COMMENCEMENT.

Class of 1905, Salisbury High School Graduates, Rendered Well an Interesting Program.

On Tuesday evening, the 2nd inst., the above named class rendered a very excellent program to a very appreciative audience in Hay's opera house. The graduates are Susan C. Cochrane, Martha M. Enoch, Frances F. Hay, Florence E. Rayman, Elizabeth A. Reitz and Victor A. Williams. All performed their parts with great credit to themselves, to the school and to their instructor.

Music was furnished by the Salisbury Orchestra, a very creditable organization composed of S. L. Livengood, Calvin Rumiser, Albert Statler, George Livengood, R. A. Kidner, Mrs. Annie Wagner and Frank Statler. The program was well interspersed with the excellent music of the orchestra, and all in all the commencement exercises ranked away up with anything else of the kind ever given in Salisbury.

The stage was beautifully decorated with plants and flowers, presenting a very striking appearance, as did also the graduates, who were handsomely adorned with fine costumes and roses.

The program was rendered in the following order:

Overture—"Evening Slumbers"—Orchestra. Invocation—Rev. S. M. Cousins. Roll call, responded to by the graduates with wise sayings from great authors.

Waltz—"In the Shadow of the old Apple Tree"—Orchestra. "Pennsylvania Patriots"—Florence E. Rayman.

Miss Rayman's paper was a very able one, and stirred one's patriotism to listen to what she had to say of the brave deeds of General Anthony Wayne, Captain Samuel Brady, Mollie "Pitcher," Generals Mead, Hancock, Reynolds and other famous and beloved patriots of the great Keystone state.

Miss Rayman's paper was followed by a paper on "Pennsylvania Financiers," by Victor A. Williams. Victor handled his subject well, and he had no trouble in showing that Pennsylvania financiers played an important part in the affairs of this great nation. He gave out much interesting information concerning such men as Nicholas Biddle, Robt. Morris, Albert Gallatin, Jay Cooke, Stephen Girard and Pennsylvania financiers of the present period.

"Pennsylvania Statesmen"—Elizabeth A. Reitz.

This was a very able paper, indeed, and Miss Reitz may well feel proud of it. She made reference to a long list of Pennsylvania statesmen whose names need not be repeated here, for they are well known to all, as are also the many great things accomplished by Pennsylvania statesmen, and the important part they have ever performed in the great problems of both state and nation.

"Poppies"—A Japanese romance—Orchestra. "Pennsylvania Physicians"—Susan C. Cochrane.

Miss Cochrane's paper commanded very close attention, as it probably contained more facts not known to the general public than were contained in any of the other subjects on the program. While we do not agree with all of the assertions made in Miss Cochrane's paper, she nevertheless handled her subject in a masterly way, and she uttered the truth when she wrote that the Pennsylvania medical colleges rank with the best in the world, and that some of the finest physicians, surgeons and medical and surgical authors that ever lived were Pennsylvanians.

"Pennsylvania Pleaders"—Frances F. Hay.

To us this was easily the most interesting paper read, not that it was any more able than the others, but because it dealt with a subject and with men that we have ever felt a keen interest in. The subject was well handled, and it would be a dull person, indeed, who could not be interested in a eulogy on the peerless Jeremiah Black, a native son of our own dear county, and who was undoubtedly as able and as clean a lawyer as this nation ever produced. While Miss Hay's paper also dealt with other prominent Pennsylvania lawyers, it was principally devoted to Judge Black, and very fittingly, too. "Pennsylvania Poets"—Martha M. Enoch.

This was a recitation of great merit, and Miss Enoch told much of interest concerning Pennsylvania poets, reciting in a clear, distinct voice many poetical gems from Pennsylvania authors. Her subject was exceedingly well handled, and like all the rest of the program, brought forth much applause.

Waltz—"A Dream of Heaven"—Orchestra. Address to the Graduates—Rev. H. S. May.

Rev. May's remarks were very appropriate, and if the graduates heed his well chosen words, they cannot fail to become useful men and women, honored and respected citizens. The speaker put great stress on the importance of being true to one's self and at all times daring to do right, which all should earnestly strive for.

March—"Unser Heinrich"—Orchestra.

Presentation of diplomas—Prof. D. F. Enoch, principal of the schools.

This part of the program had been delegated to Dr. A. M. Lichty, President of the school board, but as the doctor could not be present, the presentation was made, prefaced by very appropriate remarks, by the principal.

Parting Song—"Adieu"—The Class.

March—"On the Links"—Orchestra. The last named musical selection ended the program, and the audience was dismissed after a benediction pronounced by Rev. H. S. May.

ALUMNI BANQUET.

Immediately after the commencement exercises, the Sixth annual banquet of the Salisbury Public School Alumni was given at the Valley House. Following we print the menu and program.

Table with 2 columns: Dishes and Ingredients. Includes Tomato Bouillon, Chicken Croquettes, Green Peas, etc.

PROGRAM.

Toastmaster, Lester Boucher. Toast Respondents:

"From Primary to High School"—Annie McKinley, Class of 1890.

"Sunshine and Shadows"—Mrs. Isoline Beal, Class of 1893.

"Keep Busy"—Amanda Martin, Class of 1895.

"Patience"—Kate Mier, Class of 1898.

"The Old and the New"—Grace Hay, Class of 1900.

"Recollections"—Gertrude Newman, Class of 1901.

"The Future Alumni"—Marion Rees, Class of 1902.

"Self Reliance"—Walter DeLozier, Class of 1903.

"Deeds not Dreams"—Emma Cochrane, Class of 1904.

The banquet was a fine affair, reflecting great credit upon the Valley House, as well as the Alumni.

THE RIGHT NAME IS DEWITT.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve soothes and heals cuts, burns, boils, bruises, piles and all skin diseases. K. E. Zickefoose, Adolph W. Va., says: "My little daughter had white swelling so bad that piece after piece of bone worked out of her leg. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her." It is the most wonderful healing salve in the world. Beware of counterfeits. Sold by E. H. Miller. 5-1

Expensive Vandallism.

It was reported to Superintendent Wood of the new court house, Monday, that some vandal had broken a large piece of molding from one of the 23-foot stone columns intended to support the roof of the court house portico. The huge columns, nine or ten in number, since their arrival here have been blocked up along side of the railroad track south of Jones' planing mill, where they will remain until the time comes to put them in their permanent places. Each column represents an outlay of several hundred dollars in hard cash and Superintendent Wood will pay a handsome reward for information which will secure the conviction of the miscreant who maliciously ruined one of them.—Somerset Herald.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY THE VERY BEST.

"I have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and want to say it is the best cough medicine I have ever taken," says Geo. L. Chubb, a merchant of Harlan, Mich. There is no question about its being the best, as it will cure a cough or cold in less time than any other treatment. It should always be kept in the house ready for instant use, for a cold can be cured in much less time when promptly treated. For sale by E. H. Miller. 6-1

SHIRT WAIST STARCH

Stronger and whiter than any other starch. It is made by a new process, whereby more of the strength of the corn is retained than by the old process. In the top of each pound package there is a piece of White Polishing Wax and four balls of best French Laundry Blue. Price Ten Cents. In using Shirt Waist Starch the linen will never blister; the iron will never stick; results in a snowy, white satin finish. It is the best and cheapest starch on the market. We ask you to give it a trial. For sale by all grocers. Prepared only by SHIRT WAIST STARCH COMPANY, Norwalk, Conn.

TERRIFIC RACE WITH DEATH.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at E. H. Miller's drug store; price 50c. 6-1
