A Man Like the Late Dr. C. G. Stutzman.

DuBois has one of the most generous hearted citizens to be found anywhere. The poor, the cripple, the unfortunate and all classes of suffering humanity strike a soft spot in his great heart. This morning, as an incident of one of his charitable acts, he saw a little boy on the street poorly shod, and taking him to one of the shoe stores had him fitted with a pair of neat and comfortable shoes. This is only one of the many kind acts by the man, and his silence makes them the more a matter of heartfelt sympathy than one of show. The man is Dr. McClellan.—DuBois Express.

Sam Jones on Newspapers.

Speaking of newspapers, the Rev. Sam Jones says: "If I wanted to get a right square judgment, I'd rather go to a newspaper office than in a court of justice. No man whose life is true, pure and just is afraid of the newspaper press of America. They are the best detective force in the country today. They have punctured more shams, and so far as I am concerned, I say take off the bridge and let them go. The only ones that will be hurt are shams and frauds. And if you think the newspapers print too much of a sensational kind, don't you read it. The papers need to be reformed, but the people have got to reform first. Newspapers are printed for money, and to suit their patrons. If you think they should be run on a high moral platform, just reform yourself and the papers will follow suit."

SAVED BY DYNAMITE.

Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe. At E. H. Miller's drug store, price 50c. and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free. 6-1

A Few "Yellowjacket" Stings.

From the Moravian Falls (N. C.) Yellowjacket.

The best way to get the advantage in a law suit is to keep out of it.

Yes it's perfectly proper for Russia to charge up the cost of the war to the "running expenses."

If God made the Democrat at all, he must have made him blind, and the devil supplied the eyes.

Bryan's silence on the silver question these days is so loud that it is attracting lots of attention.

The fossilized party is very much opposed to expansion, with one exception—it would like to expand its vote.

Democracy's mind of "paramount issues" is about exhausted, but she has a healthy graveyard full of dead ones.

Stick your Yellow Jacket in your pocket and carry it about with you to loosen up the moss on your neighbors' backs.

Someone has discovered that the Japs do not use chairs. And they are not letting the Russians use them very much, either.

Two men in history have made great records fighting with a jaw bone. Samson was one, and—well, you know the other one.

Every time the Democrats have gotten hold of the governmental base-ball bat they have made a hit—they hit the bottom of the treasury.

About the only Democratic principle still remaining in this country is whiskey, and they say that ain't half as good as it "used to was."

If you want to know what a man's politics are, ask him. If he begins to blink his eyes and stutter you may call him a Democrat and pass on.

If there are any tears in Heaven, we'll bet Tom Jefferson has wept his nose red over the erring ways of the party that still persists in calling him its father.

Since starting the Yellow Jacket we have said lots of pretty hard things about the Democratic party, but if we have said anything we are sorry for, we are glad of it.

"I still have great faith in the people," says Commoner Bryan. It seems like a sort of one-sided confidence, as the people have never shown any disposition to reciprocate.

"Should idiots be killed at birth?" asks a curious clergyman. Well, what are you going to do about it when you don't find it out till they grow up and get into the ministry to ask darn fool questions?

Judge Parker's team of horses ran away at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., a few days ago, and it is said they broke all time records for fast running. What a pity it was—for the Judge—that he didn't drive that team in the Presidential race!

CLEARED FOR ACTION.

When the body is cleared for action, by Dr. King's New Life Pills, you can tell it by the bloom of health on the cheeks; the brightness of the eyes; the firmness of the flesh and muscles; the buoyancy of the mind. Try them. At E. H. Miller's drug store, 25 cents. 6-1

A Fine Bunch of Fat Cattle.

On Tuesday we had the pleasure of looking at the finest bunch of fat steers we have seen in a long while. There were nine head of them, and they were raised by Norman D. Hay and sold to John Winters, a well known cattle dealer who resides at Midlothian, Allegheny county, Md. The cattle were two-year-old Durhams, and their average weight was a little over 1200 pounds. They surely were beauties, and a credit to buyer and seller alike.

Mr. Hay is one of the foremost farmers of Elk Lick township, and the bunch of steers mentioned were considered the finest in all Somerset county for their age. Naturally, he held them at a high figure, and Mr. Winters, who is an expert judge of cattle, and always on the lookout for the best, was the first man to offer him the desired price.

Mr. Winters has been buying cattle in Somerset county for about 30 years, and it is said of him that he never broke faith or went back on a bargain made with any of our farmers. Furthermore, he always pays top-notch prices for good cattle, and that is why he succeeds in handling such a large percentage of the choicest cattle raised in Somerset county.

Same Everywhere.

Two men from one of the townships were "ripping up" a neighbor to-day on the street corner. A third man who is well acquainted with the whole lot of them was asked: "What did Smith ever do to those fellows, or what's wrong with him, that he seems to be so unpopular?" The third man, who is perfectly truthful, replied: "There's nothing wrong with Smith at all, and the only thing he ever did to those fellows is to get along better than they have."—Johnstown Tribune.

Mining in the George's Creek Region Contrasted With Mining in the Elk Lick Region.

For some time both company authorities and miners in Ocean No. 7 of the Consolidation Coal Company have made effort to pass the 4,000-ton mark in daily output.

Thursday of this week, 27th inst., they succeeded, the output of coal for that day reaching in this region the unprecedented single-mine total of 4,148.83 tons!—over 9 million pounds!—or over 13,000 pounds mined and loaded by each miner!—Frostburg Mining Journal.

From the above it will be seen what a George's Creek miner can make in a day at 60 cents per ton, when the day's work is unprecedentedly large, and the miner loads 13,000 pounds, or 8½ tons of coal in a day. In this region that amount of coal is considered a light day's work, and it is very common in the Elk Lick region for one man to load from 10 to 15 tons of coal in a day. Even at five cents a ton under George's Creek price, the Elk Lick miner has a great advantage in work and wages over the George's Creek miner.

Addison News.

April 24th.—Mrs. Elizabeth Stark, whose maiden name was Wright, died at her home in Petersburg, recently, at the age of 84 years and one month. She was the last of thirteen children known as the Wright family, and they all lived to reach a very great age. Deceased was a member of the M. E. church, and her funeral was the most largely attended of any funeral held in Addison for years. She is survived by four sons. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Wilkinson, in the M. E. church of Addison. Mrs. Stark was highly esteemed by all who knew her, and the bereaved relatives have the sympathy of the whole community.

Mrs. Charles Mitchell, of Friendsville, Md., is very sick at the home of Mrs. Mary Thomas. At this writing she is not expected to live very long, but we all hope for her recovery.

Last Sunday Harry and Ray Rishberger were at home visiting their father and sister.

Jasper Augustine, of Uniontown, is here this week on business. Jasper is always a welcome visitor in Addison.

We were very sorry to learn of the illness of the editor's wife, in last week's STAR.

A CREEPING DEATH.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c. at E. H. Miller's drug store. 6-1

Houses Sink Into Bowels of Earth.

Somerset, Pa., April 27.—Last night between 11 and 12 o'clock, at a point between Berlin and Meyersdale, two houses, situated side by side, sunk into the ground so that the chimneys alone are visible. The neighborhood was highly excited by this catastrophe and a crowd collected in a few minutes. It was reported that the collapse of the houses was the result of an earthquake shock, and the residents of that section were apprehensive lest a repetition of the shock might bury the entire section in the bowels of the earth. Crowds of persons from all parts of the county journeyed to Meyersdale to view the occurrence. Several persons thoroughly investigated the vicinity and gave as their opinion that the collapse of the dwelling houses was caused by the removal of a vein of coal which passed directly under the site of the building. Although the houses were occupied by several families, all the occupants were warned by the ominous sounds, which preceded the collapse and made their escape unhurt.

A Modern Instance.

There was a man in our town, And he was wondrous wise. He jumped into a bramble bush And scratched out both his eyes. And when he found his eyes were out He had a happy notion— He got his eyes back in again With Doctor Soakem's lotion. (For sale at all drug stores.)
