An editor going away left his paper in charge of a minister. During the minister's stay in the sanctuary the following letter came from a subscriber: "You know very well that I paid my subscription to your paper the last time I was in town. If I get any more such letters from you as I received last week I will come and maul the devil out of you." All classes of business men can take a leaf out of the book of experience of managers of great enterprises like Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey shows, and then profit by them in advertising. There are no shrewder business men in the world, and now we are informed these enlightened individuals are to abandon the big, highly colored, sensational bill board and window lithograph advertising and rely more fully upon the most legitimate method of advertising, the newspapers. They have found out by dear experience that posters and lithographs are an expensive method, and do not give as good results as newspapers.

Bound and gagged, the maiden was thrust into a gunny sack, and unable to move or scream, felt herself carried up a flight of stairs from the dungeon, and then driven down the street at a rapid rate. Ineffectually she struggled to release herself from the gag. Alas! she was bound too securely. Finally the conveyance stopped. She was again carried into a building, and fainting, gasping for breath, the sack was taken from her head. The villain, still unmasked, took the gag from her mouth, his eyes gleaming like coals of fire through his black mask, released her and hissed through his tightly clenched teeth: "There, my pretty bird, scream and yell as long as you like, no human ear will ever reach you. You are in my power. Do you hear? Totally within my power." "Where am I?" she gasped. "In a store that never advertises," was the cruel response. "Alas! Alas!" she moaned. "No power on earth can save me; no one will look for me here," and the poor girl fainted.—Ex.

Meyersdale's Fine New Theater.

We attended the opening of the Donges theater, in Meyersdale, last Thursday evening, and we must say that we were greatly surprised at the magnitude and fineness thereof. Meyersdale now has a theater that is modern in every respect, and it compares very favorably with theaters in large cities. The seating capacity is 1000, and the manager, Oscar Allen, is thoroughly up to date in that position.

The opening play was "His Majesty and the Maid," a very interesting tragedy that was well rendered by a strong company. A crowd of Salisbury people were in attendance, and all were well pleased.

We thank Manager Allen for press courtesies, and W. B. Stevanus for a free sleigh ride to Meyersdale.

A COSTLY MISTAKE.

The Pipe Organ Recital.

The opening recital of the magnificent $2,000-Estey pipe organ, recently installed in St. John's Reformed church, corner Ord and Gay streets, took place last Friday evening. The audience was very large, and many people were in attendance from neighboring towns and villages. The program was a most delightful one, and people are loud in praise thereof.

The organist, Mr. Earl Byron Byers, of Omaha, Neb., is a musician of great ability, and each rendition was enthusiastically applauded.

The soloist, Miss Emma Craig Sawhill, of Allegheny, Pa., is the possessor of a voice of rare sweetness and perfection of tone. Her solos were the delight of all present, and the round after round of applause that the charming little lady received, amply attested the pleasure of the audience.

The following program was rendered:

- PART I.
 (a) "Fantasia".....GUILMONT.
 (b) "Andantino".....LEMARE.
 Solo.
 (a) "Pilgrims' Chorus".....WAGNER.
 (b) "Spring Song".....MENDELSSOHN.
 (c) "Vesper Hymn," Transcription, BUCK.
 Solo.
 PART II.
 (a) "Largo".....HANDEL.
 (b) "Offertory in E".....WELLY.

 (b) "Hymn of the Nuns".....GUILMONT.
 (c) "Tocatta".....GRISON.

In addition to the printed program, Mr. U. D. Miller, a violinist of fine ability, also rendered several very fine selections with organ accompaniment, which were received with great applause.

The installation of the magnificent organ was made possible through the generosity of Mr. Andrew Carnegie, together with the energy of the consistency, congregation and friends. It has a total of 28 stops and 816 pipes. The material used in the construction of the organ, is of the very highest grade, and none but the most expert workmen were employed in its construction. It is a credit to our town and to all who contributed to its purchase. The instrument was purchased through the agency of Reich & Plock, the well known and reliable Meyersdale dealers in musical instruments.

PNEUMONIA

follows a cold, but never follows the use of

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

It stops the cough and heals the lungs and prevents a cold from settling on your lungs and resulting in Pneumonia, Pleurisy, or Consumption.

You are in no danger of serious results if FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR is taken, as it soothes and heals the inflamed air passages and the cough disappears.

Be sure and get FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR, as preparations containing opiates stop the cough temporarily by paralyzing the nerves in the throat and leave the germs of serious lung trouble, and you get one cold on another because the first one was not cured properly.

Saved Her Life From Pneumonia.
 "My wife had a severe attack of Pneumonia which followed a severe attack of La Grippe and I believe that FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR saved her life," writes James Coffey, of Raymond, Missouri.

Dr. C. J. Bishop, Agnew, Mich., writes: "I have used FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR in three very severe cases of Pneumonia with good results in every case."

Cured When Very Low!—Pneumonia.
 J. W. Bryan, of Lowder, Ky., writes: "My little boy was very low with Pneumonia. Unknown to the doctor we gave him FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR. The result was magical and puzzled the doctor, as it immediately stopped the racking cough and he quickly recovered."

Three Sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00

The 50-cent size contains 2 1-2 times as much as the small size, and the $1.00 size almost 6 times as much.
