This week "Johnny" Hostetter, of Elk Lick township, was married to Miss Tena I. Miller. We understand that the bride is an Illinois lady. We wish "Johnny" and his bride much success and prosperity. It is now Harvey Hay's turn to get himself a wife, says "Johnny," and so say we all.

There has been a big row in a West Virginia church, wherein the preacher was mercilessly hammered by one of the officials, who is now out on bail awaiting trial. The trouble started over the very important question of how to pronounce "a-m-e-n," whether it ought to be a-men or ah-men.

The Somerset Standard last week published a list of cases to be tried at next week's term of court. Among others it had the following: "W. H.

Voorhees, surety; Edgar Showalter, prosecutrix." Since the Standard refers to Edgar as a "prosecutrix," it must regard him as a "sissy," and there are others who do.

Backache is never known to those persons who take an occasional dose of Pineules. The value of the resin obtained from the Pine tree has long been recognized in the treatment of diseases of the bladder and kidneys. One dose of Pineules will give relief, and one bottle will cure. A formal charge of murder will be made against Antonio and Santony Ieracitano for trial at the May term of court. In the organization of the recent Republican State convention, Somerset county fared well. J. A. Berkey, Esq., was made a member of the State Central Committee, and delegates Isaiah Good, of Somerset, and W. T. Hohlitzell, of Meyersdale, were appointed to the committees on resolutions and permanent organization. Delegate-elect W. H. Paul, of Greenville, could not attend the convention on account of sickness, and Mr. Hohlitzell was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Here is the way a local correspondent of a West Virginia weekly describes the visit of a lady into the community: "She is still enjoying the hospitality of her hosts and will probably defer her home-going until the glad-some sunshine of the expectant spring shall cause to bloom on West Virginia's snow-capped hills the fragrant and picturesque trailing arbutus and absorb from her winding roads the rather un-picturesque and obstructive remains of a winter of thirty-two snows."

Mr. Johnson Collins, one of the most prominent and respected citizens of Meyersdale, died at the home of his son George, in that borough, April 28th, at the age of nearly 74 years. He is survived by his wife, two sons and two daughters. Mr. Collins established a general store in Salisbury in 1877, but about a year later sold it to his brother-in-law, George K. Walker, who remained in business here a number of years. Deceased was a man greatly respected by all who knew him.

It is difficult to cure a cough or free yourself from the discomforts of a cold unless you move the bowels. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar acts on the bowels and drives all cold out of the system. Then comes its soothing effect and strengthening influence upon the throat and lungs. For Croup, Whooping Cough, Colds, and all Lung and Bronchial affections, no remedy is equal to the original Laxative Honey and Tar. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 6-1

A fourteen-year-old boy by the name of Lynch, from Sand Patch, was brought to this city on Friday, and taken to the office of Dr. Lichty to have an ugly wound on his head dressed. It was the last day at the Sand Patch schools, and they were having exercises of some kind, and a revolver was needed, and the same was accidentally discharged, the bullet striking this boy just above the ear, but as it was a glancing shot, it came out at the back of the head, after plowing a furrow around his skull.—Meyersdale Republican.

Last Saturday Judge Kooser filed a decree granting a new trial to Carrie Simpson, the colored woman convicted at the September court, 1904, of murder in the first degree, for shooting and killing Miss Minnie Friedline, the Boswell postoffice clerk, on Feb. 2nd of the same year. The wheels of justice move very slow in some cases. The Simpson woman committed a deliberate, cold-blooded murder, of which she was duly found guilty, and she should have been hanged long ago. It is no wonder people lose patience with the courts and resort to lynch law.

Croup is quickly relieved, and Whooping Cough will not "run its course" if you use the original Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. This Cough Syrup is different from all others because it acts on the bowels. You can not cure Croup and Whooping Cough until you rid the system of all congestion, by working off the cold through a copious action of the bowels. Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar does this, and cures all Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. No opiates. Sold by Elk Lick Supply Co. 6-1

The members of the Primary department of the Lutheran Sunday school at Friedens and the Mizpah and Willis Lutheran congregations, also in Somerset county, donated 2,580 eggs to the 193 orphan boys and girls at the Tressler Orphans' Home in Loysville, Perry county, this state, on Easter. The Rev. Charles Lambert is in charge of the congregations referred to. The eggs were contributed as follows: Friedens Sunday school, 135 dozen; Mizpah congregation, 37 dozen, and the Willis congregation, 88 dozen, making a total of 240 dozen.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Kelso, on Wednesday evening of last week, entertained one of their relatives and friends at a card party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Miller, of Uniontown, Pa. Mr. Miller is a successful business man of his city. He and his own have just returned from a wedding tour to Southern California, on their way east. The entertainment provided by the hostess was greatly enjoyed by all, and the refreshments served were bountiful and of the most delicate order. Mrs. F. P. Beachy, at finish, won the prize, an illustrated burnt leather wall hanger, entitled, "In the Good Old Summer Time."—Carleton (Neb.) Leader.

A CREEPING DEATH.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c. at E. H. Miller's drug store. 6-1

Two from the Esbon (Kan.) Times. R. S. Beachy is rejoicing lately over his oil investment in Indian Territory. His company have two good wells, and he received a telegram, Thursday, that a new 200-barrel well has just been struck.

CLEARED FOR ACTION.

When the body is cleared for action, by Dr. King's New Life Pills, you can tell it by the bloom of health on the cheeks; the brightness of the eyes; the firmness of the flesh and muscles; the buoyancy of the mind. Try them. At E. H. Miller's drug store, 25 cents. 6-1

A Boynton Wedding.

Mr. Cyrus Hoenshell, of Boynton, and Mrs. Margaret E. Pastora, of McKeesport, daughter of James B. Speer, of that town, were married last Thursday evening at 8:30 o'clock, at the home of the groom's brother, in Boynton, Rev. A. K. Travis officiating. About twenty invited guests were present, and after the ceremony, the bride, dressed in a blue silk skirt, cream colored trainings and white silk waist, with the groom, led the way to the dining room, where a swell wedding supper was waiting for initiation. There was good music. The flower girls were Misses Effie and Emma Hoenshell, nieces of the groom. The "best man" was John Fickinger, cousin of the bride, and the bridesmaid was Mrs. Arthur Robertson.

THERE IS A DIFFERENCE.

The difference between Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar and all other Cough Syrups is that it moves the bowels, thus expelling a cold from the system. This relaxes the nerve-tissues and by its healing effect on the throat and lungs the cough is relieved—cured entirely. Kennedy's is the original Laxative Honey and Tar and contains no opiates. Good alike for young or old. Taste good. Sold by E. H. Miller. 6-1

Much of the stock of this company is held in Baltimore and Washington.—Oakland Journal.

Hours For Day's Labor.

The Supreme Court of the United States has settled the question of the right of state legislatures to limit a day's labor to any certain number of hours. The court has just decided in a New York case that the number of hours to constitute a day's labor is a matter of contract between the employee, a right which cannot be limited by legislation.—The Fairmont Times.
