Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Mr. D. Kauble, of Nevada, O., says: "I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me."

Kodol Digests What You Eat
 and relieves the stomach of all nervous strain and the heart of all pressure.

Bottles only, $1.00. Size holding 2 1/2 times the trial size, which sells for 50c.

THE JOLLY FARMER.
 When the farmer espied a little boy industriously collecting apples from the topmost branches of his best tree, he stole back to the farmhouse and took down a stuffed image of Pongo, his greatly mourned sheepdog, from the cupboard, and in a few minutes the stuffed dog had been placed at the foot of the tree.

The farmer then proceeded with the business of the farm, and the men wondered why every now and then he chuckled to himself.

An hour went by and the farmer was once more at the foot of the tree. "Hullo, there!" he cried. "What are ye doing up my tree, eh?"

The boy was pale and quivering with fright; but he had not altogether lost his presence of mind.

"Please, sir," he shivered, "that great big dog down there," pointing to the well preserved Pongo, "he chased me, he did, all over your meadow, an' I had to climb this tree to get out of his way!"—Kansas City Independent.

Some Awful Things Happen.

Hoax—I saw a man yesterday with no hands play the piano.
 Joak—That's nothing. My daughter hasn't any voice, but yet she sings.—Chicago Journal.

You Know Them.
 A fellow cannot live on love, But lots of men there are, Whom you and I have knowledge of, Who live on their love's pa.
 —Philadelphia Press.

He Went to the Head.
 A school teacher of Bayonne recently had occasion to talk to her scholars about the different spellings of the word "to." She explained with great care the ways in which the word could be spelled and the meaning of it, as spelled in the different ways. Finally, in order to find out if the children had properly grasped the idea, she decided to give a test.

"Now, children, as quickly as you can, I want you to give me a sentence with all three spellings contained in it."

Hardly were the words out of her mouth before up went a hand.

"Well, Isaac," said the teacher, interrogatively, and the boy, who was the solitary Jewish child in the class, answered glibly:

"Two dollars is too much to spend."
 —Brooklyn Eagle.

Time All Taken Up.
 "A friend of my youth, an Ohio farmer, when he was about 24, made his first visit to New York," said Thomas A. Edison. "He took a room at a good hotel, and after he had unpacked his gladstone bag he went to the desk to inquire about the meals.

"What is the eatin' hours in this yere house?" he said to the clerk.

"Breakfast," the clerk answered, "7 to 11; lunch, 11 to 3; dinner, 3 to 8; supper, 8 to 12."

"Jerusalem!" said my friend, "when am I goin' to get time to see the town?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

He Wanted Something Lasting.
 "So we are going to live in a cottage, George?"
 "Yes, my love—for the present."
 "And we must be very economical?"
 "Yes, dear."
 "What are we going to live on, George?"
 "Bread and cheese and kisses."
 "What kind of cheese, George?"
 "Limburger, my dear. I think that's the sort that lasts the longest."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Not Enticing.
 "Think of that!" he exclaimed disgustedly.
 "What?"
 "Why, a summer resort proprietor sends us a circular that speaks principally of the splendid boating."
 "What of it?"
 "What of it? Why, we're living in a suburb that's been under water ever since the snow began to melt."—Chicago Post.

What An Appalling Situation.
 Our sufferings were appalling. For two days food and water had failed us.

And now the road was become so rough that at times our touring car, stanch and powerful though it was, could not keep ahead of its smell.

We had all faced death before, but never a death like this.—Puck.

The Voice of Disappointment.
 "It's easy to pick the horse that ought to win a race."
 "Yes. The thing that requires intelligence and discernment is to keep from betting on him."—Washington Star.

Original Submarine Test.
 It is nothing to boast of—this remaining under water for twelve hours and twenty-three minutes in an airtight steel shell. Think of Jonah in the original submarine vessel for more than three days and three nights!

Too Many Wives.

I hear you have discontinued the custom of giving your clerks a raise when they take a wife.
 I have, indeed.
 Why so?
 Well, the last clerk was a mornon and came for a raise four times in a month.

Point of View.

Diggs—Soques is quite an optimist. Diggs—I never noticed it. Diggs—Well, he is; at least he seems to take a rosy view of everything. Diggs—Oh, that is merely a reflection from his nose.

Then and Now.

"Matches are made in heaven." "Perhaps they were in former years, but that must have been before the match trust was organized."

Counting on Breakdowns.

He—Are you going to the World's Fair at St. Louis?
 She—Yes, we are going in an automobile.
 "Why, it's only open until December, you know!"

Wifely Consideration.

She—I think you'd better come with me to choose my new ring.
 He—But I thought you wanted to choose it yourself.
 She—So I did, but I'm afraid we can't afford it.

END OF BITTER FIGHT.
 "Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an abscess on my right lung," writes J. F. Hughes, of DulPont, Ga., "and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. SEEK FOR THE WOMAN.
 BY HARRY ELIARD.

When our lives are filled with trouble,
 And our minds are growing weak,
 And we wonder why our brains whirl like a ball,
 The great nightmare haunting o'er us,
 When our restless cots we seek,
 Is the woman at the bottom of it all.

When a man is thought as honest
 By his many friends around,
 From his place of faith and merit takes a fall.

The same old cause is given,
 When his shortages are found,
 There's a woman at the bottom of it all.

When a man turns out a scoundrel,
 And a felon's cell he fills,
 To his ankles they have placed a chain and ball.

In his moments of reflection,
 He can see the many frills
 Of the woman at the bottom of it all.

When a parson of the parish,
 Whom all thought so good and true,
 Seeks a path not very righteous in his call,
 Yea, verily, thou knowest,
 When the matter's sifted through,
 That a woman's at the bottom of it all.

When a happy home is broken,
 And a wife is brought to grief
 By the actions of her husband in his fall,
 When his bank account is lessened
 'Tis not hard to guess the thief—
 It's the woman at the bottom of it all.

MEN WHO HAVE MADE THEIR MARK.

An Appropriate and Effective Booklet on the Savings Habit.

The above is the title of a very interesting booklet just issued by the Pittsburgh Bank for Savings, of Pittsburgh, Pa. The booklet is one of the best ever published for the purpose. It contains a brief but surprisingly complete biography of great American statesmen and kings of finance. It is admirably illustrated with half-tone portraits of characteristic scenes illustrating striking episodes in the lives of various characters among whom are Benjamin Franklin, Abraham Lincoln, Andrew Carnegie, Stephen Girard, John Wanamaker, James A. Garfield, John D. Rockefeller and others. Following each biography is an apt quotation appropriate to the matter preceding. Typographically it is one of the handsomest little booklets we have seen for some time, and it will repay our readers to send for a copy of the same, which will be furnished free of charge by the Pittsburgh Bank for Savings, provided you mention this paper, but not otherwise.
