Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.

For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflames the mucous membranes lining the stomach and exposes the nerves of the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucus instead of the juices of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

relieves all inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach, protects the nerves, and cures bad breath, sour risings, a sense of fullness after eating, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.

A bad month for consumptives. This is the time by all means to use Speer's Port Grape Wine freely. Thousands of lives have been prolonged by its use, especially weakly persons, and the aged, more especially consumptives.

Looked Like Omission.

A little boy had often heard his father say that lawyers were dishonest men. One day he was passing a graveyard with his father, when he noticed on a tombstone the inscription:

"John Smith, a good lawyer and an honest man."

The boy observed to his father: "There are two men in that grave, and they have failed to give the name of the last one."

Put Him Out.

"Buffalo Bill," during one of his visits to Chicago, was the guest of honor at a dinner given by Mrs. Potter Palmer.

"Colonel, what would you do in a crowded theatre if a man yelled 'Fire!'" asked the hostess.

"I might take him at his word if I had my side arms with me," replied the famous plainsman grimly; "but if not, I should do the next best thing in case of fire."

"What is that?"

"Put him out."

Both Correct.

A schoolmaster one day asked the dunce of the school some very simple questions in arithmetic. He was surprised to find that he got the right answers, and when he had finished he said to the boy, "Correct; sit down."

"Now," said the schoolmaster, "see if you have sense enough to ask me some questions."

The boy pondered for a moment and then said: "Please, sir, what would three yards of calico cost if cotton was two pence a reel?"

"I think you take me for a fool," said the schoolmaster.

"Correct; sit down!" returned the boy.

Children in Peril.

Some of the most anxious hours of a mother's life are those when the little ones have the croup. Foley's Honey and Tar is a safe and effective remedy that never fails. "My boy would have died from membranous croup if it had not been for Foley's Honey and Tar," writes C. W. Lynch, of Winchester, Ind. Sold by E. H. Miller.

A Severe Cold For Three Months.
 The following letter from A. J. Nusbaum, of Batesville, Ind., tells its own story: "I suffered for three months with a severe cold. A druggist prepared me some medicine, and a physician prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I then tried FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR, and eight doses cured me."

A Chattanooga Druggist's Statement.
 Robert J. Miller, proprietor of the Read House Drug Store, of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes: "There is more merit in FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR than in any other cough syrup. The calls for it multiply wonderfully and we sell more of it than all other cough syrups combined."
