We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to be present at the annual celebration of "Lincoln Day," at the Pennsylvania State College, on Monday, Feb. 13th, at 10 o'clock a. m. The orator of the day will be Hon. L. A. Watres, of Scranton, Pa. The anniversary of Lincoln's birth falls on Sunday, this year, hence the following Monday, Feb. 13th, will be observed.

Last Sunday evening while a lot of boys were coasting on the hilly road leading from the Lowry residence to the Engle bridge over Pine run, a sledload of them were hurled into a corner post of the bridge. A son of Mahlon Shoemaker, of Boynton, was badly hurt, although his injuries are not regarded as dangerous. However, several ribs were cracked, and the lad is pretty badly bruised.

Our friend Chas. H. Bill, of Racine, Wis., in renewing his subscription to THE STAR, says: "I enclose a year's subscription in advance for your O. K. paper. The editor is entitled to his pay, same as the shoe man. My best wishes and regards to the editor and family." Mr. Bill is a prominent shoe merchant in Racine, Wis., and when a boy was one of our old playfellows and schoolmates at Grantsville, Md. Thank you, Charley.

We notice in the Daily Journal, of Elizabeth, N. J., that the mayor of that city has appointed Dr. Horace R. Livengood to a position on the city board of health. In mentioning the matter editorially, the Daily Journal says: "Dr. Livengood is one of the best known physicians in this city, and is qualified to give valuable aid in safeguarding public health." The genial doctor was born and partly reared in Salisbury. He is the only son of Dr. T. F. Livengood.

County Supt. Seibert was in this vicinity, last week, visiting schools. While here he made THE STAR a very pleasant visit, and he informed the editor that our borough schools are doing the best work this term that they have ever done since he is superintendent. That speaks well for our principal, his assistant teachers and the pupils. Superintendent Seibert also inspected our new school building, and he pronounces it the finest in the county, except the new Windber building.

Look out for Coughs, Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough. They are dangerous at this season of the year. They lead to pneumonia or consumption. You can prevent or cure all such complaints with Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar—an improvement over all cough, lung and bronchial remedies and the best Cough Syrup. 3-1

At Schuyler, a town near Johnstown, the Misses Herter, daughters of a well-to-do farmer, distinguished themselves by killing, cleaning, scalding and hanging two large hogs, each of which weighed 300 pounds. Since the incident of the slaughter has become known throughout the countryside, the girls have had several offers of marriage from farmers and others in the neighborhood, by letter and by personal suit. All the offers have been pleasantly refused by the sisters.—Tyrone Herald.

S. A. Kimmel and Ed. Reitz, who went west some time ago, are now at Reno, Nevada, where they will remain for some time. Our friend Kimmel orders THE STAR sent to his address, and both he and his companion like the place very much. They report that Reno is a very lively place, and that business of all kinds is good. The resident population of the place is about 7,000, and the transient population about 2,000. The climate is fine, and there has been neither snow nor rain at Reno this winter.

The editor's mother-in-law, Mrs. John W. Coleman, formerly Mrs. F. J. Green, recently sold her farm at Carleton, Neb., to Jacob G. and John W. Miller. The purchasers are Somerset county men who located in Nebraska some years ago. Mrs. Coleman received nearly $7,000 for the place, including two small tracts sold off some time ago, which is a handsome advance over what she was offered for the farm a year ago. Real estate is advancing in price rapidly in the vicinity of Carleton, where many Somerset county people have located.

Pineules is the name of a new discovery put up in a new way. A certain cure for all Kidney, Blood and Bladder diseases, and every form of Rheumatism. Pineules relieve Backache and Kidney pains permanently. If you need such a remedy let us show you the wonderful Pineules. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 3-1

Henry Pile, of Coal Run, was arraigned before "Squire" Samuel Lowry, Wednesday evening, charged with striking at a miner on his way from work, calling him vile names, etc. At the hearing he was adjudged guilty, and to keep from being bound over to court, Henry compromised by paying ten dollars and costs, and giving bond for his good behavior for one year. We think Henry will be good now, but one of these fine days there will be some sally doses handed out to violators of the court's injunctions, and that is what they need and need badly.

Our hat is off to Br'er Pete Livengood, of THE STAR, who always has the sand to defend the most needed principles of the day among a class of disgruntled soreheads and knackers that is said about them in the columns of THE STAR. In our estimation such moguls need the severest newspaper chastisement. If principle and fair treatment cannot be taught some people by good advice and suggestion, a club might figure conspicuously in bringing them around to animal sense.—Berlin Gleaner.

A stranger in faultless attire and smooth of tongue has been fleecing the hotel keepers in this part of the state, on a new scheme which has netted him between $20,000 and $25,000. Upon his representation alone they greedily purchased handsomely engraved certificates which, after a certain date, would entitle the holder to a barrel of twenty-year old Kentucky whisky at greatly reduced rates. The fake was discovered only when one of his victims sent off a certificate and received a reply that it was worthless. Others than hotel men are said to have been caught in the net.—Greensburg Argus.

We had a warrant issued this week for the arrest of our old sauerkraut college mate, the Hon. Herr Von Fritzerick Diehl, D. F., whom we can prove has made threats to shoot the editor if the titled gentleman's name is not kept out of this great family comforter and luminous guide to wealth, happiness and the highest possible state of civilization. Yes, we had the warrant issued, but being anxious to become a martyr, we concluded not to have it served. Let Fritzerick shoot us if he wants to, for he might as well shoot somebody else as to get from half to three-thirds shot himself nearly every time he comes to town.

President Albertson announces that Mr. Andrew Carnegie has donated to The Pennsylvania State College the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) as the endowment of a Beneficiary fund, the annual interest on which at five per cent. is to be used for the aid of deserving and promising students, in such manner as the Board of Trustees may direct; and that Mrs. Andrew Carnegie has donated the like sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) the annual interest on which at five per cent. is to be expended for the maintenance of scholarships, to be awarded as the Trustees may direct. The Board at its Annual meeting, January 24, 1905, will adopt a plan for the administration of these important trusts.

CURED HIS MOTHER OF RHEUMATISM.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years from rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Pennsylvania. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by E. H. Miller. 2-1

Republican Borough Caucus.

Notice is hereby given that a Republican caucus will be held in Hay's Opera House, at 8 o'clock P. M., SATURDAY EVENING, JAN. 28, 1905, to nominate candidates for the offices of Salisbury borough, as follows:

One person for Judge of Election, one for Inspector, one for Auditor, one for Constable, one for High Constable, two for School Director, three for Town Council and one for Street Commissioner.

All Republicans, and Republicans only, are urgently requested to attend this caucus, as it will be of special importance this year, not only to the party, but to every Republican citizen's interest as a taxpayer.

W. B. STEVANS, Committeeman.

TONIC TO THE SYSTEM.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little Pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Bob Moore, of LaFayette, Ind., says: "No use talking, DeWitt's Little Early Risers do their work. All other pills I have used griped and made me sick in the stomach and never cure me. DeWitt's Little Early Risers proved to be the long sought relief. They are simply perfect." Persons traveling find Little Early Risers the most reliable remedy to carry with them. Sold by E. H. Miller. 2-1

EDGAR ALLAN POE'S WORKS

This splendid ten-volume library pocket edition contains the choicest and most thrilling of Poe's masterful works. Stories that are incomparable in originality of conception, versatility and execution. "The Murders in the Rue Morgue," "The Purloined Letter," "The Mystery of Marie Rogot," demonstrate the author's wonderful capability for correctly analyzing the mysteries of the human mind. Many recognized authorities claim that the modern Sherlock Holmes' stories were inspired by Poe's writings. The quality of the deductions through which Sherlock Holmes reaches his conclusions sustains these claims.

Stories of adventure, bits of brilliant imaginative extravaganzas, fascinating tales of witchery and papers of criticism and "Review of Minor Poets," which won for Poe the enthusiastic admiration of Charles "The Haunted Palace," and the "Raven," with a brief sketch of the life and death of the author give the reader a vivid conception of the atmosphere in which this wonderful writer lived and died.

PEARSON'S MAGAZINE FOR 1905

The editorial policy of PEARSON'S is, in a nutshell, to combine entertainment with instruction. While the publisher always tries to present in each magazine an attractive prospectus of the coming year, he always insists upon the articles and stories themselves being better than the prospectus.

Magazine readers have come to look upon PEARSON'S as the periodical in which they always find some fiction character of such unusual strength as to become a popular hero of the day. The most famous MONSIEUR A. V. THE INTERNATIONAL SPY, and DON Q. FIAN for the coming year include a new series of stories by the author of Captain Kettle, and a new series of Historic Mysteries by ALLEN UPWARD, the author of "The Revelations of an Inmate." A prominent contributor with a series of his inimitable short stories built upon such semi-scientific lines as to give to his F. BERKELEY SMITH will create a new PEARSON'S hero of provoking character from the type of the caricatured scientist of the past. HENRY GEORGE, JR., has in preparation for PEARSON'S a tremendous series of articles entitled "The Decline of the Republic." These articles will show the United States as it exists, socially and politically today.

They will draw parallels between the conditions of to-day and those of the ancient times, when the very prosperity and seeming enlightenment of the people of Babylon, Rome, Athens and Pompeii, and their subsequent downfall and ruin.

There will be no general attack upon wealth, which is legitimate, just, and in every way to be encouraged—but against the social privileges, and destructive of American political and social principles and ideals. The vast system of laws of special privilege in the United States makes the masses on the other—a poverty in face of extraordinary wealth. The material progress and general growth of power to reduce taxation, Lincoln's declaration cannot long exist half bond and half free applies as well to a condition of industrial as to one of chattel slavery.

This must elicit every thoughtful, patriotic man and woman who realizes what enormous power is in this country to-day centered in the hands of the few. PEARSON'S is in what a state of dependence on the large proportion of our population is reduced. PEARSON'S will deal with this question—sensibly, conscientiously, but fearlessly.

SEN. ALL ORDERS TO THE STAR, ELK LICK, PA. By adding $1.00 to the advertised price of any of the above combinations or premium offers—they are available—and also include a year's subscription to THE STAR.
