Reitz's Cider and Applebutter Factory Now Open.

My Cider and Applebutter Factory in Salisbury is now open for the season of 1902. I have increased the capacity of the boiling department and can give prompt service to all who come. My experience enables me to turn out the very best products, and this year there will be a demand for all the Applebutter that can be made. Do not let any of your apples go to waste, but turn them into money. For best results, bring good, clean apples and use two bushels of good flavored apples, any size, for filling, to every ten bushels of cider apples.

Take particular notice that we will make no cider on Saturdays.

We have your style, GET THE BEST!—The best is always the cheapest. When you get a Hillar-Made Suit you get the best every time. Mr. Geo. Desirable Real Estate For Sale.

Desirable Real Estate For Sale.

The Star is agent for the sale of a very desirable piece of real estate located 3 miles east of the thriving town of Salisbury. Said real estate consists of about 72 acres of land, part of which is in a fair state of cultivation, and part covered with a large amount of timber suitable for mine props and ties. A very thick vein of most excellent limestone, easy of access, is opened on the land, as well as a vein of the finest paving stone to be found anywhere. The famous Findlay Spring, one of the finest pure water springs in all Somerset county, having a volume of water sufficient to supply a town of several thousand inhabitants, is also located on this land, and the spring alone is worth a handsome sum of money. There is also a fine bearing young apple orchard on the place, and a good, new two-story residence and suitable outbuildings.

The place can be bought at a very reasonable price, or will trade same for desirable town property. For terms and further particulars, call on or address The Stark, Elk Lick, Pa. n that portion of said Lands known as the "Upper Piney Run Lumber Camp," near the property of Peter Popp, OFFER FOR SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION all that—

A Very Pretty Wedding.

On Wednesday evening, Sept. 24th, very pretty wedding took place at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Loechel, who reside in Garrett county, Md., about four miles south of Salis-

The contracting parties were Clarence, the eldest son of Mr. Loechel, and Olive Eliza, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas E. Gnagey, late of Grantsville, Md.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of nearly 100 invited guests by the Rev. E. S. Johnston, D. D., pastor of St. John's Lutheran church of Salisbury, Pa. At the appointed hour an orchestra composed of the Knecht brothers, of West Salisbury, and H. G. Wilhelmi and Mort. A. Wagner, of Salisbury, began playing a beautiful wed ding march, and the betrothed couple entered the handsome parlor, beautifully attired, and accompanied by Mr. Max Bowman and Miss Evora Lo who acted as groomsman and brides maid respectively. Both couples made an exceedingly handsome and refined the blow. appearance, and the ceremony was per-formed in the neat and impressive manner for which the aforesaid good parson is noted. The whole house was beautifully decorated with flowers plants and the beautifully tinted autumn leaves for which this locality is noted at this season of the year, and cooks, waiters and the good host and hostess. That all did ample justice to the great spread of good things is a foregone conclusion.

After supper the evening was spent in merry converse and the usual en-joyments indulged in on such occasions, and it was after the midnight hour when all of the guests retired to their homes. The presents were many and elegant, and all went home feeling that they had a good time and that each of the newly wedded couple had drawn a capital prize in the person of the other.

The groom is one of the best young men in all this locality—handsome, ro-boust, industrious, a dutiful son of good habits who will be an ideal husband. The bride—what can we say to do her justice? Handsome? Yes, and lovely, too. She has the beauty of a Cleo-patra, the form of a Diana, and in her handsome countenance is the imprint of all that is pure, lovely, virtuous, steadfast, prudent and discreet, all of which virtures she is known to possess to the fullest degree. To have such a wife for a companion is to be rich beyond the dreams of avarice, no matter whether the couple is in posses-sion of a dellar or a million of them. We are exceedingly proud that the fair bride is our cousin, and we are just as proud of the young man of, her choice. May good fortune, good deeds, peace and happiness attend them all through

There is talk of completing the South Penn railroad on which the Vanderbilt interests a number of years ago spent $20,000,000.
