Labor and the Law.

Chicago is the recognized home of Anarchy, and this probably accounts for the fact that her strikes are numerous and bloody. The right of labor to organize and to strike for better wages or conditions is undeniable, but the right of any man to refuse to join a labor union and to elect to work upon his employer's terms is guaranteed by the Constitution and the law.

It is the plain duty of the State and Federal authorities to uphold the latter at any and all hazards, and when they fail, the boasted freedom of this great republic becomes a miserable sham.

The safety of our institutions, bought with the best blood of the nation, demand that mob violence be put down with an iron hand, and that the citizen be protected in his rights, his person and his property.—Connellsville Courier.

TERRIFIC RACE WITH DEATH.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at E. H. Miller's drug store; price 50c. 6-1

Looking After "Doctored" Meat.

N. B. Critchfield, State Secretary of Agriculture, and Dr. B. H. Warren, Dairy and Food Commissioner, were in Pittsburg, last week, and held a conference at Hotel Duquesne with D. B. Heiner, Collector of Internal Revenue; H. J. Banzhoff, E. D. Miller, and James S. Foust, Special Pure Food Agents, and Attorney H. W. McIntosh, representing the Dairy and Food Commission in western Pennsylvania.

Secretary Critchfield, after the conference, stated to a Pittsburg newspaper man that arrangements had been made to enforce the act passed by the recent Legislature, known as the Fresh Meat Law. This prohibits adulteration of meats, game, poultry, fish, oysters, etc., and the use of preservatives injurious to the human system. Chemicals and pigments are extensively used to "doctor" unsaleable foods of this character.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY THE VERY BEST.

"I have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and want to say it is the best cough medicine I have ever taken," says Geo. L. Chubb, a merchant of Harlan, Mich. There is no question about its being the best, as it will cure a cough or cold in less time than any other treatment. It should always be kept in the house ready for instant use, for a cold can be cured in much less time when promptly treated. For sale by E. H. Miller. 6-1

Addison Army Officer Loses His Life at Ft. Monroe.

First Lieut. Moses R. Ross, of the Artillery Corps, stationed at Ft. Monroe, was recently drowned in the moat at that post. He was riding a bicycle along the cement walk which skirts the moat, when the chain broke, precipitating him into the water. Lieut. Ross was 27 years old, a native of Pennsylvania, and a graduate of Washington and Jefferson College. Ross' home was at Addison, this county. He served as a soldier during the Spanish-American war in Company I, Fifth Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry. He was mustered in as a private on July 8, 1898, promoted to Sergeant on July 16, 1898, and mustered out with the company on November 7, 1898. On May 8, 1901, he was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the artillery, and later was promoted to a First Lieutenantcy.

SAVED BY DYNAMITE.

Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe. At E. H. Miller's drug store, price 50c. and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free. 6-1

Father of 26 Children at Age of 48.

J. I. Yoder, a Windber drayman, is only 48 years old, yet he is the father of 26 children, the last of which was born April 27th, 1905, just three days before the father's 48th birthday. Mr. Yoder was married first at the age of 14 years, and seems to have begun to combat the race-suicide theory at once, and to have kept it up without any considerable intermission ever since. His first wife bore him 15 children, eight of whom are living. His first wife died 11 years ago, and he remarried one year later. To his second marriage 11 children have been born, of whom six are living. Mr. Yoder has several children married, and counts among his descendants 10 grandchildren.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

Mr. C. B. Wainwright, of Lemon City, Fla., has written the manufacturers that much better results are obtained from the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in cases of pain in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus by taking it in water as hot as it can be drunk. That when taken in this way the effect is double in rapidity. "It seems to get at the right spot instantly," he says. For sale by E. H. Miller. 6-1

Still Striking Oil.

Mr. J. J. Hohlitzell arrived home on Saturday night from Casey, Ill., where he has been looking after the holdings of Hohlitzell & Co., in the oil fields at that place. He reports that his company had four wells come in during the preceding week, and none of them were less than 100-barrel wells, while one of them is producing 200 barrels every twenty-four hours. The company have 30,000 acres of land under lease in that vicinity, and are putting down wells as fast as possible, and Mr. Hohlitzell is naturally very much elated over their prospects in that locality.—Meyersdale Republican.

The Faith.

What care I for cast or creed? It is the deed, it is the deed; What for class or what for clan? It is the man, it is the man; Heirs of love, and joy, and woe, Who is high and who is low? Mountain, valley, sky and sea, Are for all humanity. What care I for robe or stole? It is the soul, it is the soul; What for crown, or what for crest? It is the heart within the breast; It is the faith, it is the hope, It is the struggle up the slope, It is the brain and eye to see, One God and one humanity. —Robert Leveman.

HOT WEATHER PILES.

Persons afflicted with Piles should be careful at this season of the year. Hot weather and bad drinking water contribute to the conditions which make Piles more painful and dangerous. Death of County Treasurer's Son—Was it Foul Play.

A deep gloom has been cast over the family of County Treasurer W. S. Matthews, on account of the death of his son—Lloyd R.—who died suddenly of hemorrhages of the brain, Friday morning, in the city of Pittsburg. He was aged 25 years, 8 months and 12 days. The young man has held the position of deputy county treasurer for more than two years past. Several months ago he had a severe attack of typhoid fever, and he never regained his strength afterwards. The Saturday before his death he left Somerset with the intention of going to Wilkingsburg and other points on a trip of recreation, and no word was received by his family until Friday, when a telegram announcing his sudden death was dispatched. He died in an Allegheny hospital.

There are strong suspicions surrounding the young man's death that indicate he met with foul play, evidently having been drugged. He was picked up by an officer near the Union depot, Pittsburg, several hours after his arrival from Wilkingsburg, and taken to the hospital and placed under the care of a physician. The fact that all of his personal effects—his money, watch and railroad ticket—were missing from his clothes, indicates that he was foully dealt with.

The body was brought to Somerset on Friday evening, and the funeral took place from the family residence, Saturday afternoon, when the local order of Odd Fellows attended in a body. Rev. R. L. Patterson, of Berlin, a former pastor, conducted the service at the house, and officers of the order those at the grave. Interment was made in the Husband Cemetery.

Deceased was a competent clerk and a generous-hearted young man, and his death has especially been a severe shock to his mother, who has not been well for several years. The profound sympathy of this whole community goes out to the family of the deceased in the hour of their bereavement.—Somerset Standard.

WHY SUFFER FROM RHEUMATISM?

Why suffer from rheumatism when one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm will relieve the pain? The quick relief which this liniment affords makes rest and sleep possible, and that alone is worth many times its cost. Many who have used it hoping only for a short relief from suffering have been happily surprised to find that after awhile the relief became permanent. Mrs. V. H. Leggett, of Yum Yum, Tennessee, U. S. A., writes: "I am a great sufferer from rheumatism, all over from head to foot, and Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that will relieve the pain." For sale by E. H. Miller. 6-1

Boys Who Smoke Cigarettes.

A recent inquiry into the type of boy who smokes cigarettes, taking twenty boys in school who did not smoke and twenty who did for the contrast, and the inquiry covering a long period, shows this somewhat startling result: Sixteen of the cigarette smokers had bad manners, the physical condition of twelve and the deportment of eighteen were poor; fourteen were in bad moral and eighteen in bad mental condition, sixteen were street loafers and nineteen failed of promotion. The record of the twenty non-smokers is a different tale. In all of the particulars mentioned not more than two of the twenty could be classed with the smokers, and but two failed of promotion. Is this not enough to set the cigarette smoker to thinking?

STRICTLY GENUINE.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atchison (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Tack, a well known engineer, running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in this office today, we asked him about it. He says he had terrific pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others, who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Sold by E. H. Miller. 6-1
