A UNION MAN.

I vos a Chonny Mitchell man,
 Mine frau, she vos von too;
 She choinz dot Voman's league,
 Und keep her promise true.

She nodings buy from any store
 But she will turn it outside in,
 Und if she find no label on
 She raise an awful din.

De store clerk, he's union mans,
 Or Katrine no vill trade.
 "Ve buy from devil, not from scab,"
 Dot's that my Katy said.

Von day, when I goes home,
 No Katy did I sepy,
 But up dem stairs I heard
 A leetle baby cry.

I runs right up, all black mit dirt,
 In spite of mudder-in-law;
 Und in dot bet, mit Katy dear,
 Der sweetest ding I saw.

I feel so proud I vos a pop,
 After waiting seven year,
 I tink I und tell der poys,
 Und treek of beer.

But Katy say: "Go quick und vash,
 Und come right back to me;
 If baby has der label on
 Ve right away moost see."

Ve search dat baby half an hour;
 Ve looks in ebery spot;
 Der vos no label on der kid;
 "Mein Gott!" ve set, "Mein Gott!"

"Go, take her back to Doctor Brown,"
 Mine frau did sadly say,
 "Ve'll half a union baby, Chake,
 Or doctar'll get no pay."

THE FARMER'S DREAM.

A farmer would a preacher be,
 And strangely strange the dream
 dreamt he.

Asleep in bed, with eyes closed tight,
 He saw on each recurring night
 A golden circle in the sky,
 Which glowed with heavenly light on high,

Encompassing a field of blue,
 Like some clear lake of wondrous hue.
 It thrilled his soul with wild delight,
 This ring bedecked by stars of night.

Within the bordered field of blue,
 Behold, two golden letters grew.
 Tho' they were plain as plain could be,
 They formed the monogram "P. C."

To him these mystic letters meant,
 "Preach Christ" to men where'er he went.

To him this seemed a call from God;
 No more it meant that he should plod
 Behind the plow or till the soil
 With brow ached from weary toil.

And so to Conference he went,
 And told with joy how he was sent
 To join with these strong men of grace
 And in their ranks to take his place.

These men of God assembled there
 Were solemnized to offer prayer
 For wisdom to direct and guide
 And help them wisely to decide.

So much impressed were these good men,
 That all save one exclaimed "Amen!"
 But he was old and fat and gray,
 He stood alone and voted "nay."

He said he knew this farmer well,
 Of his success he'd much to tell:
 No better farmer tills the land,
 The magic touch of his hard hand
 Brings forth each year abundant yields
 Of grain and fruit from fertile fields.

His flocks and herds, so fat and sleek,
 Are watered by a rippling creek,
 On whose fair banks he oft finds rest
 In peaceful dreams on nature's breast.

Now, said the man with hair of gray,
 There's not much more I care to say:
 I know this farmer's heart is true,
 He's just as good as me or you.
 But if he tried to pray or preach
 I doubt if he could fill the breach:
 The world needs men to garner hay
 As well as those who preach and pray.
 So I vote "no," for, sure's you're born,
 "P. C." for him means just "Plow Corn."

A Destructive Fire.

To draw the fire out of a burn, or heal a cut without leaving a scar, use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A specific for piles. Get the genuine. J. L. Tucker, editor of the Harmonizer, Centre, Ala., writes: "I have used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve in my family for Piles, cuts and burns. It is the best salve on the market. Every family should keep it on hand." Sold by E. H. Miller.

MAN AN IDIOT.

His Peculiar Construction. How He Cares for Self.

The average man comes very near being an idiot in taking care of himself. You have seen him wearing a fur cap on his head, while his shoes let in snow and water. He wears an overcoat on his back, and nothing but a thin shirt over his chest. He is scared about freezing his fingers, while his throat is exposed to blizzards, and he is often ailing or thinks he is. It's herb tea, root tonics, Peter's pills, Paul's pine tar cordial, or plasters and cures until the balance wheel in the machine comes to a stop. Nature wants to keep going, but she can't. He drinks whiskey, and that clogs the valves; he drinks beer that clogs the wheels; he pours down lemonade, ginger ale, buttermilk, ice-water, tea, coffee and then wonders why the fires under the boiler do not burn. If you should take an ox and put him through a like performance, he'd be dead in a year. The simplest and plainest laws of health are outraged every hour of the day by the average man. Did Adam smoke? Did Eve wear corsets? Did Solomon chew tobacco? Did Ruth make for a beer garden after crossing the Red sea? Did Rebecca eat gum drops and ice cream and call for soda-water? Adam was the first man, and was made perfect from head to heel. How long would he remain so after eating a mince pie before going to bed? Suppose he had slept in a bedroom 5x7 with the windows down, the door shut and two dogs under the bed? Suppose Eve had laced herself up in a corset, put on tight shoes, sat up all hours of the night eating her fill of trash and sizzled her hair. When you come to look at it the way man misbehaves himself you can only wonder how he ever lived to get there.—Ex.

Great Rolling Stock Order for the B. & O.

New equipment costing between $12,000,000 and $13,000,000 will be ordered at once by the Baltimore & Ohio railroad to take care of the expected heavy tonnage between Pittsburg and the lakes, this year. This will mean the expenditure of more than half of the total amount in Pittsburg. Some of the locomotives, probably all of the steel cars, much of the steel for the order and all of the air brakes for the cars and locomotives will be purchased in Pittsburg. This will give additional impetus to a year which promises much in the way of boundless prosperity.

The equipment authorized is as follows: One hundred and seventy-five consolidated freight locomotives, each weighing 200,000 pounds. Thirty-five Pacific type passenger locomotives, each weighing 215,000 pounds. Thirty-five six-wheel coupled switching locomotives, each weighing 160,000 pounds. Five six-wheel coupled switching locomotives, each weighing 145,000 pounds. Ten thousand freight cars, 3,000 of which will be steel hoppers to carry 100,000 pounds of coal and 120,000 pounds of iron ore.

It is expected that the first delivery of cars will be made April 1, although it is doubtful if this can be done on account of the large orders received by the steel car companies recently. The first locomotive is to be completed by June 1. All deliveries of cars and locomotives are to be complete by November 1. Many obsolete and damaged cars will be replaced by the order, and the extension of the equipment in the way of modern cars will be made.

National Pike State Property.

It seems that the ownership of the National Pike has been determined. Representatives Cooper and Acheson have received letters from Maj. Gen. MacKenzie, chief engineer, stating that after a careful investigation he has learned that the United States government does not possess any right or title to the National road, which was built from Washington to St. Louis early in the last century at a cost of over $7,000,000. General MacKenzie states that Congress, in 1863, relinquished all title to the road and turned it over to the various states through which it runs, with the understanding that such states should continue to keep the road in repair.

The question of ownership was raised recently by the proposition to sell the coal under the Pike in this and Fayette counties, says the Somerset Standard.</
