SCULL'S NEW COUNTY SLATE.

Party Wreckers Again After Office - Note Who they are.

Harvey M. Berkley, defeated for Congress in 1900; defeated for State Delegate in 1901; defeated for Congress in 1902; defeated for County Chairman in 1900.

For Assembly, John C. Weller, defeated for Associate Judge in 1898. James M. Cover, defeated for State Senator 1902, and for County Chairman in 1902.

For District Attorney, J. C. Lowry, defeated for District Attorney in 1889; defeated for Assembly in 1890; defeated for County Chairman in 1899; defeated for Prothonotary in 1896.

For Chairman, John R. Scott, defeated for State Senator in 1885.

For Vice Chairman, Fred Rowe, defeated for Assembly in 1898; defeated for Assembly in 1900.

National Delegate, Fred W. Biesecker, defeated for Congress in 1896, and never tackled it again.

The above history of the New County Slate, backed by the Johnstown Democrat in its daily issue, is an indication that the voters of Somerset county have never been willing to elevate most of these gentlemen to any office of public trust. The people will not be fooled by them now.

Certain people friendly to the candidacy of these gentlemen are ready to offer all of Somerset county territory north of the Jenner and Bedford turnpike, to the New Countyites in Cambria county for financial and newspaper support in the present campaign. A new county means that the people of Jenner, Quemahoning, Shade, Conemaugh, Paint and Ogle townships, and the boroughs of Stoystown, Hooversville and Benson will be asked to build for the city of Johnstown a million dollar court house, a five hundred thousand dollar jail, and other public buildings at a total expenditure of two million dollars. We sound the danger signal to the voters of the county.

The Johnstown Democrat on Monday morning last, in a double column headline, says: "Tremendous opposition develops in Somerset county to proposition designed to thwart new county movement." Who favors the division of Somerset county? Only the Scull politicians. They are willing to ruin and dismember Somerset county in order to get a large wad of Johnstown boodle.

SOME POLITICAL HISTORY.

Fred W. Biesecker wants to represent Somerset county in the Republican National Convention at Chicago. This is the same gentleman that helped to organize the fusion movement against the Republican Ticket in 1901, and in 1902. Isn't he a peach? Hasn't he got gall?

John Calvin Lowry is the same John Calvin Lowry that announced on the fusion ticket in 1902 for State Senator against Wm. C. Miller of Bedford, the Republican candidate. Lowry withdrew when Biesecker's fusion slate broke to pieces. The Republicans owe J. Calvin Lowry nothing but a good licking, and they'll give it to him, too. John Calvin Lowry's candidacy for District Attorney is about as popular as his new road scheme in Addison township.

When John Calvin Lowry was defeated for Prothonotary, he cried "sour grapes." He didn't want any public office any more. And he won't get any, either.

The Somerset Herald in January said there were twelve hundred voters in Somerset county too ignorant to know how to vote. Will you support the Scull slate?

The Scullites recognized Chas. C. Shafer as County Chairman when they paid their announcements to him. This again illustrates how they tried to deceive the people with an injunction.

COLDS CAUSE PNEUMONIA.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down in weight from 148 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by E. H. Miller.

PROHIBITIONISTS FAVOR LICENSE

Anyhow Some of Them Have Taken up Fight for a Berlin Landlord.

Among the eventualities stirring the calm of affairs in Berlin, this week, was the circulation of a remonstrance against the granting of a liquor license to P. J. McGrath, proprietor of the National House. As the Standard is informed a portion of the Prohibition element over there seems to favor the granting of a license to Mr. McGrath. Anyhow, when it was learned on Monday that a petition was being circulated against McGrath, he was called up by phone by his right hand bauer, an active prohibitionist, who informed him that the remonstrance was being circulated, but that "only trash were signing the paper." How the signers, who are said to be representative citizens, and for the most part working people, will take this assertion is a matter for conjecture. Then began a frantic effort to call in the circulators of the remonstrance and put a squelch to it, and, in the shuffle, the document got lost and nobody seems to know what became of it. When last seen the remonstrance contained between thirty and forty names.—Somerset Standard.

As a general thing there isn't any more consistency about a Prohibitionist than there is cleanliness about a hog. Berlin is a great Prohibition center when it comes to voting, but the fact remains, nevertheless, that it is one of the worst rum holes in the county. Over there a fellow isn't safe after nightfall, if he has $20 in his clothes, and as an example we cite the case of Stone Mason Glessner. But the "Prohibs" over there are happy in their hypocrisy and fanaticism, for they have a crazy, dirty little sheet through which to make a noise, and the crazy, ignorant "lomis" at the head of it is happy in his own insanity and ignorance.

Affidavit of John C. Miller.

Mr. Miller, candidate on Scull's New County Slate, on 28th of January last, made an affidavit which is on file in the Prothonotary's office at Somerset, from which we copy the following:

"Personally appeared before me, a Justice of the Peace, in and for Somerset county, J. C. Miller, and others, who being duly sworn, according to law, deposes and says, that they are qualified voters, residing in the township of Somerset, District No. 2, of the county of Somerset, and are members of a political organization known as the Citizens Party, * * * and that this affidavit is made for the purpose of securing the exclusive use of said political name or appellation.

J. C. MILLER." Sworn to and subscribed before me this 28th day of January, 1904. W. W. KNABLE, J. P.

And Weller's Name Was Among Them.

Following are the names of the Democratic candidates that were voted for at the election of Nov. 4th, 1902. For Governor, Robert E. Pattison. For Lieut. Gov., George W. Guthrie. Secy. Inter. Affairs, James Molan. For Congress, Oran W. Kennedy. For Senator, Alex. B. Groff. For Assembly, John C. Weller, Philip P. Ritter. The Republicans of Somerset county will see the name of a candidate on the above Democratic Ticket whose name now appears on the New County Slate. Editor Bailey of the Johnstown Democrat, in all of his issues this week has been very loud in his praises of this gentleman.

Kicked in the Face by a Jackass.

Ever since we declined a fat job on the staff of THE STAR, Pete seems "to have it in for us." That's one time Pete was kicked by a jackass.—Berlin Gleaner.

Somebod' please hold our clothes while we laugh. The cheerful idiot of the Berlin Gleaner imagines he was once offered a fat job on the staff of THE STAR, but the fact is we only wanted to hire a grease monkey, a cheap type to oil and clean presses, empty spittoons, carry coal and set a little type between times. Would-be Editor Cook was located in Frostburg at that time, and his fellow citizens recommended him to us as a first class grease monkey. We offered him more than he could earn, but he declined on the ground that the walking was too bad to come to Salisbury, and that he was out of funds. Now he says that's once Pete was kicked in the face by a jackass. We don't know about being kicked in the face, but we do know that we were negotiating with a jackass that seems to know his name.

An ordinary battleship costs as much as 2,000 farms, including the buildings, tools and live stock. The expense of keeping it afloat costs a couple of farms every day, and a single discharge of its batteries consumes the earnings of a township. It is stated that the bombardment of Vladivostok for fifty-five minutes yesterday afternoon by the Japanese, cost in the neighborhood of $100,000. Moreover, the average life of a battleship is not much greater than that of a government mule.—Ex.

The Washington Star of the 4th inst., says: "Senator Fairbanks will not resist a movement to make him the vice presidential nominee of the Republican party. If the convention nominates him he will accept. More than that, he will not attempt to discourage efforts looking to his nomination. It is only fair to say that no explicit declaration by Senator Fairbanks to that effect has been made. The Indiana delegation in Congress was convinced today that Senator Fairbanks had yielded to the solicitation of men high in the councils, outside of Indiana, to take place on the national ticket. Almost without exception, his closest political friends in Indiana have advised him in his interest, against accepting the vice presidency. Influential Republicans in the Senate, such men as Spooner, Allison and Platt, have urged him to take it, on the ground that he would strengthen the Republican ticket, especially in financial circles, and that his first duty is to his party, rather than to his own political future."

COLDS ARE DANGEROUS.

How often you hear it remarked: "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. It always cures and is pleasant to take. Sold by E. H. Miller. 4-1

Making Men Sober.

"The corporations" do so many bad things that there is some human satisfaction in learning that they occasionally do a good thing. Rev. Edward A. Horton, a distinguished and level-headed Unitarian clergyman of Boston, in making a talk about public temperance the other day, said, among other things: "I believe in good examples. The great lesson of temperance is being taught, not by tracts or sermons, but by the railroads and great industrial corporations insisting on temperance in their servants."

Why not? To make a man temperate, there is nothing like—well, making him temperate. The occasional drunkard, the man who is commonly sober, but not infrequently drunk, is passing away. The person who goes on sprees has no chance in business life. He cannot get employment.

So far as these big houses are concerned, the ordinary man's choice lies between real sobriety and utter abandonment to intemperance and consequent industrial outlawry. The effect is to discredit drinking altogether. The Americans are being made a sober race—which they were not always—by this insistence upon sobriety in employes. This is a sort of "tyranny" that the big corporations can continue to engage in with the general thanks.—New York Mail.

FAMOUS TREE FELLED.

Stood Where Columbus Discovered America.

The "Big Pine," a famous tree on the road from Cresson to Loretta and under which Prince Fallitizin often rested, has been cut down under the commercial spirit of modern times. It was one of the sights of the mountains, and forestry experts say that it stood there when Columbus discovered America. It was in reality a combination of three trunks and measured 27 feet in circumference at the roots. While it was famous, what was more important is that it yields 60 logs when cut up. The regret is general that such a historical tree should be sacrificed.

THE NAME WITCH HAZEL.

The name Witch Hazel is much abused. E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, are the inventors of the original and only genuine Witch Hazel Salve. A certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Bruises, Eczema, Tetter, Piles, etc. There are many counterfeits of this salve, some of which are dangerous, while they are all worthless. In buying Witch Hazel Salve see that the name E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, is on the box, and a cure is certain. Sold by E. H. Miller. 4-1
