SALVE

PREPARED BY
E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago

SOLD BY H. H. MILLER.

Didn't Pave Them Any.

Hank Smith—I like folks that keeps their promises.
Bill Brown—I don't. Pop promised me a lickin' if I went fishin' today.—Judge.

What's the Difference?

"Why, her grandfather was a surgeon."
"Well, mine was a butcher."—Providence (R. I.) Telegram.

Rough on Forefathers.

She—I'm looking up my family tree—but the further I go the harder it gets.
He—That's why I quit looking up mine. The further I went the harder my ancestors got to be.

Good for Something.

Mamma—Yes, Willie, you've been a very good boy to-day.
Willie—All right; then give me a nickel.
Mamma—No, indeed!
Willie—Why, ma, you told me Tommy Naylor was good for nothin' as you don't want me to be like him, do you?—Philadelphia Press.

Not Susceptible to Tillage.

Mrs. Lakeside—Oh, yes; some of these narrow, exclusive eastern people say that Chicago isn't cultivated.
Mr. Lakeside—H'mph! All the city is except the south part, and that's too marshy. The land ain't worth cultivating.—Brooklyn Life.

Confession.

"Has there ever been a trace of insanity in your family?" asked the attorney for the prosecution.
The woman in the witness box went pale and bowed her head.
"Well," she answered meekly, "if you must know, my eldest daughter killed the law man and eloped with a goat last week."

Wie Hard Fate.

"Yes'm, I was drove away from home when a mere child by the heartless cruelty of one stepmother."
"Poor fellow! What did she do?"
"She jasted on givin' me a bath every Saturday night."—St. Paul Press.

Friendly Tip.

Tramps—Is there any chance for work in this town?
Lady—No.
Tramps—Thanks, guess we'll summer here, mum.

And We Refuse to Listen.

Tommy—I wonder where the mosquitoes spent the winter.
Elsie—Mebbe that's what they're tryin' to tell us when they come buzzin' around us in the summer.—Philadelphia Press.

Before and After.

"Dut," argued the young man during the tiff, "if you quarrel with me about nothing before we are married, what may I expect afterward?"
"Well," answered the gentle dame, "from what I can hear, very few wives ever have to quarrel about nothing."—Chicago Tribune.

Burning Shame.

The Lady—You are acting queerly, my poor man. I trust you have not been partaking of anything fiery?
Wringling William—Dat's what I have, lady. I went to sleep an' swallowed one lighted cigar butt.

She Was "Real Rude."

He—Do you believe that men actually descended from monkeys?
She—I don't know; but if some man that I could name did, it was quite a comedown.
Bravest of the Brave.
What legislators these Japs would make! They will stir their knees to office a pass.—Philadelphia North American.

559 Deer Slain in this State in Month.

Hunters in 17 counties of Pennsylvania killed 559 deer in the season which closed Nov. 30th, according to the reports gathered from the hunting districts by the North American. This is the largest number slain for many years, and the result places this state among the first in the Union for deer hunting. In the same period 131 bears were killed, and two deer hunters lost their lives.

Woodsmen attribute the abundance of deer this season chiefly to the protection that has been given them by the law limiting the season to the month of November, and preventing the running of them by dogs. Another factor which helped the deer, was the fact that the hunters were handicapped in the chase by the thick undergrowth which in many counties has recently overgrown the timber land. Bears are not protected by the law.

Centre county leads the state in point of the number of deer killed, 128 having fallen there within 30 days. Gunners returning to Bellefonte report that deer have never been so abundant as this year. Twenty-five bears fell in that county.

Clinton county is second with 125 deer slain, and 30 bears. Because of the amazing increase in the number of wildcats, which prey upon the deer, this season has not been as successful as last.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

"DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve" writes J. L. Tucker, of Centre, Ala. "I have used it in my family for Piles, Cuts and Burns for years and can recommend it to be the best Salve on the market. Every family should keep it, as it is an invaluable household remedy, and should always be kept on hand for immediate use." Mrs. Samuel Gage, of North Bush, N. Y., says: "I had a fever sore on my ankle for twelve years that the doctors could not cure. All salves and blood remedies proved worthless. I could not walk for over two years. Finally I was persuaded to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which has completely cured me. It is a wonderful relief." DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures without leaving a scar. Sold by E. H. Miller. 1-1

The Weakness of all of Them.

There was a young lady of Siam,
Who said to her fond lover, Kiam,
"I refuse to be kissed,
But if you insist,
Heaven knows you are stronger than I am."
—Exchange.

NO MORE SUFFERING.

If you are troubled with indigestion get a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and see how quickly it will cure you. Geo. A. Thomson, of Spencer, Ia., says: "I have had Dyspepsia for twenty years. My case was almost hopeless. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was recommended and I used a few bottles of it and it is the only thing that has relieved me. Would not be without it. Have doctored with local physicians and also at Chicago, and even went to Norway with hopes of getting some relief, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the only remedy that has done me any good, and I heartily recommend it. Every person suffering with Indigestion or Dyspepsia should use it." Sold by E. H. Miller. 1-1

The Amende Honorable.

In a certain town of Western Massachusetts two of the most prominent citizens are a Methodist brother and a Presbyterian brother. These are neighbors, and, for the most part, dwell on good terms, except when they try to effect an exchange of horses or to talk on religion.

On one occasion the two had traded horses, and although the outcome ranked in the breast of the Methodist, they had met and started a discussion on the subject of predestination. As usual, an altercation ensued, when the Methodist lost control of himself. With mixed emotions concerning horse trades and John Calvin in his mind, he suddenly exclaimed:

"You're a robber, a liar, and a Presbyterian!"
This proved too much for the Presbyterian, and a fight began, in which the Presbyterian got the best of it. As he sat upon his prostrate opponent, bumping his head against the ground, he said:
"Take it back, take it back, or I'll bump your foolish head off!"
"I'll take it back," gasped the vanquished Methodist, "on the first two counts; you're not a robber nor a liar, but you're a blamed old Presbyterian if I die for it!"—Harper's Weekly.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR CROUP.

When a child shows symptoms of croup there is no time to experiment with new remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended. There is one preparation that can always be depended upon. It has been in use for many years and has never been known to fail, viz: Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. M. F. Compton, of Market, Texas, says of it, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in severe cases of croup with my children, and can truthfully say it always gives prompt relief." For sale by E. H. Miller. 1-1

Newspaper Interests in Combination.

RECENT invention has revolutionized the art of making printing inks, and a substantial reduction in the cost of manufacture has given The Standard Ink Works such a strategic advantage over their competitors in the ink trade that the editors and publishers who control and largely own the business have decided to invite the financial co-operation of the general public in an immediate enlargement of the working plant.

The purpose of the corporation is to secure to American newspapers the absolute control of their ink supply independently of any industrial combination or other outside influence, and, at the same time, to make money for its stockholders through the sale of printing inks to publishers and printers in all parts of the civilized world.

The corporation owns and operates, in New York City, a printing ink factory having a capacity of 10,000 pounds of printing ink a day. The factory is equipped with the latest and most highly improved machinery for the manufacture of all grades and colors of printing inks.

The corporation owns and operates, outside of New York, a modern and fully equipped factory for the preparation of the materials from which printing inks are made. This factory represents an outlay of between $50,000 and $100,000 in cash. It has a capacity at present of 100,000 pounds a day.

It is the intention of the corporation to bring the capacity of its New York City factory up to the full capacity of the works.

By reason of the recent improvement in the quality of the materials and the reduction in the cost of manufacture, the corporation is able to offer to investors this plain business proposition: It can manufacture better printing inks at a lower cost than any other maker of inks in existence. It can sell good inks for less than it costs other concerns to make poor inks, and still earn generous dividends on its outstanding investment. The profits of manufacture, under the new and more favorable conditions, will range from 100% to 300%.

The corporation has no debt, no preferred stock, no bonds. All stock is common stock, full-paid and non-assessable.

Only stock actually issued counts as capital. Dividends are paid only on issued stock.

The active management of the business is in the hands of practical and experienced men, all except two of whom have had many years' experience as editors and publishers. The Executive Board of Directors is made up as follows:

Major General Oliver Otis Howard, U. S. Army (retired), Burlington, Vermont; Robert Hunt Lyman, 53-63 Park Row, New York City; Henry W. B. Howard, Polytechnic Institute, Brooklyn, N. Y.; B. Peele Willet, 142 Fifth Avenue, New York City; Hiram C. Haydn, 178 Bellflower Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio; Edward B. Smith, 156 Fifth Avenue, New York City; William Willard Howard, 17 Broadway, New York City.

For the purpose of extending its business by the construction in New York City of a larger factory for the manufacture on an extensive scale of all grades and colors of printing inks, the parent corporation now offers for sale a limited allotment of its capital stock at the low price of fifty cents a share (par value, $1.00, full-paid and non-assessable). When this sale is closed (which may be at any time without notice), the price of stock will be advanced to $1.00 a share.

Subscriptions to this allotment of stock should be sent to Mr. William Willard Howard, Treasurer, 17 Broadway, New York City.

Circulars describing the enterprise in detail will be sent free to any address on application.
