy can leave orders at THE STAR office or wait until we call on them, which will be soon.

On Tuesday evening quite an interesting lawsuit was heard before Burgess Livengood. The plaintiffs were the Swartzwelder girls, and "Polly" Blough was defendant. As is usually the case when the beauty and chivalry of Salisbury assemble before the August tribunal of Uncle Jerry's trim shop, the irrepressible John M. Smith, lawyer, poet, statesman, orator and sage of Meyersdale, was there. In this instance he was attorney for Mrs. Blough, whom John says he knew from the time she was a foot long and always knew her to be a perfect lady. The charges against her consisted of assault and battery, chivalrous disturbances of the peace, and the Lord only knows what not. But Lawyer John was equal to the emergency and succeeded in getting his client out of it with the small fine of $1.00 and half of the costs. The whole thing was a ludicrous affair and a big ado about nothing, but it created lots of fun for the spectators. There has for some time been much trouble between the litigants in this case, owing to the fact that Mrs. Blough charges the other women with alienating the affections of her dear "hubby," Jacob Blough, who for some reason not known to us has lately decamped for parts unknown.

Lingering Summer Colds.

Don't let a cold run at this season. Summer colds are the hardest kind to cure and if neglected may linger along for months. A long siege like this will pull down the strongest constitution. One Minute Cough Cure will break up the attack at once. Safe, sure, acts at once. Cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. The children like it. E. H. Miller.

The 28th annual convention of the directors of the poor and charities of Pennsylvania will be held at Somerset, Oct. 14th, 15th and 16th, 1902. An extensive and interesting program has been prepared, which will consist of vocal and instrumental music, devotional exercises, speeches, discussions, etc. The Somerset Orchestra will furnish much of the music, and all in all the session promises to be a very interesting one. The railroads will grant excursion rates, and there is no doubt that many people will be in attendance. On Thursday evening, Oct. 16th, a grand entertainment will be given at the Court house, which will be followed by a reception and light refreshments. The County Home and Hospital will also be visited, where luncheon will be served and timely topics discussed. The sessions will be held in the Court house, and the headquarters of the Association will be at the Highland Inn.

A Boy's Wild Ride For Life.

With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding for life, 18 miles, to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, W. H. Brown, of Leesville, Ind., endured death's agonies from asthma, but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Like marvelous cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and Grip prove its matchless merit for all Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free at E. H. Miller's drug store.

We call the attention of our readers to the bank statements published in this issue of THE STAR. One is a statement of the First National Bank of Salisbury and the other of the First National Bank of Frostburg, Md. The home institution ranks away up among the banking houses of Somerset county, and it affords us pleasure to say that no bank in the country is in the hands of more careful, competent and obliging gentlemen than the First National of Salisbury. The same can also be said of the First National Bank of Frostburg, which ranks second among the banks of Allegany county, Md., for volume of business, deposits, etc. It is a United States depository and has over $100,000 of U. S. money on deposit. It also has a savings department and pays 3 per cent. interest on deposits. The officers in charge are all gentlemen of the highest order and integrity, and as a good safe banking house, the First National of Frostburg has no superior.

A Sad Disappointment.

Ineffective liver medicine is a disappointment, but you don't want to purge, strain and break the glands of the stomach and bowels. DeWitt's Little Early Risers never disappoint. They cleanse the system of all poison and putrid matter and do so gently that one enjoys the pleasant effects. They are a tonic to the liver. Cure biliousness, torpid liver and prevent fever. E. H. Miller.

Our uncle, Mr. Henry Yost, of Garrett county, Md., arrived in Salisbury last Saturday afternoon from the west. He had been visiting old acquaintances in Illinois, Iowa and North Dakota, and upon his return he stopped at THE STAR office to tell us of the pleasant trip he had. Mr. Yost is a thrifty German American citizen and is one of the foremost farmers in the northern part of Garrett county, where he located about 30 years ago. He settled down on one of the roughest farms in his neighborhood, but today that farm is one of the most desirable ones in that locality. The many improvements show that it has been under the management of a good husbandman, and on it Mr. Yost has acquired quite a competency. During the past few years the farm has been divided and is now owned by two of the sons and a son-in-law of the man who has made it what it is, and Mr. Yost is now living at his ease after many years of hard labor. He has well earned a rest, and very sensibly he has decided to have some enjoyment during his declining days. Over a year ago he visited the scenes of his youth in Germany and reported a very enjoyable time there when he returned; but he says he enjoyed his western trip far more. Mr. Yost said to the editor: "Germany is a good country, but give me America every time." He expressed some regret that he did not locate somewhere in the west when he began farming. He said his many old friends in the west treated him so handsomely that he can hardly find words to express his gratitude. "Out west," he said, "is the place for young men who want to farm," and he added that if he had started there he could have done far better than here and with much less labor. Before leaving THE STAR office for his home, he cashed up for another year's subscription for his favorite local paper and also paid for a year's subscription for one of his western friends.

Not Doomed For Life.

"I was treated for three years by good doctors," writes W. A. Greer, McConnellsville, O., "for Piles and Fistula, but, when all failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me in two weeks." Cures Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Corns, Sores, Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Piles or no pay. 25c. at E. H. Miller's drug store.
