BOY WOULD BE SLEUTH.

A boy who appeared to be under 15 years old came into police headquarters yesterday afternoon and told Lieut. Kennedy that he wanted a job as detective, says the Kansas City Journal.

"Why do you want to be a detective?" asked the policeman, trying to conceal his amusement.

"Well," said the would-be "sleuth," "some fellows told me that I could get a job here. Haven't you got anything left for me?"

"How much experience have you had?" he was asked.

"Oh, I have had lots of experiences, all right," replied he of the youthful aspiration. "But the best one I guess I ever had was when I found my father after everybody had looked for him for two days. I didn't look more than half an hour, either. I went right down to a saloon on Grand avenue and found him in the back part asleep. I knew right where to look because I once heard pa tell a man that they kept the best 'booze' in town in that saloon. Pa wants the best of everything, you know."

"That was very good," said the lieutenant, encouragingly.

"Yes, that part's 'dead easy,'" said the boy. "The hardest part came in getting him home without ma knowing where he had been those two days. I took him to a drug store, where a friend of mine clerks. I told him what was 'doing,' and asked him to fix pa up. He gave him something that looked like milk, only it foamed. By and by pa was so that he could walk by holding to chairs and to me. Then I got the clerk to put a big piece of court plaster over one eye, and to put some black paint under the other one. I called a carriage and we went home."

"Ma met us at the door 'most scared to death. I told her that pa had been in a railroad accident and might have one of his legs broken, which made him walk so lame. She swallowed it whole and we put him to bed. In two days he was all right again and he gave me a new $5 bill 'for being smart,' that was what he said. Now, don't you think that you could give me a job?"

"Well, come back to-morrow," said the lieutenant.—Pittsburg Times.

Trespass Notice.

Mr. Pink Whiskers of Pocahontas writes of a notice posted on a tree near that town, as follows:

No hunting not permitted by this farm on. Keep mit yourself off der land or you vill put me dot jail in—Frostburg Mining Journal.

It's a deuce of a note that Fred Durr can't post up a trespass notice without a fuss being made over it in the only exclusively great paper of Frostburg.

THE RUSSIAN-JAPANESE WAR.

Relief Committee Composed of Many Prominent Citizens, with the Franklin Trust Company as Treasurer. Appeals for Aid.

Touching appeals from Christian workers in the Far East have come to prominent citizens of the United States, imploring aid for the sick and wounded soldiers of both armies and the multitude of destitute widows and orphans of soldiers killed in the war.

Rev. Y. Hondo, principal of the Aoyama Theological School at Tokio, Japan, in a recent letter says: "How long this distressing condition of things will last we cannot say. The people are doing their best and every charitable agency is taxed to the utmost, but so numerous have the impoverished families become that our means of immediate relief are utterly inadequate. Could some general fund be raised for this noble purpose, and missionaries on the ground be furnished with the means of distributing and alleviating the distress of these families, it would indeed be a precious gift, and I assure you never be forgotten."

We may not help belligerents, but we may help the suffering and distressed. The Red Cross of Pity is neutral in every clime, and the claims of helpless children are a challenge to Christian love and beneficence the world over.

In response to the moving appeals thus coming from Christian workers in Japan, the Japanese Relief Fund has been organized to obtain the help needed, and all funds contributed will be distributed through the Evangelical Alliance of Japan, under the oversight of Bishop Harris, who is now in that country.

The Executive committee composed of Hon. Seth Low, Bishop Greer, Bishop Harris, Chas. Cuthbert Hall, D. D.; W. R. Huntington, D. D.; Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, Geo. H. Southard, Dr. Wm. Elliott Griffith and B. F. Buck, Secretary, request contributions, large or small, be sent to the Franklin Trust Company, Treasurer, No. 140 Broadway, New York City.

About $18,000.00 has already been contributed for this purpose, $10,000.00 of which has been forwarded to Japan for distribution.

Normal School.

Owing to the fact that the Salisbury school building will not be equipped in time, the Summer Normal will be held at Boynton. The term opens Monday, May 8. It will be profitable to teachers, as a new man brings new ideas and new methods. For further information address D. F. Enoch, Elk Lick, Pa.

Suffering frightfully from the virulent poisons of indigestible food, C. G. Grayson, of Lula, Miss., took Dr. King's New Life Pills, "with the result," he writes, "that I was cured." All stomach and bowel disorders give way to their tonic, laxative properties. 25c. at E. H. Miller's drug store, guaranteed. 5-1

Strikers' Parade.

Several hundred striking miners from the lower end of the region marched through Salisbury, last Saturday, headed by the "Jerkwater Band," of Boynton. A few banners were carried, on one of which was inscribed, "A fair day's wage for a fair day's pay," or something to that effect. At any rate nothing was on the banner about a fair day's work, which shows that he or they who did the lettering thought only of pay, and not of the work required to earn it. The crowd was very orderly, so orderly, in fact, that one man likened it to Coxe's army.

The comparison, however, was not a very good one, as Coxe's army was made up largely of men who would have been at work if they could have found work during the great panic that was on at that time. The men who marched through town, last Saturday, are men who could long ago have been at work at big wages, but who preferred to keep up a useless and senseless strike that was lost to them almost from the start.

But the parade served a good purpose. It gave the public an opportunity to see just how many men made the mistake of their lives, and the great Shakespeare must have been viewing just such a parade when he uttered the trite saying, "What fools these mortals be!"

A DAREDEVIL RIDE.

often ends in a sad accident. To heal accidental injuries, use Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "A deep wound in my foot, from an accident," writes Theodore Schuele, of Columbus, O., "caused me great pain. Physicians were helpless, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quick" healed it." Soothes and heals burns like magic. 25c. at E. H. Miller's drug store. 5-1
