The strikers of Coal Run and Boynton have been parading every day this week, but they have not been carrying any banners. They have been parading to the mines looking for work, but few of them have found it.

L. C. Boyer, Henry Loechel, Walter Williams and John and Wm. Lichliter were all in Pittsburg during the past week with a view to purchasing horses. They purchased two very fine ones, one for Lichliter's and the other for Mr. Boyer.

The latest report from the editor's wife, in the Medico-Chirurgical Hospital, Philadelphia, are very favorable. We are pleased to report that the good wife and mother is on the way to rapid recovery, and we expect her to be able to return home in about three weeks.

George DeLozier and family, of Altoona, Pa., arrived in town on Monday for a visit with friends. They may move their household effects to this community again, in the near future, as they are not altogether satisfied in Altoona. We would be glad to see them return.

We called to see Mr. John Meager, Sunday morning, on whom Dr. Miller, of Cumberland, Md., performed a very severe surgical operation several weeks ago. We found him in good spirits and able to sit up and walk about. His many friends will be much pleased to learn of his progress.

Truly, Mr. Rockefeller has a hard time of it. If he keeps his money he is abused, and if he tries to give it away he is abused more than ever. Which only goes to show how fortunate are the balance of us, who don't have money either to keep or give away, says the Johnstown Tribune.

Last Saturday night some thief or thieves entered Wm. Fair's stable and stole six of his chickens. One of the stolen fowls was an old hen that was sick, and we suppose the thieves had some fine eating. Mr. Fair has a very good idea where his fowls went, and it is not unlikely that arrests will follow.

Port Hartline and family moved to Washington county, Pa., last week, but thank fortune we still have St. Joseph with us. The town is safe from destruction as long as St. Joseph is here to pray and parade the streets with his hymnal under his arm and a fragrant cabbage-leaf cigar in his pious mug.

When a man and his wife start to go anywhere, says a Missouri paper, he tells her to get out his good suit, fix the buttons on his shirt, get his cuffs, good shoes, tie his necktie, brush his hat, perfume his handkerchief and a few other little jobs. Then he puts on his hat and says "Great Scott! aint you ready yet?"

N. G. Keim, former principal of the Somerset schools, gained a victory at the Republican convention at Elkins, W. Va., Saturday, when he was permitted to name the delegates from Randolph county to the Congressional convention. He was opposed by the friends of Senator S. B. Elkins.—Somerset Herald.

Edward W. Rhoads, a well known commercial man, was found dead in bed at his home in Somerset, Wednesday of last week. He had been subject to heart disease, and his death is attributed to that cause. He is survived by a wife, three sons and one daughter. Deceased was a veteran of the Civil war.

Our portly friend Lew S. Keim, of Elkins, W. Va., is a visitor in Salisbury today. He came here from Keyser, W. Va., where he had been in attendance at a congressional convention, at which his brother George was a candidate. George made a good showing in the convention, but failed to land the nomination, for which his many friends here feel very sorry.

We call special attention to the advertisement of Mrs. Jacob Miller, who has purchased a loom of the latest and most up-to-date make, and has embarked in the carpet and rug weaving business. We have been shown some of Mrs. Miller's weaving, and we take pleasure in pronouncing it first class, as well as very pretty. The lady is entitled to a liberal patronage, and her prices will be found very reasonable.

The happiest man in Greensburg is Attorney Charles D. Copeland, who received word recently from the World's Fair Contest Company, in St. Louis, that he had won the first prize, $5,500, offered by them for the nearest guess to the number of paid admissions to the world's fair. Mr. Copeland's guess was 12,806,507. The number of paid admissions was 12,804,616. Mr. Copeland's guess was within 1,891 of the exact number.

It is difficult to cure a cough or free yourself from the discomforts of a cold unless you move the bowels. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar acts on the bowels and drives all cold out of the system. Then comes its soothing effect and strengthening influence upon the throat and lungs. For Croup, Whooping Cough, Colds, and all Lung and Bronchial affections, no remedy is equal to the original Laxative Honey and Tar. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 6-1

Fellow citizens, remember that the cow ordinance is now in force. If you don't want to be fined, keep your cows off the streets and alleys of this borough. Remember that the Burgess is under oath to enforce the borough ordinances. Should he fail to enforce them when he knows of a violation, he would be a perjured man, and perjury is a penitentiary offense. Don't expect the Burgess to perjure himself, for he is not that kind of a man. He will treat all violators of ordinances alike.

If St. Joseph Hartline doesn't like to see his name in this religious family companion, all he has to do is to call on a notary public and have a notice served on the editor "fer to quit, as the feller says, says he." The strike is over, and THE STAR is still doing business at the old stand, even if St. Joseph did almost "bust a hame string" in trying to get people to cancel their subscriptions. THE STAR is as far from bankruptcy as St. Joseph is from that shining crown he expects, but will never feel resting on his soft pate.

Croup is quickly relieved, and Whooping Cough will not "run its course" if you use the original Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. This Cough Syrup is different from all others because it acts on the bowels. You can not cure Croup and Whooping Cough until you rid the system of all congestion, by working off the cold through a copious action of the bowels. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar does this, and cures all Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. No opiates. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 6-1

The town of Abilene, Kan., has a Postmaster who is strong on rules and regulations, as the following, copied verbatim from a placard "writ large" and posted up in his office, will show: "No letters will be delivered until received. If you don't get a letter or paper on the day you expect it, have the Postmaster look through all the boxes and in the cellar also. It ought to be there somewhere, and he likes to look for it just to please you. If your friends don't write, curse the Postmaster, he is to blame. If he tells you there is no mail for you, put on a grievous expression and say, 'There ought to be some.' He is probably hiding your mail for the pleasure of having you call for it two or three times a day. Ask him to look again."

The April "Arena" is an unusually able number. Persons interested in civic righteousness and progressive movements along purely democratic lines will find a rich fund for thought in the following papers: "Law-Makers Who Shame the Republic," by Rudolph Blankenburg; "Municipal-Ownership and League Organization," by ex-Mayor Wolstan R. Brown, of Passaic, N. J.; "What the Second City of Great Britain is Doing for Her People; or, Where Municipal Ownership is in Full Flower," by Clara Bewick Colby; "Switzerland and Her Ideal Government; or Direct-Legislation in the Alpine Republic," by O. K. Hewes; "The Second Great Struggle Between Autocracy and Democracy in the Republic," by E. P. Powell; "The First Great Arbitration Treaty," by Prof. Edwin Maxey; "The Quaker and the Puritan; A Thrilling Passage in Colonial History," by Charles F. Holder, LL. D.; "Emerson's 'Brahms'; or, The Poet-Philosopher in the Presence of Deity," by H. W. Peck; "Ryan Walker; A Cartoonist of Social Protest."

This latter paper is an editorial sketch carrying more than a score of Mr. Walker's boldest cartoons. Among the portraits printed in sepia on India tint paper which adorn this issue is an excellent likeness of Ralph Waldo Emerson which forms the frontispiece of the number. The other portraits are ex-Mayor Brown, Clara Bewick Colby and Ryan Walker.

WON A NAME OF FAME. DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills, have been made famous by their certain yet harmless action upon the bowels and liver. They have no equal for biliousness, constipation, etc. They do not weaken the stomach, gripe, or make you feel sick. Once used always preferred. They strengthen. Sold by E. H. Miller. 5-1

Baccalaureate Sermon. Rev. A. K. Travis will preach a baccalaureate sermon to the Salisbury High School graduates, class of 1905, in the Reformed church, Sunday evening, April 30th, at 7:30 o'clock. Everybody is invited to attend, especially all friends of education. The discourse will be very interesting and instructive.

SHERIFF WILL SELL ROAD. Meyersdale & Salisbury Trolley Line Property to be Disposed Of. Sheriff Andrew J. Coleman will sell the property of the Meyersdale & Salisbury Street Railway Company to satisfy an execution for $5,500 in favor of A. N. Slocum, of Pittsburg. The franchise of the corporation will also be sold.

The Meyersdale & Salisbury street railway was projected by a syndicate of Pittsburgers, and work was started a year ago, since when rights of way were obtained and considerable grading of the roadbed was done. The work was abandoned more than a year ago. A reorganization of the company is talked of.

LAST HOPE VANISHED. When leading physicians said that W. H. Smithart, of Pekin, Ia., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, kept him out of his grave. He says: "This great specific completely cured me, and saved my life. Since then, I have used it for over 10 years, and consider it a marvelous throat and lung cure." Strictly scientific cure for Coughs, Sore Throats or Colds; sure preventive of Pneumonia. Guaranteed, 50c, and $1.00 bottles at E. H. Miller's drug store. Trial bottle free. 5-1
