

THE SOMERSET COUNTY STAR

P. L. LIVENGOOD, Editor and Publisher.

Entered at the Postoffice at Elk Lick, Pa. as mail matter of the Second Class.

Subscription Rates.

THE STAR is published every Thursday at Elk Lick, Somerset County, Pa., at the following rates: One year, if paid spot cash in advance, $1.25; if not paid strictly in advance, $1.50. Six months, if paid spot cash in advance, .75; if not paid strictly in advance, .95. Three months, cash in advance, .45. Single copies, 10 cents. To avoid multiplicity of small accounts, all subscriptions for three months or less must be paid in advance. These rates and terms will be rigidly adhered to.

Advertising Rates.

Transient Reading Notices, 5 cents a line each insertion. To regular advertisers, 5 cents a line for first insertion and 3 cents a line for each succeeding insertion. No business notices will be mixed with local news items or editorial matter for less than 10 cents a line for each insertion, except on yearly contracts. Rates for Display Advertisements will be made known on application. Paid Editorial Parts, invariably 10 cents a line. Legal Advertisements at legal rates. Marriages, Birth and Death Notices not exceeding fifteen lines, inserted free. All additional lines, 5 cents each. Cards of Thanks will be published free for patrons of the paper. Non-patrons will be charged 10 cents a line. Resolutions of Respect will be published for 3 cents a line. All advertisements will be run and charged for until ordered discontinued. No advertisement will be taken for less than 25 cents.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

The crowned heads of every nation, the rich men, poor men and misers. All join in paying tribute to DeWitt's Little Early Risers.

H. Williams, San Antonio, Tex., writes: Little Early Riser Pills are the best I ever used in my family. I unhesitatingly recommend them to everybody. They cure Constipation, Bilioussness, Sick Headache, Torpid Liver, Jaundice, Malaria and all other liver troubles. E. H. Miller. 2-1

Gus. Price orders THE STAR sent to his address at Belington, W. Va. The great paper is getting quite a circulation in that state.

Seldom needs a physician. Who? The family that reads the Frederick Almanac and always has Victor Remedies on hand. It

Albert Swauger has been appointed postmaster at Grantsville, Md., vice Thomas H. Bittinger removed. Mr. Swauger is a most excellent young man and will prove to be a good postmaster. He has our congratulations.

Change of climate may check but won't cure Consumption. Victor Lung Syrup, absolutely cures, when consumption is in first stages. Strikes at root of the disease. It

Our thanks are due to Miss Marion D. Buchanan, of Philadelphia. In renewing her subscription to THE STAR she says: "It's weekly visits are always looked forward to with much pleasure. I wish you success and a very happy and prosperous New Year."

The prevention of consumption is entirely a question of commencing the proper treatment in time. Nothing is so well adapted to ward off fatal lung troubles as Foley's Honey and Tar. E. H. Miller. 2-1

Mr. Albert D. Beachy, of Chicago, Ill., in remitting for THE STAR, says: "Remember me kindly to your family and friends. I sincerely hope you may all enjoy a happy and prosperous New Year." Thank you, Mr. Beachy, and may you also continue to prosper and be happy.

Fatal kidney and bladder troubles can always be prevented by the use of Foley's Kidney Cure. Sold by E. H. Miller. 2-1

In squaring his advertising account up to Jan. 1st, 1903, Mr. R. Annan, cashier of the First National Bank of Frostburg, Md., expresses himself as well pleased with the result of his advertising in this paper. He closes by saying: "Keep her going right along in your paper."

The many friends of G. H. Hausan Engineer, L. E. & W. R. R., at present living in Lima, O., will be pleased to know of his recovery from threatened kidney disease. He writes: "I was cured by using Foley's Kidney Cure which I recommend to all, especially trainmen who are usually similarly afflicted." Sold by E. H. Miller. 2-1

A badly afflicted family is that of Wm. Alexander, of West Salisbury. Mr. Alexander and one of his daughters are down with typhoid fever, and Nannie, another of his daughters, died of the aforesaid disease, last Sunday morning. The funeral took place on Tuesday, Rev. H. S. May officiating.

It is said that the question of a new court house in Somerset or an addition to the old one will be presented to the grand jury in February. The creation of two new county offices and the increased business has made the quarters of the court house officials too cramped, and many favor a new building.

Our genial friend John Blanchard, of Boynton, who had been very sick for some time, is again able to be out. John is a veteran of the Civil war, a fact not many people are aware of. He enlisted in the army when he was about 14 years old, and he comes from a family of soldiers, all having a good record.

The peculiar cough which indicates croup, is usually well known to the mothers of croupy children. No time should be lost in the treatment of it, and for this purpose no medicine has received more universal approval than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Do not waste valuable time in experimenting with untried remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended, but give this medicine as directed and all symptoms of croup will quickly disappear. For sale by E. H. Miller. 2-1

Our genial friend M. D. Thomas orders THE STAR sent to his father at Bridgeport, Conn. There are a good many people in this town and vicinity who are sending the paper to distant friends, and there are many more who ought to do so. Your home paper is always appreciated by those who have an interest in your welfare or an interest in this locality.

Mr. Charles F. Sollenberger, an employe of THE STAR office, received a message, last Wednesday, announcing the death of his sister, Mrs. Wm. Shaw, of Philadelphia. Deceased was aged about 27 years. She is survived by a husband and two children, also by her parents, four brothers and four sisters, who reside in Chambersburg, Pa. The remains were interred in Philadelphia, Friday last.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep, which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by E. H. Miller. 2-1

A bear's fur is worth from $20 to $50. To bring this price the animal must be killed between September and March. The deer's skin has small value as a fur. If tanned it will bring from $3 to $5 for a rug. An otter's hide is worth from $10 to $15. A pelt of the unsavory skunk is worth 50 cents to $2, and a rat skin will bring from 5 to 20 cents each. The passing of the beaver hat left the rabbit's fur without value.—Ex.

Ed. Tedrow, who had been braking on the Pennsylvania railroad at Youngwood, Pa., resigned his position on Monday last. Ed. is not in the least afraid of work, and is a good hand at almost anything he goes at, but he says he can't stand it to work day and night and get no sleep. Such is the life of a railroader. Ed. will go to Holsopple, where his brother John now resides, and will likely engage in mining.

Several boys in West Salisbury discovered on Monday evening that James Russell's house was afire. As all of the family were absent from home at the time, the door was promptly broken open and the flames extinguished. Some kindling about the cook stove had taken fire, and when the blaze was discovered a pretty good sized hole was burned in the floor. If the fire would have had a start of five or ten minutes more, the house would have been consumed.

A Missouri editor who is about to pull up and leave for lack of support sarcastically remarks in parting that editors don't need money. "Don't worry about the editor," he says. "He has a charter from the State to act as doorman for the community. He'll get the paper out somehow, and stand up for you when you run for office, and lie about your pigeon-toed daughter's tackey wedding, and blow about your big-footed son's when they get a $4-a-week job, and weep over your shriveled soul when it is released from your grasping body, and smile at your Biddy's second marriage. He'll get along. The Lord only knows how, but the editor will get there somehow."—Kansas City Star.

Committeeman Roscoe Wellley has called a Republican borough caucus to be held in Hay's opera house, Friday evening, Jan. 23d, at 8 o'clock. It is the duty of all true Republicans to be on hand and see that a good ticket is nominated. No other elections are as important to us as our municipal elections. It is the duty of all loyal Republicans to attend the caucuses of their party and then stand by the nominations. Don't stay away and then kick and go heifering around with the Democrats because the candidates don't suit you. Come and try to nominate men that do suit you.

Don't Worry. This is easier said than done, yet it may be of some help to consider the matter. If the cause is something over which you have no control it is obvious that worrying will not help the matter in the least. On the other hand, if within your control you have only to act. When you have a cold and fear an attack of pneumonia, buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and use it judiciously, and all cause for worry as to the outcome will quickly disappear. There is no danger of pneumonia when it is used. For sale by E. H. Miller.

Talking about successful hunters, here is one that should be considered: J. L. Baumgardner, postmaster and merchant at Ogletown, bagged seven wild turkeys the past season and says that he has the first one to kill on Sunday or out of open season. This is what constitutes a true sportsman. Mr. Baumgardner has killed 213 wild turkeys since he lives in the Alleghenies. He has a very fine mounted old gobbler on exhibition at his store, which he shot in the past season.—Somerset Standard.

A Scientific Discovery. Kodol does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even when but slightly disordered or overloaded. Kodol supplies that natural juice of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. Kodol digests what you eat and enables the stomach and digestive organs to transform all food into rich, red blood. E. H. Miller.

As an evidence of the growth of business in the Recorder's office during the past twelve years, the Somerset Herald says it is only necessary to take note of the number of deeds entered of record during that time. A. J. Hileman, Register and Recorder for 1891, 1892 and 1893, entered 3,000 deeds. He was followed by Jacob S. Miller, with 3,110. Next came James M. Cover, with 4,291 to his credit, and then followed John S. Shaffer with 8,787. There is every reason to believe that during the coming three years Recorder of Deeds Welsh will have a larger number of deeds to record than his immediate predecessor, adds the Herald.

Unconscious Form Croup. During a sudden and terrible attack of croup our little girl was unconscious from strangulation, says A. L. Spafford, postmaster, Chester, Mich., and a dose of One Minute Cough Cure was administered and repeated often. It reduced the swelling and inflammation, cut the mucus and shortly the child was resting easy and speedily recovered. It cures Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, and all Throat and Lung troubles. One Minute Cough Cure lingers in the throat and chest and enables the lungs to contribute pure, health-giving oxygen to the blood. E. H. Miller.

You fellows who think on editor hasn't anything to do except sit around and read and write and have a good, easy time generally, are invited to read the following from the Peru, Ind. Chronicle: "Down at Shelbyville a bachelor editor is in a terrible predicament as the result of a reckless proof reader. Having occasion to apologize to his readers for a delay in issuing his paper, he wrote: 'We beg the indulgence of readers for being a day late this week. Our failure to get out on time was the result of the physical demoralization of the editor, caused by sleeping too close to the boarding house window.' The cursed compositor set the last word 'widow,' and the proof reader failed to discover the omission of the letter 'n.' The poor editor's trunk is still at the boarding house, and he hasn't had a change of shirts or socks for five weeks."

Finds Way to Live Long. The startling announcement of a Discovery that will surely lengthen life is made by editor O. H. Downey, of Churubusco, Ind. "I wish to state," he writes, "that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption is the most infallible remedy that I have ever known for Coughs, Colds and Grip. It's invaluable to people with weak lungs. Having this wonderful medicine no one need dread Pneumonia or Consumption. Its relief is instant and cure certain." E. H. Miller guarantees every 50c and $1.00 bottle, and gives trial bottles free.

Professor J. B. Snyder, principal of the Rockwood school, is the hero of the hour in this smallpox-ridden community. Last week THE GAZETTE told how he escaped the quarantine, and how he failed to find a boarding place, owing to his supposed infection. Well, the professor held forth in some sequestered spot in Rockwood on Thursday night, and on Friday morning walked the distance of five miles to his father's farm in Upper Turkeyfoot, where he hailed his people from a distance and warned them of danger in approaching too close. There is a vacant house on the farm which has not been occupied since two years ago, when Mrs. John C. Enos, a sister of the professor, who was residing there with her husband, died of that many-fold more fatal disease, diphtheria. The professor instructed the people to put this house in habitable condition for his occupancy, and there he is waiting until time shall prove his case. His food is brought to within a short distance of the cabin, whither he goes out for it when the bearer has gone.—Rockwood Gazette.

Stop It! A neglected cough or cold may lead to serious bronchial or lung troubles. Don't take chances when Foley's Honey and Tar affords perfect security from serious effects of a cold. E. H. Miller

Foley's Honey and Tar heals lungs and stops the cough.

Last Thursday evening "Bob" Phinice, the resolute but jovial Garrett constable, was in our town on business. He was looking for a man in this vicinity who had committed some violation of the law. We did not learn whether he got his man or not, but presume he did, for "Bob" is an excellent officer and usually does all he undertakes. His traveling companion while here was Mr. N. M. Thomas, a genial and affable salesman for the Keystone Oil and Supply Company, of Salona, Pa. Many of our best firms buy all their oils, mining and quarry supplies from Mr. Thomas. They like the goods he sells and also the man. His trade is increasing in this locality right along, and so are the friends of Mr. Thomas and the firm he represents.

One Hundred Dollars a Box is the value H. A. Tisdale, Summerton, S. C., places on DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. He says: "I had the piles for 20 years. I tried many doctors and medicines, but all failed except DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It cured me." It is a combination of the healing properties of Witch Hazel with antiseptics and emollients; relieves and permanently cures blind, bleeding itching and protruding piles, sores, cuts, bruises, eczema, salt-rheum and all skin diseases. E. H. Miller.

The first and only victim of smallpox during the existing epidemic in Rockwood was Harvey Royal Berkey, who yielded his life to the dread contagion on Tuesday, at about noon, at the home of his brother-in-law, Dr. C. J. Hemminger, on West Market street. It was not known outside the immediate family of Dr. Hemminger that the young man was ill, or even that he was in Rockwood, so far as the Gazette can ascertain, and certainly the board of health had no knowledge of his location or illness until the morning of his death, when Dr. Hemminger notified the health officer. Dr. White, of Connelville, at the request of the health board made Monday evening, arrived Tuesday morning, and he pronounced the case of young Berkey as hemorrhagic smallpox. This is said to be a form of the disease wherein the vesicles and pustules form on the internal organs and the blood vessel become weakened and burst as a consequence, producing death in a vast majority of cases. It is also an extremely rare form of smallpox, and occurs in cases only where the system is weak and the blood impure. Berkey, who was teaching the winter term of the Rhoads school, in Black township, is said to have been ill during the last day he was at the school, which was Wednesday of last week, when he fainted several times. It is a later report that his ailment was the result of taking cold in a vaccine sore, his brother-in-law having inoculated him several weeks previous when the Malsberry case was diagnosed, and the same rumor intimates that his death was not due to smallpox, but rather to vaccination and complications. Be this as it may, the case is surrounded with much that seems inexplicable at this time.—Rockwood Gazette.

Attention, Elk Lick Republicans! A caucus representing the Republican party, will be held at the West Salisbury school house, on Saturday, Jan. 24, 1903, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various offices. Let there be a full turnout. JAMES ROBERTSON, Committeeman. 1-22

Supposed Find of Anthracite Coal. The reported find of anthracite coal near Cumberland has caused R. G. Van Newkirk and C. A. Oliver, of Hyndman, Pa., and A. B. Egoft, of Schellsburg, Pa., to lease 1,000 acres of land supposed to be underlain by the coal. Seven farmers signed leases. Development is to begin within 12 months, says the Connelville Courier.

There is Something Beyond a Salary. A boy or a man who works simply for his salary, and is actuated by no higher motive, is dishonest, and the one whom he most defrauds is himself. He is cheating himself, in the quality of his daily work, of that which all the after years, try as he may, can never give him back. If I were allowed but one utterance on this subject, so vital to every young man starting on the journey of life, I would say: "Don't think too much of the amount of salary your employer gives you at the start. Think, rather, of the possible salary you can give yourself, in increasing your skill, in expanding your experience, in enlarging and ennobling yourself." A man's or boy's work is material with which to build character and manhood. It is life's school for practical training of the faculties, stretching the mind and strengthening and developing the intellect, not a mere mill for grinding out a salary of dollars and cents.—Ex.
