John Arnold, of Holsopple, Pa., in remitting for THE STAR, says: "I wish to please renew my subscription to THE STAR. I think it has the right name, and it shines brighter than ever. I wish you all kinds of good luck." We thank John for his patronage and kind words. He is a very desirable subscriber.

Does advertising pay? The East St. Louis Journal answers the question as follows: "An East St. Louis widower advertised for a wife, directing the answers be sent to a certain postoffice box number. Inside of a week he had received four answers—one each from his three daughters and the fourth from his niece. He is now thoroughly convinced there are other fools in the family besides himself."

We are informed by Hon. A. F. Cooper, our popular and excellent Congressman, that he has ordered 250 packages of vegetable seeds sent by the Agricultural Department to THE STAR, for distribution among the people of this vicinity. The surviving veterans of the Civil war have been fittingly, though pathetically, called "the disappearing army," as about one hundred are now dying every day, on an average. Last year the mortality of our soldier pensioners was 31,278, of which 30,071 were volunteer soldiers of the Civil war. As these veterans are, with few exceptions, now above sixty years of age, the death rate will increase rapidly from year to year, and not many years hence the great army will all have disappeared from the activities of life, says an exchange.

Pineules is the name of a new discovery put up in a new way. A certain cure for all Kidney, Blood and Bladder diseases, and every form of Rheumatism. Pineules relieve Backache and Kidney pains permanently. If you need such a remedy let us show you the wonderful Pineules. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 3-1

What has gone wrong out in Michigan, that glorious union country to which some of our union miners have gone and found work? We know of two families that had about all their goods packed up to move to Michigan, but a day or two ago the wives received word from the husbands that they would not move. More money is being made by the non-union miners of the Elk Lick region, even at the prevailing price, than the great majority of union men are making who send in aid from any of the western states or from the Altoona, Pa., district. The men who have found work elsewhere, know it, too.

Big, genial Joe Patton, who moved from West Salisbury to Ohio, last spring, was a most welcome caller at THE STAR office, Saturday last. He was here on business and said he greatly enjoyed meeting so many of his old-time friends. Upon being asked how he liked Ohio, he replied that he liked it very well out there, adding that he hardly knows how to thank enough his old friend and neighbor, Mr. J. M. Hay, for advising him to make the move.

Mr. Patton further said that THE STAR is a source of great satisfaction to himself and family, and that they are thoroughly in accord with its views on the strike and other prominent issues.

Rockwood Rural Free Delivery Route No. 2 has had many vicissitudes since it was called into being by the government more than two months ago. Several "eligibles" have been appointed carrier, and all have declined up to the latest information. Joseph Hauger began carrying the mail Monday over this route, and it is hoped he will be a stayer. It is claimed that much of the time the roads have been so badly drifted that the trip over either of the Rockwood routes could not be made, and the carriers complain that patrons have not assisted in keeping the roads passable, as they are expected to do, and as the postoffice department demands that they do if the routes are to be continued.—Rockwood Gazette.

"Joshua Simpkins" will be the attraction at Meyersdale, Pa., Saturday, Feb. 25th, in the new Donges Theatre. It is said to be a well written pastoral play, with an interesting plot, the story being a happy blending of sunshine and shadow. The situations are said to be strikingly realistic with an overflow of fun and amusement. There are seven comedy parts in addition to that of Uncle Josh, which character is a whole show in itself. A sensational novelty is introduced in the third act, in the shape of a realistic saw-mill scene, in which a monster circular saw is used, and which is said to actually saw through real timber. A fine orchestra is carried by the company, also a fine band of music, which will make a burlesque parade about noon. The same attraction will appear in the Salisbury Opera House, Wednesday evening, March 1st.

Doesn't it make you weary to read the rot of those rattle-brained idiots of the Chicago press, who are repeatedly ridiculing the country papers on their locals? Those two-by-four lunch-counter fiends think it awful funny when some country newspaper says: "Hiram Slocum has sold his Holstein cow to Ed Childress." But, of course, it is just the proper caper when they say, "Mrs. Franklin Oliver Lowden has just returned from the Epsom Lorimer kennels." Oh, that's great! That bull pup would bring about thirty cents in the dog pound, while Slocum's cow would sell for $50 in the dark. Because Gussie Davis was over at Guard's Point, Sunday, to see his best girl, they throw a shoe; but if William Henry Harrison Pook, the society leader, was in Milwaukee last Saturday to see Miss Gertrude Pabst, they would slobber over a half column and have three pictures of Gertrude and William Henry on the front page, says an exchange.

FROM 7 TO 8 P. M., Saturday, Feb. 25th, all the goods we offer at our great hour sale will be offered at the prices prevailing during the special hours mentioned in our advertisement. ELK LICK SUPPLY CO.

A Severe Cold For Three Months.
The following letter from A. J. Nusbaum, of Batesville, Ind., tells its own story: "I suffered for three months with a severe cold. A druggist prepared me some medicine, and a physician prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I then tried FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR, and eight doses cured me."

A Chattanooga Druggist's Statement.
Robert J. Miller, proprietor of the Read House Drug Store, of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes: "There is more merit in FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR than in any other cough syrup. The calls for it multiply wonderfully and we sell more of it than all other cough syrups combined."
