Whiskey $1.10 PER Gallon.

We claim to be the LOWEST PRICED WHISKEY HOUSE. We really sell whiskey as low as $1.10 per gallon, and mind you, distilled whiskey—not a decoction of chemicals—but of course it's new and under proof.

"CASPER'S STANDARD" 10 Year old whiskey is a liquid joy! It is actually produced by honest Tar Heels in the Mountain Section of North Carolina by the old time process. Every drop is boiled over open furnace wood fires, in old style copper stills, in exactly the same way it was made by our grandfathers a century ago. First rate whiskey is sold at $5 to $6 per gallon, but is not any better than "CASPER'S STANDARD." It is the best produced and most please every customer or we will buy it back with gold—we are incorporated Under the Laws of N. C., with an authorized capital of $100,000.00 and the Peoples National Bank and Piedmont Savings Bank of Winston-Salem, N. C., will tell you our guarantee is good. This old honest, mild and mellow whiskey is worth one dollar per quart, but to more fully introduce "Casper's Standard" we offer sample shipments of this brand at half price, (packed in plain sealed boxes) 5 Quarts $2.95, 10 Quarts $5.00, Express Prepaid Anywhere in U. S. All orders and remittances (in stamps, cash or by check, etc.) as well as requests for confidential price list MUST BE ADDRESSED AS FOLLOWS:

CHARLIE SCHWAB has been cutting such high capers in Europe that his father felt compelled to join his party there. There is no woodshed or rawhide in all Europe equal to the occasion.

With few exceptions, the leaders of mankind come from the ranks of the comparatively poor and from the country. The reason seems to be that only by a struggle, by persistence in effort is adequate development reached.

The unrest of the world is not because of sin, but its unhappiness is. Unrest is the normal condition of life and advancement, but life and advancement is always pleasurable unless the laws governing them have been or are violated.

The Parisian union musicians tried by boisterous conduct to prevent a Chicago woman pianist from playing a selection from Saint Saens, whose works has been boycotted by them. They made two mistakes, they did not understand Chicago women, and they forgot that art and unionism will not mix.

From the photographs of European Kings on their hunting trips we infer that the ordinary procedure is for the "game" to walk quietly into range, a Field Marshal to announce that fact and an orderly to present the loaded weapon to His Majesty. The butchers in our stock yards have more exciting times than this.

The Somerset Democrat last week told its first great truth. Here it is: "The fellows who are so much exercised just now as to who is, or ought to be, the leader of the great Democratic party, would do well to realize that a few privates are needed." But what has become of the great Democratic party? There used to be a great Democratic party, but that day has gone by. The Democratic party of today is a rather insignificant aggregation.

MISS JERDOCT, of Paterson, N. J., was to have been married to Raymond Hopper, of that city. Raymond hopped away on the day set for the ceremony, but the young lady, having ordered the wedding feast, didn't let a little thing like the absence of the groom worry her. The guests gathered as though nothing had happened, and with a straw man in the seat of honor, the feast went on. We congratulate the lady on her good sense and are sure that she will not wait long before she will have a groom who is neither a Hopper, nor a Skipper, nor a straw man, nor a dummy, but an old fashioned stayer.

THOMAS B. REED, one of America's greatest statesmen, died at the Arlington hotel, Washington, D. C., Sunday morning last. He was ill only six days. Mr. Reed was born Oct. 18th, 1839, and for many years was one of the leading figures in the United States Congress, having been speaker of the house a portion of the time. He was a fine parliamentarian and had a reputation for making Congress do business with a rush. He was prominently mentioned as a presidential candidate several times during his brilliant career. He was a resident of Maine, and in politics a staunch Republican.

We are informed that Howard H. Keim, formerly of this place, but now of Ladoga, Ind., recently met with an accident which resulted in a broken wrist and a broken collar bone. The accident was caused, we are informed, by an unmanageable team of horses. We are sorry to learn of the accident, but trust that the big, good-natured fellow will soon be all right again.

A Cold Wave.

The forecast of sudden changes in the weather serves notice that a hoarse voice and a heavy cough may invade the sanctity of health in your own home. Cautious people have a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure always at hand. E. H. Wise, Madison, Ga., writes: "I am indebted to One Minute Cough Cure for my present good health, and probably my life." It cures Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Bronchitis, Pneumonia and all Throat and Lung troubles. One Minute Cough Cure cuts the phlegm, draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes the mucous membranes and strengthens the lungs. E. H. Miller.

How Labor Unions Sometimes Make Mistakes.

The editor of this paper has always been of the opinion that in many cases the laboring element is its own worst enemy. That is the case in many instances where labor unions are led by hot-headed, short-sighted ignoramuses who teach the idea that our government and its free institutions are the enemies of labor. Men of that class are simply anarchists and a stumbling block to all things that have a natural tendency to elevate labor and bring to it the rewards it is entitled to. It is indeed a great pity that there are not more labor leaders of the John Mitchell class. Mitchell is the possessor of a master mind, broad-gauge ideas and good common sense. He has done more for the good of the laboring class than all the other labor leaders combined have done during the last quarter of a century. We are and always have been in favor of labor unions when they are properly conducted, but we have no use for the kind spoken of in last week's Midland Press. We reproduce the following from the said newspaper, which is the official organ of the United Mine Workers in the Georges Creek mining region, and we heartily endorse every word of it:

Over in Pennsylvania a labor union has expelled one of its members for belonging to the Tenth Pennsylvania Volunteers, and down in New Orleans the street car men have "resolved" against membership in the citizen soldiery of their State.

Are the trade-unions to be forever cursed by short-sighted fools, who can see no further than the immediate difficulties, who are not "sufficient for these things?"

Cannot even the most hasty-tempered, unthinking man see that the citizen soldier is one of the highest safe-guards of the people against militarism? Consider a moment, if you please: the State, which is ourselves, has the duty and the power to protect the persons and the property of its people. In furtherance of this attribute of government, there must, at least until human nature is better than now, be some force, concrete, available, to use in case of emergency. In despotisms this is supplied by highly organized police; gendarmes; regular soldiers; and the men thus enlisted, being apart from the people, become as distinct as if from another country. Lacking personal knowledge of the people's needs and feelings, they become but machines, and the easiest and readiest imaginable means of subduing free men anxious to assert their rights.

The citizen soldier is not such. He is one of the stoutest bulwarks of liberty, because tyrants cannot depend upon him except for legitimate purposes. If the labor unions should prevent their members from joining the State troops, they would force the State to organize paid soldiers, and in time of trouble these would repay the short-sighted men who oppose the citizen soldiers a thousand-fold in blood and tears for the lack of judgment.

Opposition to the militia is support to tyranny, and an attempt to force a trades-unionist to do acts against his country's best good is a crime against society.

Bilious Colic Prevented.

Take a double dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as soon as the first indication of the disease appears and a threatened attack may be warded off. Hundreds of people who are subject to attacks of bilious colic use the remedy in this way with perfect success. For sale by E. H. Miller.

A Righteous Strike.

Mules often strike and refuse to work, it is well known; but a strike of men out of sympathy for mules is certainly rare. At Washington, Ind., however, 300 miners struck the other morning because the mine operators did not take proper care of the mules, and set them to work without being properly fed, etc.
