EDGAR ALLAN POE'S WORKS

This splendid ten-volume library pocket edition contains the choicest and most thrilling of Poe's masterful works. Stories that are incomparable in originality of conception, versatility and execution. Thrilling tales of adventure, mystery and detective stories; such as "The Murders in the Rue Morgue," "The Purloined Letter," and the "Mystery of Marie Roget," demonstrate the author's wonderful capability for correctly analyzing the motives of the human mind. Many recognized authorities claim that the modern Sherlock Holmes' stories were inspired by Poe's writings. The similarity in the deductions through which Sherlock Holmes reaches his conclusions sustains this claim.

PEARSON'S MAGAZINE FOR 1925

The editorial policy of Pearson's is in a nutshell, to combine entertainment with instruction. While the publisher always tries to present each magazine an attractive prospectus of the coming number, he always looks upon the articles and stories themselves being better than the prospectus.

ORGAN RECITAL

St. John's Reformed Church, Friday

Evening, Dec. 16, at 8 o'clock.

Against Personal Registration.

The movement for personal registration in Pennsylvania does not appeal very strongly to Wesley R. Andrews, secretary of the Republican State Committee, who gives his views on the subject in a public statement. He said: "No man is more heartily in favor of suppressing ballot frauds than I, but in my opinion personal registration, as now proposed, would not be effective in that direction. I have no criticism to make of the intentions of those who are urging such a law, but I cannot agree with their conclusions."

A FRIGHTENED HORSE.

Running like mad down the street dumping the occupants, or a hundred other accidents, are every day occurrences. It behooves everybody to have a reliable Salve handy and there's none as good as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Burns, Cuts, Sores, Eczema and Piles, disappear quickly under its soothing effect. 25c, at E. H. Miller's Drug Store.

When a Man Starves.

For the first two days through which a strong and healthy man is doomed to exist upon nothing, his sufferings are perhaps more acute than in the remaining stages; he feels an inordinate, unspeakable craving at the stomach at night and day. The mind runs upon beef, bread and other substances, but still, in a great measure, the body retains its strength. On the third and fourth days, but especially on the fourth, this incessant craving gives place to a sinking and weakness of the stomach, accompanied by nausea.

On the fifth day his cheeks appear hollow and sunken, his body attenuated, his color is ashy pale and his eyes wild, glassy and cannibalistic.

The sixth day brings with it increased suffering, although the pangs of hunger are lost in an overpowering languor and sickness. The head becomes dizzy, the ghosts of well-remembered dinners pass in hideous procession through the mind.

The seventh day comes, bringing increased lassitude and further prostration of strength. The mind wanders.—Chicago Chronicle.

Clipped from the Somerset Standard.

A nuptial event of county interest will take place at Meyersdale, the latter part of this month, when Joseph Levy, of Somerset, and Miss Mayme McNamara, of Meyersdale, will be married. Miss McNamara, who taught school for several terms in this county, is now teaching in Pittsburg. Mr. Levy is one of the younger members of the Somerset bar.

The brokerage firm of Richmond & Co., of Pittsburg, closed its doors, last week, on account of financial embarrassment. The firm had offices in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Maryland, West Virginia and Canada. The Somerset board of exchange operated a Richmond wire, in conjunction with others, and as a result of the failure, the local traders lost about three hundred dollars.

Alexander H. King, Esq., of Alabama, was, at yesterday morning's session of court, admitted to membership in the Somerset county bar, and privileged to practice in the several courts of this county. It is rumored that he will open an office at Meyersdale. Mr. King is a son of Alexander King, once President Judge of the Somerset-Bedford-Pulton district, and was admitted to practice in Bedford county years ago. A few years ago Mr. King went to Alabama, where he engaged in business and practiced law.

GRIP QUICKLY KNOCKED OUT.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of a grippe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Eggleston of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, aiding the same with a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip." These Tablets promote a healthy action of the bowels, liver and kidneys which is always beneficial when the system is congested by a cold or attack of the grip. For sale by E. H. Miller.

So Easy, Don't You Know.

To run a newspaper, says an Oklahoma editor, all a fellow has to do is to be able to write a poem, discuss the tariff and money question, umpire a baseball game, report a wedding, saw wood, describe a fire so that the readers will shed their wraps, make $1 do the work of ten, shine at a dance, measure estate, abuse the liquor habit, test whisky, subscribe to charity, go without meals, attack free silver, defend bimetalism, sneer at snobbery, wear diamonds, invent advertisements, overlook scandal, praise babies, delight pumpkin raisers, minister to the afflicted, heal the disgruntled, fight to a finish, set type, mould opinions, sweep the office, speak at prayer meetings, stand in with everybody and everything.

FIGHT WILL BE BITTER.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. Beall, of Beall, Miss
