Almost every citizen of Canton and vicinity joined in remembering the birthday anniversary of the late President McKinley in what proved to be a selebration of national importance. The pathetic feature of the banquet was the presence of the widow of the martyred President. Heavily veiled and half led, half carffed to a box of nonor, Mrs. McKinley received one ovation, respectful and unanimous, not accorded the distinguished statesmen. As if to cement further the policy of peace so long the ideal and aim of President McKinley, Grand Army veterans of McKinley, Grand Army veterans of McKinley and G. D.
