PRINTERMAN FABLES.

THE PRINTER.
Behold the Printer. He is Hunting for a Pickup of half a Line. He has been Hunting for Two Hours. He could have Set the half Line in Twenty Seconds, but it is a Matter of Principle with him Never to set what he Can pick up. The Printer has a Hard Time. He has to Set Type all Night, and play Pedro for the Beer all day. We would Like to be a Printer were it not for the Night Work.

THE EDITOR'S KNIFE.
Here we have a Knife. It looks like a Saw, but it is a Knife. It belongs to an Editor, and is used for Sharpening Pencils, killing Roaches, opening Champagne bottles and Cutting the Hearts out of Bad men who Come into the office to Whistle the Reporters. There is Blood on the Blade of the Knife, but the Editor will Calmly Lick it off and then the Blade will be as clean and Bright as ever.—Eugene Field.

A DISTRUCTIVE FIRE.
To draw the fire out of a burn, or heal a cut without leaving a scar, use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A specific for piles. Get the genuine. J. L. Tucker, editor of the Harmonizer, Centre, Ala., writes: "I have used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve in my family for Piles, cuts and burns. It is the best salve on the market. Every family should keep it on hand." Sold by E. H. Miller. 4-1

Points for Smokers.
The Medical Review: Very few people are aware how much harm is done to young men by the almost universal habit of cigarette smoking. The man who smokes cigarettes has one always in his mouth, and is continually inhaling nicotine until the system is saturated with the poison.

The result of this practice is a catarrhal condition of the nose, throat and bronchi, a disordered and very irritable state of the nerves, a weak and rapid action of the heart and digestion.

Thin, anemic, weak, with clammy hands stained with nicotine poison, unstrung nerves and degenerated muscles, the youth of the land go on ignorantly suffering the consequences of a pernicious habit until attacks of heart trouble, nervous prostration, melancholia, etc., bring their condition to the attention of the physician.

If a man must smoke—and we admit the charm of the habit to those who have become accustomed to its soothing influences—let him choose a mild cigar and have certain set times for indulging. If he puts a certain restraint upon himself from the start in the matter of smoking he will not overdo it, and there are few men who can smoke more than three cigars a day without injury.

A SAFE COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.
In buying a cough medicine for children never be afraid to buy Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger from it and relief is always sure to follow. It is especially valuable for colds, croup and whooping cough. For sale by E. H. Miller. 4-1

GREAT SOUTHERN COMBINATION.
The Sunny South with This Paper for only $1.60 for Both One Year.

The Sunny South, of Atlanta, Ga., is the South's great literary weekly. Its wide circulation in over 60,000 homes proves its popularity where it is well known. It is devoted to literature, romance, fact and fiction, and its well edited and interesting columns each week make good the wide claim that is urged for it.

The continued stories are from the best authors and the interest is maintained from week to week by the liberal installments that are presented. Its short stories, sketches, anecdotes, incidents of travel and adventure, poems and paragraphs, give it a life and genuine interest not found in ordinary story papers.

The Sunny South is rapidly becoming the family story paper for all American firesides. It is not sectional in any sense, and yet it is truly Southern in its literary excellence. A subtle charm steals out from its columns, suggesting balmy breezes, sunny skies and sweet-scented, delightful landscapes. It is doleful of a life and civilization that is peculiar to the South, or we might say that it is more intensely American. A sample copy will be sent free to all who will send a postal card request, which shall contain also the names and addresses of six of your neighbors, to the Sunny South, Atlanta, Ga.

We have this a clubbing arrangement with the Sunny Southern literary weekly, whereby we can offer THE STAR and the Sunny South both one year for only $1.60. If you wish to take advantage of this exceptional offer, please send at once. Remit by safe methods and address all orders to THE STAR, Elk Lick, Pa. If

The Book of the Royal Blue.

The current issue of the Baltimore & Ohio's popular magazine—The Book of the Royal Blue—has devoted many pages to the International Convention of Christian Endeavor, to be held in Baltimore, July, next, including a very concise history of the Society, a description of the Convention City, its many attractions and surroundings, and a full programme of the Convention. It is a splendid text book for prospective visitors.

Aside from this star feature, the number is especially interesting, having contributions from many of the best writers.

S. E. Kiser, of Chicago, has a short story, "How the Governor was Hoodwinked"; Elihu S. Riley, of Annapolis, tells the story of the "Headless Man of Annapolis." Among the poets who have contributed are Edmund Vance Cooke, the author and lecturer of Cleveland; S. W. Gillilan and Victor A. Hermann, of Baltimore.

A new department, "Humor and the Humorist," which is conducted by the editor, has a series of heart to heart talks with and about the men who make you laugh.

Single copies will be mailed for five cents each; annual subscription, fifty cents. Address D. B. Martin, Manager Passenger Traffic, B. & O. R., Baltimore. If Uses the Newspapers.

The loser of a gold watch or a valuable piece of jewelry, or a roll of bills, never seeks to recover his property by sending out circulars, or hiring stand-walkers to parade the streets. He advertises his loss in the newspapers, if he has good judgment. Common sense tells him that he can reach the greatest number of people with least expense in that way. It gives the advertiser more for his money than he can obtain through any other channel of publicity.

IF YOUR BUSINESS will not stand advertising, advertise it for sale. You cannot afford to follow a business that will not stand advertising.
