

HER BONNET.

Her bonnet's just the sweetest thing, It floats the world as she goes by.

Her bonnet's just the sweetest thing, It roils in just the sweetest hair.

Manuk Del Monte. By ROWLAND THOMAS.

EARLY one morning, just before dawn, three of us were riding wearily down the slope of one of the great grassy hills—some people call them mountains—which lie between the provinces of Isabela and Nueva Vizcaya.

showed a baffling shyness, and many weeks went by before I caught more than a distant glimpse of one. Tranquid hunted them with painful devotion. But he was a child of the cities, lost in the mountains as a puppy would have been.

The old man chose a spot of level ground and set to work. He drove one of the little stakes into the ground, uncoiled the twine, drove another, and so on, until he had marked out a square, about a yard on a side.

HAPPY WOMEN.

Mrs. Pare, wife of C. B. Pare, a prominent resident of Glasgow, Ky., says: "I was suffering from a complication of kidney troubles. Besides a bad back, I had a great deal of trouble with the secretions, which were exceedingly variable, sometimes excessive and at other times scanty. The color was high, and passages were accompanied with a scalding sensation. Doan's Kidney Pills soon regulated the kidney secretions, making their color normal and banishing the inflammation which caused the scalding sensation. I can rest well, my back is strong and sound and I feel much better in every way."
