

Dyspepsia of Women

ABSOLUTELY NEEDLESS AGONY
Caused by Uterine Disorders and Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

A great many women suffer with a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not seem to yield to ordinary treatment. While the symptoms seem to be similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines universally prescribed do not seem to restore the patient's normal condition.

Mrs. M. Wright

Mrs. Pinkham claims that there is a kind of dyspepsia that is caused by a derangement of the female organism, and which, while it causes a disturbance similar to ordinary indigestion, cannot be relieved without a medicine which not only acts as a stomach tonic, but has peculiar uterine- tonic effects also.

As proof of this theory we call attention to the case of Mrs. Wright, Brooklyn, N. Y., who was completely cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after everything else had failed. She writes:

"For two years I suffered with dyspepsia which so degenerated my entire system that I was unable to attend to my daily duties. I felt weak and nervous, and nothing that I ate tasted good and it caused a disturbance in my stomach. I tried different dyspepsia cures, but nothing seemed to help me. I was advised to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, and was happily surprised to find that it acted like a fine tonic, and in a few days I began to enjoy and properly digest my food. My recovery was rapid, and in five weeks I was a well woman. I have recommended it to many suffering women."

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement, or has such a record of cures of female troubles, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Advantages of Japanese.

The advantages of the Japanese are similar to those of Napoleon. They do not drink, and are pitted against hard drinkers; have the driving force of enthusiasm on their side, enthusiasm for their ancient country and their new institutions; for their national independence and their personal freedom.—London Truth.

Our Pig Iron Production.

The pig iron produced in the United States in one year would make a column twice the height and size of the Eiffel Tower. The iron and steel rails, if made into one rail, would be 81 feet wide at the base, just as high, and a mile and a fifth long. The coke used in blast furnaces would form a column 400 feet square and 6,500 feet high, and the limestone used would make a column 200 feet square and 5,500 feet high.—Success.

Twins of Jules Verne.

The death of Jules Verne should strike with a sense of personal bereavement all boys who read and all men in whom the romantic imagination of boyhood has not yet perished. He was a prophet with honor in his own country; for he and the famous cathedral of Amiens were the twin marvels of the provincial.—New York Evening Post.

Telephones in Iowa.

Iowa still holds the lead in respect to the number of country telephones. That fact is regarded by Iowa people as a fair measure of the prosperity of their state, and it certainly is an indication of general wellbeing.—New York Tribune.

How Salmon Are Hatched.

The Oregon state fisheries exhibit, which will be located at the north end of the forestry building at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, Portland, Ore., will be one of the most interesting to eastern people visiting the fair. The exhibit will show the methods of hatching salmon, the chief resource of Oregon, and there will be many specimens of the "cloridy chick," the king of fresh water fishes. Some of the largest fish of the spring catch, weighing 85 or 90 pounds, and measuring 5 1/2 to 6 feet long, will be preserved in the formaldehyde in inverted glass jars made especially for the purpose. The exhibit will be the finest of its kind ever displayed at an exposition.—Recreation.

A Heavy Fine.

Under the Elkins law any railroad company which pays rebates in any form, or any shipper who accepts them, is liable to a fine of from $1000 to $20,000 upon conviction. It also prohibits the carrying of freight at less than the published tariffs. The Interstate Commerce Commission is empowered to detect and prosecute violators of this statute. President Knapp, of the commission, states that since this law was passed rebate paying has been as rare as forgery.

Beating of Dead Hearts.

Hearts of cold-blooded animals will beat for a comparatively long time after death or removal from the body (if kept cool and moist), because of powerful internal collections of nerves, known as ganglia, whose automatic impulses cause the regular contractions of the muscles. Similar ganglia exist in man and other warm-blooded animals, but their action is less prolonged. Scientists have asserted that a turtle's heart will beat after removal, if put on a piece of glass, kept cool and moist, and covered with a bell-jar. I believe it has been known to beat 36 or even 48 hours; 12 or 14 hours is a common record.—St. Nicholas.

Wealth of Oklahoma.

Oklahoma is composed of 26 counties, with an annual production exceeding $100,000,000 in value, with $661,945 acres of farm lands; with $90,609,073 worth of taxable property (an increase of $6,474,601 during the last year); with 3,222.75 miles of railway; with property of assessed value of which is $11,109,687; with 67 flouring mills having a daily capacity of 11,665 barrels, with 280 grain elevators having a capacity of 3,525,000 bushels; with 336 banks carrying deposits aggregating $18,384,313.34; with school buildings exceeding $3,000,000 in value; and all this has been accomplished within 15 years.—Chicago Journal.

Valuable Books.

Last December an old man known as M. Henri died in the Rue de Patay, Paris. He was known to possess private means, but that they were meager was indicated by his shabbiness and the fact that he lived alone in a single room. When a search of M. Henri's room was made after his death nothing more valuable was found than two shelves of dog-eared books, which were stowed with his few sticks of furniture, to pay his funeral expenses. When, however, the buyer of the books examined his purchase he discovered two volumes of rare value—absolutely unique—for every page of them, 820 in all, was a £5 note of the Bank of England.

NO TONGUE CAN TELL

How I Suffered With Itching and Bleeding Eczema Until Cured by Cuticura.

"No tongue can tell how I suffered for five years with a terribly painful, itching and bleeding eczema, my body and face being covered with sores. Never in my life did I experience such awful suffering, and I longed for death, which I felt was near. I had tried doctors and medicines without success, but my mother insisted that I try Cuticura. I felt better after the first bath with Cuticura Soap, and one application of Cuticura Ointment, and was soon entirely well. (Signed) Mrs. A. Etson, Bellevue, Mich."

WIT and HUMOR of THE DAY

Collectors.
Mother has a lace collection,
Sister goes for rugs;
Others go for books and pictures,
Butterflies and bugs.
One thing, though, they all omitted—
So, the whirl to join
Father works with toil unceasing,
He collects the coin.
—McLanburgh Wilson.

Flat Terms.
"Five hundred dollars for my vote?" snorted the crooked legislator. "Sir! how dare you offer me this gross insult?"

Terrible.
"Why is Belle so bitter against Charlie?"
"He arose and gave her his seat in the street car."
"Why, I should have thanked him."
"She did, and he said: 'Not at all. Mother always taught me to be polite to old ladies.'"

Commercial.
Skemer—"I think I'll get married."
Ascum—"You surprise me. I didn't think you had a girl."
Skemer—"I haven't yet, but a fellow gave me a wedding ring to-day in part payment of a bill he owed me, and I've got to get the worth of my money."
—Philadelphia Press.

Not Exactly the Same.
"I received Your Majesty's message," said the new missionary. "Did I understand you would do me the honor to call upon me and dine to-morrow?"
"Almost correct," replied the cannibal chief. "I said I would call and dine upon you to-morrow."—Catholic Standard and Times.

A Misunderstanding.
"John," said Mrs. Oldham, "this is Mae Summerral's intended."
"Do tell!" exclaimed the old man. "Glad to know ye, Mr. Legion."
"Pardon me, but my name is Browne, sir."
"Why, she told me her beau's name was Legion."—Philadelphia Press.

Boy Nature.
"Let's go over to Baxter's pond to skate."
"Oh, it's too far. Let's skate here on the creek."
"But the ice is a heap thinner over at Baxter's."
"All right. Come ahead!"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Trouble Begun Right There.
"I am going to compile a book of my baby's smart sayings," declared proud Mrs. Nooved. "What do you think would make an appropriate title?"
"Borrowed Brightness," suggested Miss Sulfuric.
"This was why they stopped speaking!"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Work After, Not Before.
"If you had a million dollars would you keep on working or would you knock off and take the world easy?" asked Blobs.
"You have got that twisted," replied Flurry. "You take the world easy before the million comes, as a rule, and then you have to work to keep it!"—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

Spinks—"Yes, there's one thing about him that any father should be thankful for."
Binks—"Ah! Thought you'd acknowledge it. What is it?"
Spinks—"He's not a twin."—Cleveland Leader.

A Skatolal Sensation.

"Do you skate?"
"I skated once."
"Do any fancy stunts?"
"No."
"Write your name on the ice?"
"No. But I wrote it large in the newspapers."
"How was that?"
"I skated into an airhole and they had to drain the pond to get me out!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Mother-in-Law Wanted.

Mrs. Homer—"I wonder where Mrs. Weeds will make her home now that both of her daughters are married—with her son-in-law in New York or with her son-in-law in St. Louis?"
Homer—"I don't know, I'm sure. They both want her."
Mrs. Homer—"Indeed? What dutiful sons-in-law?"
Homer—"Oh, not necessarily. The one in New York wants her in St. Louis and the one in St. Louis wants her in New York."—Chicago News.

One Was All She Wanted.

"How would you like a nice shad roe, ma'am?" the butcher asked.
"Well," replied Mrs. Younglove, who was having her first experience at marketing. "I hardly know. Would you mind letting me see one?"
"Here. Just in, fresh."
"Um. But would I have to take a whole row of them? Don't you ever sell one at a time?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

FINANCE AND TRADE REVIEW

DEMAND EXCEEDS SUPPLY.

Output of Furnaces Unprecedented—Healthy Condition in the Industries.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s "Weekly Review of Trade" says: Good news still predominates in trade and industry. Easter business of large volume, dry goods, clothing, footwear and all lines of wearing apparel, reporting an unusually good demand, and shipping departments are taxed to their full capacity in many cases. The country as a whole is experiencing more settled weather, which is reflected in a better retail distribution of merchandise. Jobbing trade in goods for fall delivery is broadening, and there is more inclination to prepare for the future.

Manufacturers report less idle machinery, the iron and steel industry leading with an unprecedented output of pig iron, yet the consumption is also above all records, for there is no accumulation at the furnaces. Textile mills are also well engaged as a rule, and forwardings of footwear from Boston make favorable comparisons with every year except 1900.

A few labor controversies are threatened, but none are of sufficient magnitude to materially check progress, even if expected settlements are not attained, for the number of hands involved is comparatively small. Reports are somewhat conflicting as to the mercantile collections, but improvement should follow the liberal distribution of funds in starting agricultural work. Treasury shipments of small change to the interior largely exceeded the amount to transit a year ago.

Car blockades are few, owing to the favorable weather, although traffic is very heavy, as shown by railway earnings for the first week of April, 10.9 per cent. larger than last year. Prices of commodities declined 2.7 per cent. during March. Eggs, dairy and garden products, grain and coal made the most notable declines. Bradstreet's says: Building and building material are active, export trade displays signs of improvement, railroad earnings show 10 per cent. gain for March, and an increase of 5 per cent. for the quarter and bank clearings show continued heavy increases on last year.

QUEEN OF ACTRESSES PRAISES PE-RU-NA.

MISS JULIA MARLOWE
Heartily Approves of Peruna For the Nerves.

In a recent letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., Miss Julia Marlowe, of New York City, writes the following:

"I am glad to write my endorsement of the great remedy, Peruna, as a nerve tonic. I do so most heartily."—Julia Marlowe.

Nervousness is very common among women. This condition is due to anemic nerve centres. The nerve centres are the reservoirs of nervous vitality. These centres become bloodless for want of proper nutrition. This is especially true in the spring season. Every spring a host of invalids are produced as the direct result of weak nerves. This can be easily obviated by using Peruna. Peruna strikes at the root of the difficulty by correcting the digestion. Digestion furnishes nutrition for the nerve centres. Properly digested food furnishes these reservoirs of life with vitality which leads to strong, steady nerves and thus nourishes life. Peruna is in great favor among women, especially those who have vocations that are trying to the nerves.

Buy a bottle of Peruna to-day. If you do not receive all the benefits from Peruna that you expect, write to Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

This is especially true in the spring season. Every spring a host of invalids
