Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.

For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach and exposes the nerves of the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucus instead of the juices of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

relieves all inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach, protects the nerves, and cures bad breath, sour risings, a sense of fullness after eating, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.

Kodol Digests What You Eat

Make the Stomach Sweet.

A Physician Healed.

Dr. Geo. Ewing, a practicing physician of Smith's Grove, Ky., for over thirty years, writes his personal experience with Foley's Kidney Cure: "For years I had been greatly bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and enlarged prostate gland. I used everything known to the profession without relief, until I commenced to use Foley's Kidney Cure. After taking three bottles I was entirely relieved and cured. I prescribe it now daily in my practice and heartily recommend its use to all physicians for such troubles. I have prescribed it in hundreds of cases with perfect success." Sold by E. H. Miller.

A Newspaper Worth Reading.

The Pittsburg Times is a conservative, careful newspaper for particular people. Its statements of fact and comments on them are concise and correct. Its departments are in charge of experts, and its authority in all matters pertaining to the events of the world at large and of the community it represents more particularly is recognized. It has no Sunday edition, and its position in that regard in Pittsburg is as unique as its thorough reliability in every way. Staunchly Republican in political policy it yet gives all the news of all parties. Its moral tone is high, and churchmen of every creed find in its columns more news of their interest and work than in all its contemporaries combined. Sports are given the prominence they deserve and no more. The news concerning them is bright, timely and adequate, for the work is done by a master. Theaters in the Times as in no other paper have the truth told about them and the plays they offer. No business considerations ever interfere with the publication of criticisms that really criticize, and in this department, too, the work is done by a master. Society and the affairs of women find careful and complete exposition on the page devoted to them. Industrial matters are accorded the prominence they merit in a Pittsburg paper, while the stock market is given the attention that has brought The Times into the front rank of financial authorities. Above all The Times is a model not only of brevity of statement, but of dignified simplicity in its typographical appearance. It offends neither the eye nor the sensibilities. Those things that are of importance are treated accordingly. Those that are unimportant are handled in keeping with their value. Each issue of The Times is a day's history of events the wide world round. Its price is one cent daily or $3 a year.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. Sold by E. H. Miller.

A Reformed Reformer.

A pious man was Deacon Brown—None holier in all the town—
 Yet, sad to say,
 His heart was ever filled with woe
 Because his fellows would not go
 His righteous way.
 But in their blindness walked the path
 That leads to God's eternal wrath.
 Some joined with other churches and
 Went with the devil hand in hand,
 While even those
 Who held his tenets to be true
 Were wont in other ways to do
 As Satan chose.
 So Deacon Brown was sore distressed
 That all, excepting him, transgressed.
 He argued that the people should
 Make laws to make the people good.
 Which was, perhaps,
 Like telling men to elevate
 Themselves to an exalted state
 By their boot straps;
 But this the deacon couldn't see,
 So bent upon reform was he.
 Whatever men delighted in
 He held to be a mortal sin;
 And with a sigh
 Beheld his brethren steeped in vice
 That barred their way to paradise.
 So that was why
 He wanted to reform the time
 By making every sin a crime.
 One day in church his eyelids closed
 And, sooth to say, the deacon dozed,
 And, dozing, dreamed,
 He thought he stood before the gates
 Where Peter with the records waits,
 When lo, it seemed
 An angel chorus smote his ear;
 "Don't let old Deacon Brown in here."
 "Pray, what objection can there be?"
 The deacon asked, "to such as me?"
 And Peter said:
 "In this abode of perfect bliss
 You'd find so many things amiss
 That I should dread
 To let you in; so, Deacon Brown,
 You'll find your lodgings farther down."
 The deacon woke, but still the dream
 Remained an ever-present theme
 To vex his mind.
 Until, at last, becoming wise,
 He searched his own unseeing eyes,
 Therein to find
 The beam that erst he failed to note
 While plucking at his brother's mote.

PLEURISY PNEUMONIA and CONSUMPTION

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

stops the cough and heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold.

Consumption Cured
 Foley & Co., Chicago. Dana, Ind., Sept. 28, 1902.
 Gentlemen:—FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR cured me of consumption after I had suffered two years and was almost desperate. Three physicians failed to give me any relief and the last one said he could do me no good. I tried almost every medicine I heard tell of without benefit until FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR was recommended to me. Its effect right from the start was magical. I improved steadily from the first dose and am now sound and well, and think FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR is a God-send to people with Throat and Lung Trouble.
 Yours very truly, Mrs. Mary Ambrose.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR contains no opiates and does not constipate like ordinary cough medicines.

THREE SIZES — 25c, 50c and $1.00
 The 50 cent size contains 2 1/2 times as much as the small size, and the $1.00 size almost 6 times as much.
