explosion, which may kill her and her 18-months-old child.

Mrs. Bologne took the powder from a four-gallon can and after placing some of it in the stove pipe set fire to it, thinking it would clear the flue. A slight explosion followed which threw sparks into the can, when a second explosion occurred which wrecked the house and blew the woman and baby out through the door and several feet away from the building. The woman's clothing was on fire when two neighbors came to her assistance. While they were trying to assist Mrs. Bologne a second can of powder exploded and they were also badly burned.

TORTURED BY ROBBERS.

Aged Man's Feet Burned Till He Plead for Death.

Bound, gagged and tortured until he revealed the hiding place of the money about his home, was the experience of David C. Leasure, a wealthy farmer, living near Rochester Mills, Indiana County, Pa. Five masked men enterted the Leasure house, bound Mr. Leasure, his wife and a girl employed by them. The intruders then demanded money from Mr. Leasure, who gave them $10 and declared that it was all the coin he had about the building. The thieves became enraged at securing so little booty, fastened Mr. Leasure to the floor and removing his shoes tortured him by placing burning paper against his feet.

While the torture was going on the men demanded money, but the farmer insisted that he had no more cash about him and plead with the robbers to kill him outright or cease tormenting him. He offered the men silverware, jewelry and other valuables about the house but they refused it about his home, was the experience of
