The New Game Law.

Sportsmen in general are pleased over the game law enacted by the recent Legislature, which was signed by Gov. Pennypacker on April 22d. The rigorous regulations thrown around the game quadruped and birds are likely to result in a decided increase in the number of birds, squirrels, etc.

There are some changes made in the dates for the open season on birds and game of various kinds, and a more rigorous clause in regard to the sale of game birds, ducks, etc. Doves and blackbirds have been included in the game bird class, while the blue-jay, the English sparrow, the king-fisher, the cooper-hawk, the sharp-shinned hawk, the gos-hawk, the great horned owl, and the crow are the only birds not now protected wholly or in part by the laws of the state. Under the new law the open seasons are as follows:

- Deer and fawn, November 15th to December 1st.
- Squirrel, October 1st to December 1st.
- Rabbit or hare, November 1st to December 1st.
- Bear, October 1st to March 1st.
- Upland plover, July 15th to December 1st.
- Rail, redbird, blackbird, dove, sand piper, curlew, tattler, and other shore birds, September 1st to January 1st.
- Jack snipe, September 1st to May 1st.
- Wild goose, wild duck, brant, swan, coot, or mud hen, September 1st to January 1st; April 1st to April 15th.
- Woodcock, October 1st to December 1st.
- Ruffed grouse or pheasant, wild turkey, prairie chicken, English, Chinese, or Mongolian pheasant, October 15th to December 1st.
- Quail or Virginia partridge, November 1st to December 1st.
- Wild pigeon, closed absolutely for ten years.

Strict regulations as to the number of birds that may be killed are also created, as follows: Not more than five ruffed grouse or pheasant, or English, Mongolian, or Chinese pheasant, nor more than ten woodcock in any one day; no more than twenty of any of these birds in one week, or fifty in one season; no more than ten quail in one day, forty in one week, or seventy-five in one season; each week to be counted as beginning Monday morning and ending Saturday evening.

No more than one wild turkey shall be killed, caught, or taken by one person in a single day, nor more than four in a season, while no more than one deer or fawn shall be killed by any one person in a season.

HOT WEATHER PILES.

Persons afflicted with Piles should be careful at this season of the year. Hot weather and bad drinking water contribute to the conditions which make Piles more painful and dangerous. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve stops the pain, draws out the soreness and cures. Get the genuine, bearing the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co. Sold by E. H. Miller.

Editor's Wife Has Returned From Hospital—A Fine Institution.

Yesterday afternoon the editor's wife returned from the Medico-Chirurgical Hospital, in Philadelphia, where she had a very severe surgical operation performed nearly five weeks ago, and once more life is worth living, once more home seems like home.

Mrs. Livengood stood the return trip much better than the trip to the hospital, and considering all she passed through during the past five weeks, she is looking and feeling remarkably well. Of course, she is not very strong yet, and she is also a little thin, but we are pleased to say that she is gaining strength rapidly, and we believe it will not be a great while until she is a thoroughly well woman.

During her absence the editor and children found out what home is without a good wife and mother, and we agree that it was not like home at all. Her absence at table, and the absence of her sunny smile and kindly greeting at the close of the day's work, were all most painful to us, and her missing words of good cheer and encouragement made home desolate and dreary indeed.

The editor can truly say that the day of her return was the happiest day in all his life, and for the happy event we are deeply grateful, not only to Providence, but also to the doctors, nurses and others at the hospital, as well as to the numerous kind friends who visited Mrs. Livengood while there, brought her bouquets of sweet flowers, cheered her with words of encouragement and made her heart glad by many other acts of kindness and respectful consideration. In this connection we can't refrain from making special mention of that grand, kind-hearted gentleman, Mr. F. J. Anspach, and Mrs. Evora Carr Smith, the only two acquaintances Mrs. Livengood had in Philadelphia before entering the hospital. Both of these kindly disposed persons did all in their power to make it pleasant for Mrs. Livengood, and never, so long as life lasts, shall their kindness and courtesy be forgotten by the editor and his wife.

Several members of the Brethren church, in Philadelphia, also called at the hospital and introduced themselves to Mrs. Livengood. They, too, brought her flowers and delicacies, and what was still more valuable, kind words and encouragement.

We firmly believe that the kindly consideration shown to Mrs. Livengood by her visiting friends, had as much to do with her splendid progress as the skillful treatment of the doctors and nurses. The kindness of the visitors may actually have saved her life, for many a person has died for the want of just such kindnesses.

We also feel deeply grateful to our esteemed friends Senator Wm. C. Miller and J. A. Berkey, Esq., for valuable services rendered to us pertaining to the hospital treatment, and we feel that nothing in this world is too good for them. They are two men that not only possess ability, but true manhood and the true religion of humanity in a great degree.

In conclusion, let us say a few good words for the Medico-Chirurgical Hospital. It is one of the best hospitals in the world, and Mrs. Livengood says she would no longer dread to undergo any kind of an operation, if it was to be performed at the "Medico-Chi." Its hospital staff of physicians and surgeons cannot be excelled, its nurses have no superiors, and the whole place is a model of neatness, cleanliness and proper sanitation under the able management of Superintendent J. E. Ellis. In the matter of appropriations, the great commonwealth of Pennsylvania can well afford to be most generous to the "Medico-Chi," for it is an honor and a credit to the state.

Mrs. Livengood's surgeon was Dr. Ashton, one of the most expert in America, and her attending physicians were Drs. Dorsett and Keating. Her nurses were Misses Kelly, Foster, Leber, O'Neil, Clement and Powell. The people mentioned in this paragraph are ladies and gentlemen of the highest rank, and all understand their business.

WHY SUFFER FROM RHEUMATISM?

Why suffer from rheumatism when one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm will relieve the pain? The quick relief which this liniment affords makes rest and sleep possible, and that alone is worth many times its cost. Many who have used it hoping only for a short relief from suffering have been happily surprised to find that after awhile the relief became permanent. Mrs. V. H. Leggett, of Yum Yum, Tennessee, U. S. A., writes: "I am a great sufferer from rheumatism, all over from head to foot, and Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that will relieve the pain." For sale by E. H. Miller.

This paper has been highly complimented by a relative of the late Minnie Friedline on what it had to say last week concerning the granting of a new trial to Carrie Simpson, the convicted negress who murdered Miss Friedline. We have been informed by the same person that Miss Friedline's mother is almost a physical wreck on account of the useless delay in disposing of the Simpson woman's case. If the negress would have been hanged, long ago, as she deserved, the demands of justice would have been satisfied, and the mother of the murdered woman would to a great extent have the horrible matter off her mind. It is too bad that innocent people must be kept in a nervous and broken-down state for months, while lawyers are reaping a harvest, piling up useless expense upon the tax-payers of the county and trying to cheat the gallows out of its just due.

STRICTLY GENUINE.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atehison (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Tack, a well known engineer, running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in this office today, we asked him about it. He says he had terrific pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others, who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Sold by E. H. Miller.

Wabash Railroad Rumor.

It has been believed for some time that the Wabash Railroad Company has been looking after a short cut from the terminus of that road when completed to Cumberland to connect by a short link to Pittsburg, and the visit of several officers of that company with representatives of the large coal companies operating in the Georges Creek field, has given out the impression that a route from the Georges Creek road through Savage mountain to the Caselman valley in this county, and then running parallel with the old National road to Uniontown, would give the desired short route to the "Smoky City."

It is claimed that this would give the Wabash road a splendid grade, and would tap some undeveloped coal fields in this region, besides opening up one of the best agricultural sections in this and Somerset county, Pa.

It is claimed that the Wabash is now considering a survey of the above mentioned route, and the work may be commenced this summer.—Oakland Journal.

Noted Man Dead.

Jacob Heinbaugh, who in his day was one of the most remarkable men in Somerset county, died at his home in Rockwood, Wednesday night of last week, aged 87 years. He was a veteran of the Civil War, and in his prime was noted for his great physical strength. In that respect he ranked second only to the late Alexander Hanna, who was known far and wide as one of the strongest men that ever lived in Pennsylvania.

Some of the feats of strength shown in their time by Alexander Hanna and Jacob Heinbaugh, would scarcely be believed if related in these days of physical degeneracy, yet there are men living who can testify to the truth of them. Both men were giants in stature and in strength.

Meyersdale & Salisbury Street Railway Sold.

Last Friday the Meyersdale & Salisbury street railway, which was partly graded two years ago and then abandoned for the want of sufficient funds to complete it, was sold by the Sheriff, together with a lot of spikes, cross-ties, etc.

The road was "knocked down" to Harvey M. Berkeley, of Somerset, who was instructed to bid it in by interested capitalists, and it is said by those in a position to know, that the prospects are now very good for the early completion of the road.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY THE VERY BEST.

"I have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and want to say it is the best cough medicine I have ever taken," says Geo. L. Chubb, a merchant of Harlan, Mich. There is no question about its being the best, as it will cure a cough or cold in less time than any other treatment. It should always be kept in the house ready for instant use, for a cold can be cured in much less time when promptly treated. For sale by E. H. Miller.
