George B. Walker, the great statesman of Gay street, is a very busy man, these days. He seems to be the big union rambler since Edgar Showalter has left the town for the town's good. Owing to the fact that THE STAR this week contains the annual financial statement of the county, and the additional fact that the copy for same was not received until we were about ready to go to press, this edition is very late in making its appearance. However, such delays are unavoidable at times, and we trust our large family of readers will excuse us.

Some time ago Stephe McKinley was very anxious to effect a combination with the leaders of the Republican and Democratic parties for the purpose of completely doing up "the durn Socialists and strikers." Now he is riding in the very band wagon he recently despised so much. But it must be remembered that "Horse Collar Stephe" is a perpetual candidate and had to find a place on some old ticket.

A sleighing party consisting of four couples from Meyersdale took advantage of the fine sleighing, last Friday night, and drove to Berlin. Mr. Jacob Yost, a former well known Somerset county farmer who now resides in Greensburg, Pa., was a guest at the Valley House, last week. Mr. Yost worked at shoemaking in this town, many years ago, for Casper Loechel. It was, therefore, like getting back home to visit Salisbury and shake hands with some of the old friends of long ago. While here Mr. Yost related many amusing incidents. He has not yet forgotten the experience he had with a gun that was made for him during his shoemaking days by Sam Mier, who in those days was, to Salisbury, as great a man as Krupp, the great German gunmaker, ever was to Germany. Mr. Yost's new gun was a fine muzzle-loading rifle, but one day when he attempted to shoot a squirrel that he saw on a wild cherry tree, he forgot to remove the ramrod from the barrel of his weapon after loading it. Well, when he fired, the gun kicked like a Missouri mule, and the way that ramrod mowed off the wild cherries was a caution. It is supposed that the ramrod is still soaring upward, for no one has ever been able to find it on this earth. Mr. Yost had been out in Garrett county, Md., visiting his brother Henry, and when on his return trip stopped off long enough in Salisbury to size up the town's growth and shake hands with some of the old friends.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY THE MOTHER'S FAVORITE. The soothing and healing properties of this remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have made it a favorite with people everywhere. Samuel Buckman Dead. It is with much sorrow that we this week chronicle the death of our old friend and patron, Mr. Samuel Buckman, the veteran hotel man of Rockwood, who died on Friday morning of last week, aged about 70 years. Deceased is survived by his wife, one son and one daughter. Mr. Buckman came to Rockwood from one of the eastern counties of Pennsylvania in the early Seventies. He was the contractor for the grading of that portion of the S. & C. railroad that connects Rockwood and Somerset, and which for some years was known as the Somerset & Mineral Point railway. Shortly thereafter he engaged in contracting for the building of county bridges, and later embarked in the hotel business, which he followed until death claimed him. Mr. Buckman was a man of rather rough exterior, and he always called a spade a spade; but back of his rugged and blunt ways there was a big, kind heart and a most generous and charitable disposition. Peace to his ashes.

AGONIZING BURNS are instantly relieved, and perfectly healed, by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. C. Rivenbark, Jr., of Norfolk, Va., writes: "I burnt my knee dreadfully; Arnica Salve stopped the pain, and healed it without a scar." Also heals all wounds and sores. 25c. at E. H. Miller's drug store. 3-1
